Clipped Wings Deborah Ancell,2016-10-04 Within the developed world airlines have responded to the advice of advocates for corporate social and environmental responsibility CSER to use the intertwined dimensions of economics society and environment to guide their business activities However disingenuously the advocates and regulators frequently pay insufficient attention to the economics which are critical to airlines sustainability and profits This omission pushes airlines into the unprofitable domain of CSERplus The author identifies alleged market inefficiencies and failures examines CSERplus impacts on international competition and assesses the unintended consequences of the regulations She also provides innovative ideas for future proofing airlines Clipped Wings is a treatise for business professionals featuring academic research as well as industry anecdotes It is written for airlines including their owners employees passengers and suppliers airports trade associations policy makers educators students consultants CSERplus specialists and anyone who is concerned about the future of competitive airlines Corporate Governance and Investment Management Roger M. Barker,Iris H.-Y. Chiu,2017-12-29 Shareholder engagement with publicly listed companies is often seen as a key means to monitor corporate malpractices In this book the authors examine the corporate governance roles of key institutional investors in UK corporate equity including pension funds insurance companies collective investment funds hedge and private equity funds and sovereign wealth funds They argue that institutions corporate governance roles are an instrument ultimately shaped by private interests and market forces as well as law and regulatory obligations and that policy makers should not readily make assumptions regarding their effectiveness or their alignment with public interest or social good Places of Invention Arthur P. Molella,Anna Karvellas,2015-06-30 The companion book to an upcoming museum exhibition of the same name Places of Invention seeks to answer timely questions about the nature of invention and innovation What is it about some places that sparks invention and innovation Is it simply being at the right place at the right time or is it more than that How does place whether physical social or cultural support constrain and shape innovation Why does invention flourish in one spot but struggle in another even very similar location In short Why there Why then Places of Invention frames current and historic conversation on the relationship between place and creativity citing extensive scholarship in the area and two decades of investigation and study from the National Museum of American History s Lemelson Center for the Study of Invention and Innovation The book is built around six place case studies Hartford CT late 1800s Hollywood CA 1930s Medical Alley MN 1950s Bronx NY 1970s Silicon Valley CA 1970s 1980s and Fort Collins CO 2010s Interspersed with these case studies are dispatches from three learning labs detailing Smithsonian Affiliate museums work using Places of Invention as a model for documenting local invention and innovation Written by exhibition curators each part of the book focuses on the central thesis that invention is everywhere and fueled by unique combinations of creative people ready resources and inspiring surroundings Like the locations it explores Places of Invention shows how the history of invention can be a transformative lens for understanding local history and cultivating creativity on scales of place ranging from the personal to the national and beyond
