These findings have important implications for the design of the training program. The results suggest that the training program should be designed to address the specific needs of the participants, such as the need for information on the legal and ethical aspects of the profession, the need for information on the current state of the profession, and the need for information on the future of the profession. The training program should also be designed to provide the participants with the opportunity to engage in experiential learning activities, such as role playing and case studies, which can help them to develop the skills and attitudes necessary for success in the profession.
