Sa Army Bursary Forms 2015:

Child Soldiers as Agents of War and Peace Leonie Steinl, 2017-08-19 This book deals with child soldiers involvement in crimes under international law Child soldiers are often victims of grave human rights abuses and yet in some cases they also participate actively in inflicting violence upon others Nonetheless the international discourse on child soldiers often tends to ignore the latter dimension of children s involvement in armed conflict and instead focuses exclusively on their role as victims While it might seem as though the discourse is therefore beneficial for child soldiers as it protects them from blame and responsibility it is important to realize that the so called passive victim narrative entails various adverse consequences which can hinder the successful reintegration of child soldiers into their families communities and societies This book aims to address this dilemma First the available options for dealing with child soldiers participation in crimes under international law such as transitional justice and criminal justice and their shortcomings are analyzed in depth Subsequently a new approach is developed towards achieving accountability in a child adequate way which is called restorative transitional justice This book is in the first place aimed at researchers with an interest in child soldiers children and armed conflict as well as international criminal law transitional justice juvenile justice restorative justice children s rights and international human rights law Secondly professionals working on issues of transitional justice juvenile justice international criminal law children s rights and the reintegration of child soldiers will also find the subject matter of great relevance to their practice Dr Leonie Steinl LL M Columbia is a Researcher and Lecturer at the Faculty of Law of the Humboldt Universit t in Berlin

The Anxieties of White Supremacy Christoph Marx, 2023-11-06 Prime Minister Hendrik Verwoerd 1958 1966 is widely regarded as the mastermind of apartheid in South Africa This study examines how he developed the ideology of racial separation into a comprehensive system It also looks into Verwoerd s intellectual development and his academic career before he entered politics Apartheid was to Verwoerd less a defense of colonialism but a policy for the future he was an authoritarian modernizer and a true representative of the Age of Extremes

Young Women Against Apartheid Emily Bridger, 2021 Provides a new perspective on the struggle against apartheid and contributes to key debates in South African history gender inequality sexual violence and the legacies of the liberation struggle WINNER OF THE RHS GLADSTONE BOOK PRIZE 2022 WINNER OF THE SOCIETY FOR THE HISTORY OF CHILDREN AND YOUTH GRACE ABBOTT BOOK PRIZE 2021 SHORTLISTED FOR THE ASUK FAGE relate their personal experiences to collective histories of the struggle and insert themselves into a historical narrative from which they have been excluded Through exploring these women s memories this book serves as an important corrective to South Africa s male centric literature on violence and provides a new gendered perspective on the wider histories of township politics activism and conflict

Participation and Non-Participation in Student Activism Alexander Hensby, 2017-02-13 Why might some students convert their political interests into activism when others do not There is a strong need to understand the changing dynamics of contemporary youth participation how they engage what repertoires are considered efficacious and their motivations to get involved This book uses the 2010 11 UK student protests against fees and cuts as a case study for analysing some of the key paths and barriers to political participation today These paths and barriers which include an individual s family socialisation network positioning and group identification and dis identification help us explain why some people convert their political sympathies and interests into action and why others do not Drawing on an original survey dataset of students the book shows how and why students responded in the way that they did whether by occupying buildings joining marches signing petitions or not participating at all Considering this in the context of other student movements across the globe the book s combination of quantitative and qualitative methods and its theoretical contribution provide a more holistic picture of student protest than is found in existing studies

The Rebellion of Forms in Modern Persian Poetry Farshad

Sonboldel,2024-02-08 An analysis of the aesthetic cultural and political aspects of alternative poetic movements and individual poets in three periods the Constitutional Revolution 1900 1920 the post constitutional era 1920 1940 and the ascendancy of modernism 1940 1960 Farshad Sonboldel shines new light on the history of modern Persian poetry by re imagining the roles that the aesthetic experimentations of alternative poets played in different phases of the literary revolution in modern Persian poetry Dominant narratives portray modern Persian poetry as a gradual rational and moderate change in the classical regime of aesthetics as well as a response to and reflection of cultural and socio political changes within Iranian society They also disregard the significance of radical experiments by alternative poets and undervalue the part they played in the initiation and progress of the so called literary revolution These mainstream narratives minimize the socio political engagement of literary works with the direct reflection of the social reality and thus neglect the way many alternative poems struggle with socio political issues through deconstructing the old and constructing new aesthetic systems Each chapter of The Rebellion of Forms in Modern Persian Poetry is centred around poems chosen for their potential to showcase notable experiments of pioneer movements and individuals in each given period Examining the formal and thematic aspects of these poems this book reformulates the story of modern Persian poetry and unravels the relationship between radical aesthetic changes in the practice of poetry and resistance against political and cultural domination in society cultural and literary forms The emphasis on blood challenges the privileged status skin has had as explanatory category in thinking about identity and instead emphasises intergenerational transfer and continuity The argument is that a younger generation is disputing and debating the terms through which to understand contemporary South Africa as well as for interpreting the legacies of the past that remain under the visible layer of skin The chapters each concern blood Mandela's prison cell as laboratory for producing bloodless freedom the kinship relations created and resisted in accounts of Eugene de Kock in prison Ruth First's concern with information leaks in her accounts of her time in prison the first human to human heart transplant and its relation to racialised attempts to salvage white identity the Fallist moment Abantu book festival and activist scholarship and creative art works that use blood as trope for thinking about change and continuity Carli Coetzee is Editor of the Journal of African Cultural Studies Her publications include Accented Futures Language Activism and the Ending of Apartheid Wits University Press 2013 and the edited collection Afropolitanism Reboot Routledge 2017 She co edited The Handbook of African Literature Routledge 2019 with Moradewun Adejunmobi and Negotiating the Past The Making of Memory in South Africa Oxford University Press 1998 with Sarah Nuttall Southern Africa South Africa Namibia Lesotho Zimbabwe and Swaziland Wits University Press The Splendid Tapestry of African Life Adekeye positionality seriously when accounting for Africa's current age of polarizing wealth. To this end, the book advocates a multidimensional view of African societies in which social positions consist of a variety of intersecting social powers or capitals including wealth, education, social relationships, religion, ethnicity, and others. Accordingly, the notion of social immobilities emphasizes the complexities of current changes taking us beyond the prism of a one-dimensional social ladder for social moves cannot always be apprehended through the binaries of gains and losses. Fixing Gender Aiko Holvikivi, 2024 Through an ethnographic study of gender training practices in peacekeeping institutions, Aiko Holvikivi examines how gender is conceptualised, taught, and learned in these settings and with what political effects. She finds that this training constitutes a deeply ambivalent practice from the point of view of intersectional feminist political commitments. Drawing on queer and postcolonial feminist thought, Fixing Gender examines the contradictory politics of gender training, arguing that we need to develop the analytical tools to grapple with paradoxical practices that are simultaneously good and bad feminist politics.

Give a Man a Fish James Ferguson, 2015-05-09 In Give a Man a Fish, James Ferguson examines the rise of social welfare programs in southern Africa in which states make cash payments to their low-income citizens. More than thirty percent of South Africa's population receive such payments even as pundits elsewhere proclaim the neoliberal death of the welfare state. These programs' successes at reducing poverty under conditions of mass unemployment, Ferguson argues, provide an opportunity for rethinking contemporary capitalism and for developing new forms of political mobilization. Interested in an emerging politics of distribution, Ferguson shows how new demands for direct income payments, including so-called basic income, require us to reexamine the relation between production and distribution and to ask new questions about markets, livelihoods, labor, and the future of progressive politics. Neural bases of neurological and psychiatric disorders and their neuromodulation treatments Kai Wang, Jiaojian Wang, Yanghua Tian, Bochao Cheng, Hongming Li, 2023-03-23

Insurgent Aesthetics Ronak K. Kapadia, 2019-10-25 In Insurgent Aesthetics, Ronak K. Kapadia theorizes the world-making power of contemporary art responses to US militarism in the Greater Middle East. He traces how new forms of remote killing, torture, confinement, and surveillance have created a distinctive post-9/11 infrastructure of racialized state violence. Linking these new forms of violence to the history of American imperialism and conquest, Kapadia shows how Arab, Muslim, and South Asian diasporic multimedia artists force a reckoning with the US war on terror's violent destruction and its impacts on immigrant and refugee communities. Drawing on an eclectic range of visual installation and performance works, Kapadia reveals queer feminist decolonial critiques of the US security state that visualize subjugated histories of US militarism and make palpable what he terms the sensorial life of empire. In this way, these artists forge new aesthetic and social alliances that sustain critical opposition to the global war machine and create alternative ways of knowing and feeling beyond the forever war. Encounters with World Affairs Assoc.
