All chronicles the career of Dick T Morgan an Oklahoma founding father whose public service reflects a passion for fairness that was sorely lacking in Gilded Age America After arriving in the Unassigned Lands later central Oklahoma with the first wave of non Indian settlers on April 22 1889 Morgan developed a reputation as the go to lawyer for land disputes built a substantial real estate business and promoted church building across Oklahoma Territory During his tenure in Congress from 1909 until his death in 1920 he helped create institutions that were central to progressivism in the post frontier period and have shaped modern America including the Federal Reserve System the Federal Trade Commission and the Federal Farm Credit System Morgan s adeptness in working across the aisle in a perpetually divided Congress serves as a wake up call to politicians in thrall to ideology and identity politics at the expense of the public welfare His speeches publications correspondence newspaper interviews and congressional testimonies reveal him as a public servant whose bedrock principles were rooted in the Republican Party that is the party of Lincoln In both public and private life Morgan demonstrated a deep allegiance to what one of his role models President James A Garfield defined as the heart and soul of the nation and the basis of a free government the church the school and the home Justice for All owes its existence to Dick T Morgan s great grandsons David and Kenyon Morgan who resolved to rescue their ancestor from a century of undeserved obscurity Traveling literally and figuratively in their great grandfather s footsteps the Morgan brothers combined their talents in a journey of discovery that helped this biographer illuminate the Progressive Era through the experiences of a native Hoosier who became one of his adopted state s most beloved and influential citizens Also included is a 24 x 28 sectional map of Oklahoma Territory that Dick T Morgan sold to homesteaders to help them file their claims The Assembly Herald ,1905 The Superintendent Frank Llewellyn Brown,1922
