Multifaith Spaces Terry Biddington,2020-09-21 Multifaith spaces reflect the diversity of the modern world and enable a connection between individuals from different religious backgrounds These spaces also highlight the complex and sensitive areas of political and social debates regarding the emergence of densely urbanised populations They hold the potential to encourage connection and dialogue between members of different communities promoting empathy community and shared activity for the betterment of society This book explores the history development design and practicalities of multifaith spaces from the early shared religious buildings that had to cater for two or more faiths to the shared multifaith spaces of modern secular locations such as universities airports and hospitals Terry Biddington looks at the architectural theological social legal and practical complexities that arise from the development and use of such spaces The book also draws together research to enable further development of multifaith spaces

Spaces of Spirituality Nadia Bartolini,Sara MacKian,Steve Pile,2018-02-15 Spirituality is too often subsumed under the heading of religion and treated as much the same kind of thing Yet spirituality extends far beyond the spaces of religion The spiritual makes geography strange challenging the relationship between the known and the unknown between the real and the ideal and prompting exciting possibilities for charting the ineffable spaces of the divine which lie somehow beyond geography In setting itself that task this book pushes the boundaries of geographies of religion to bring into direct focus questions of spirituality By seeing religion through the lens of practice rather than as a set of beliefs geographies of religion can be interpreted much more widely bringing a whole range of other spiritual practices and spaces to light The book is split into three sections each contextualised with an editors introduction to explore the spaces of spiritual practice the spiritual production of space and spiritual transformations This book intends to open to up new questions and approaches through the theme of spirituality pushing the boundaries on current topics and introducing innovative new ideas including esoteric or radical spiritual practices This landmark book not only captures a significant moment in geographies of spirituality but acts as a catalyst for future work

Shakespeare and the Play Scripts of Private Prayer Ceri Sullivan, 2020 Explores drama and private prayer from 1580 to 1640 when prayer was considered a dynamic creative practice It analyses moments in which private prayer was staged in Shakespeare s history plays to argue that private prayers are play scripts and to recognise how this understanding affects how prayers in the plays were played and received

Shopping with Allah Viola Thimm, 2023-09-18 Shopping with Allah illustrates the ways in which religion is mobilised in package tourism and how spiritual economic and gendered practices are combined in a form of tourism where the goal is not purely leisure but also ethical and spiritual cultivation Focusing on the intersection of gender and Islam Viola Thimm shows how this intersection develops and changes in a pilgrimage tourism nexus as part of capitalist and halal consumer markets Based on extensive ethnographic fieldwork in Malaysia the United Arab Emirates and Oman Thimm sheds light on how Islam and gender frame Malaysian religious tourism and pilgrimage to the Arabian Peninsula but she raises many issues that are of great importance beyond these regional contexts This book also offers an innovative methodological analytical toolkit to research mobility and intersectionality across socio geographic scales

Scaling Holistic Intersectionality By bringing methodological holism into a fruitful engagement with the antiracist feminist framework intersectionality Thimm argues that hierarchical relationships i e marginalisation power and empowerment can shift for an individual or a social group depending upon the social sphere Shopping with Allah will primarily be of interest to readers within the anthropology of gender the anthropology of Islam and the anthropology of religion more broadly

Shop Window, Flagship, Common Ground Judith A. Muskett, 2019-11-30 Shop window flagship common ground views the rich ministry and innovative mission of cathedrals through the novel lens of metaphor and it offers comparative insights on cathedrals and cathedral like churches

@ Worship Teresa Berger, 2017-07-14 Digitally mediated liturgical practices raise challenging questions Are worshippers in an online chapel really a community at prayer Do avatars that receive digital bread and wine receive communion Worship is the first monograph dedicated to exploring online liturgical practices that have emerged since the introduction of Web 2 0

Religion Matters: Volume 2 P. T. Babie, Rick

Sarre,2024-07-19 This book constitutes the second volume of Religion Matters The Contemporary Relevance of Religion Springer 2020 Offering a fresh and much needed perspective it explores the role of religion in the modern neo liberal world The book acclaims that religion is a contextual and contested term which is extensively discussed in the Introduction Designed to be read selectively this book allows readers to delve into topics and traditions of specific interest without the necessity of reading the entire volume In contrast to volume 1 where contributors critically engaged with religion and various disciplines this book poses a fundamental question Can religion contribute to the discipline under consideration Authors were selected based on their ability to address this question Some chapters concluded that religion may offer very little to the discipline under consideration highlighting the value of volume 1 s critical stance on the place of religion in contemporary society However the project s overall aim remained somewhat unfulfilled leading to the creation of this second volume The primary omission from the first book was a comprehensive exploration of the sciences and health sciences which this second volume aims to rectify Furthermore additional authors were chosen to investigate the nature of connectedness facilitated by religion horizontally through membership within wider communities societies cultures or religious traditions and vertically by examining historical relationships within a particular faith tradition culture community or society This volume also broadens its focus to include non Christian perspectives Indigenous perspectives and an increased representation of female contributors

Interfaith Worship and Prayer Dan Cohn-Sherbok, Christopher Lewis, 2019-07-18 This ground breaking book contains contributions from 12 different religious traditions Hinduism African Traditional Religion Judaism Jainism Buddhism Zoroastrianism Shintoism Christianity Islam Sikhism Unitarianism and Bah Interfaith worship and prayer can be complex but this book demonstrates that in a world of many cultures and religions there is an urgent need for religions to come together with trust and communication especially when there is a crisis Full of insights and examples of practice the book demonstrates how religions can be a powerful means of unity and compassion The book opposes the clash of civilisations model as a way of interpreting the world and promotes peace hope and the possibility of cooperation Religious believers can be sincere and committed to their own faith while recognising the need to stand firmly together with members of other religious traditions

Transcripts of the Sacred in Nigeria Nimi Wariboko, 2023-06-20 Transcripts of the Sacred in Nigeria explores how the sacred plays itself out in contemporary Africa It offers a creative analysis of the logics and dynamics of the sacred understood as the constellation of im possibility available to a given community in religion politics epistemology economic development and reactionary violence Using the tools of philosophy postcolonial criticism political theory African studies religious studies and cultural studies Wariboko reveals the intricate connections between the sacred and the existential conditions that characterize disorder terror trauma despair and hope in the postcolonial Africa The sacred Wariboko argues is not about religion or divinity but the set of possibilities opened to a people or denied them the sum total of possibilities conceivable given their level of social technological and economic development These possibilities profoundly speak to the present political moment in sub Saharan Africa A Companion to Late Ancient Jews and Judaism Gwynn Kessler, Naomi Koltun-Fromm, 2020-03-26 An innovative approach to the study of ten centuries of Jewish culture and history A Companion to Late Ancient Jews and Judaism explores the Jewish people their communities and various manifestations of their religious and cultural expressions from the third century BCE to the seventh century CE Presenting a collection of 30 original essays written by noted scholars in the field this companion provides an expansive examination of ancient Jewish life identity gender sacred and domestic spaces literature language and theological questions throughout late ancient Jewish history and historiography Editors Gwynn Kessler and Naomi Koltun Fromm situate the volume within Late Antiquity enabling readers to rethink traditional chronological geographic and political boundaries The Companion incorporates a broad methodology drawing from social history material history and culture and literary studies to consider the diverse forms and facets of Jews and Judaism within multiple contexts of place culture and history Divided into five parts thematically organized essays discuss topics including the spaces where Jews lived worked and worshiped Jewish languages and literatures ethnicities and identities and questions about gender and the body central to Jewish culture and Judaism Offering original scholarship and fresh insights on late ancient Jewish history and culture this unique volume Offers a one volume exploration of second temple Greco Roman and rabbinic periods and sources Explores Jewish life across most of the geographic places where Jews or Judaeans were known to have lived Features original maps of areas cited in every essay including maps of Jewish settlement throughout Late Antiquity Includes an outline of major historical events further readings and full references A Companion to Late Ancient Jews and Judaism 3rd Century BCE 7th Century CE is a valuable resource for students instructors and scholars of Jewish studies religion literature and ethnic identity as well as general readers with interest in Jewish history world religions Classics and Late Antiquity Prayer as Transgression? Sheryl Reimer-Kirkham, Sonya Sharma, Rachel Brown, Melania Calestani, 2020-09-23 Healthcare settings are notoriously complex places where life and death co exist and where suffering is an everyday occurrence giving rise to existential questions The full range of society's diversity is reflected in patients and staff Increasing religious and ethnic plurality alongside decades of secularizing trends is bringing new attention to how religion and nonreligion are expressed in public spaces Through critical ethnographic research in Vancouver and London Prayer as Transgression reveals how prayer occurs in hospitals long term care facilities and community based clinics in a variety of forms and circumstances Prayer occurs quietly on the edges of day to day healthcare provision and in designated sacred spaces Some requests for prayer however interrupt and transgress the clinical machinery of a hospital such as when a patient asks for prayer from the chaplain while the operating room waits With contributions by researchers healthcare practitioners and chaplains the authors consider how prayer transgresses the clinical priorities that mark healthcare opening up ways to think differently about institutional norms and social structures They show how prayer highlights trends of secularization and sacralization in healthcare settings They also consider the ambivalences about prayer arising from staff and patients varied views on religion and spirituality and their associated ethical concerns amidst clinical and workload demands A window onto religion in the public sphere Prayer as Transgression tells much about how people live well together even in the face of personal crises and fragilities suffering diversity and social change

Culture of The Sacred Space Olimpia Niglio, 2024-12-03 This book highlights the relationship between sacred architecture and tourism specifically focusing on the role of interior design strategies It explores how the interior design of sacred spaces can influence the tourist experience and shape their perception of these places The book touches upon elements such as spatial organization symbolism material selection lighting and acoustics all of which contribute to creating a meaningful and immersive environment for visitors It explores the architectural design ideological motivations and the historical context surrounding the palace s construction The book also addresses the eventual abandonment of the project and its transformation of their uses reflecting on the complexities of realizing utopian visions in architecture It examines how the sanctuary s architectural design and spatial arrangement interact with the surrounding landscape including elements such as topography vegetation and water features Moreover it focuses on the interior design and explores the symbolism spatial organization artistic elements and spiritual experiences associated with the dome interiors of these structures The book showcases the historical context cultural influences and the evolution of design principles that shaped these remarkable spaces Also this book investigates the transition of visionary architectural drawings from the realm of professional architects Furthermore it explores how architectural drawings serve as a medium for expressing imaginative and utopian ideas and how this transition occurs in the context of architectural education

The Religious Dimensions of Shared Spaces Paul D. Numrich, 2023-02-28 Space sharing by groups and organizations is widespread in the United States from commercial partnerships to government and private sector joint use agreements to the use of public facilities and commons and more Drawing upon a variety of historical examples and contemporary cases The Religious Dimensions of Shared Spaces offers a focused and systematic analysis of space sharing involving religious groups or organizations All space sharing arrangements are similar in most respects so what difference does it make when religious groups or organizations are involved How do they invest meaning in the spaces they use and share including sacred space When and why do they enter into space sharing arrangements with other parties religious and or secular How do religious space sharers structure and maintain their arrangements including handling tensions that arise What can secular space sharers learn from their religious counterparts and vice versa The book also teases out when religion does not matter in space sharing even when religious groups or organizations are involved Case studies include internal congregational groups that negotiate the use of shared facilities arrangements between congregations and external groups or organizations multifaith partnerships and shared spaces in secular venues

Sacred Languages of the World Brian P. Bennett, 2017-07-18 A fascinating comparative account of sacred languages and their role in and beyond religion written for a broad interdisciplinary audience Sacred languages have been used for foundational texts liturgy and ritual for millennia and many have remained virtually unchanged through the centuries While the vital relationship between language and religion has been long acknowledged new research and thinking across an array of disciplines including religious studies sociolinguistics sociology linguistics and even neurolinguistics has resulted in a renewed interest in the area This fascinating and informative book draws on Christian Islamic Hindu Judaic and Buddhist traditions to provide a concise and accessible introduction to the phenomenon of sacred languages The book takes a strongly comparative wide ranging approach to exploring ways in which ancient religious languages such as Latin Pali Church Slavonic and Hebrew continue to shape the beliefs and practices of religious communities around the world Informed by both comparative religion and sociolinguistics it traces the histories of sacred languages the myths and doctrines that explain their origin and value the various ways they are used the sectarian debates that shadow them and the technological innovations that propel them forward in the twenty first century A comprehensive but succinct account of the role and importance of language within religion Takes an interdisciplinary approach which will appeal to students and scholars across an array of disciplines including religious studies sociology of religion sociolinguistics and linguistics Provides a strongly comparative exploration drawing on Christian Islamic Hindu Judaic and Buddhist traditions Uses numerous examples and ties historic debates with contemporary situations Satisfies the rapidly growing demand for books on the subject among both academics and general readers Sacred Languages of the World is a must read for students of religion and language scripture religious literacy education and language the sociology of religion sociolinguistics It will also have strong appeal among general readers with an interest comparative religion history cultural criticism communication studies and more

Church in an Age of Global Migration Susanna Snyder, Agnes M. Brazal, Joshua Ralston, 2016-04-29 Migration has become a defining feature of the contemporary age It has brought about significant changes in political economic social and religious landscapes This volume explores a question that has been little considered to date how are churches being transformed in the face of global migration The book features contributors from diverse national denominational cultural professional and linguistic backgrounds Their essays reveal the ways in which migrants and the phenomenon of migration expose longstanding gaps and failings within Christian communities However the prevalence of migration and migrants simultaneously opens up fresh possibilities for churches to grow renew becoming more authentic dynamic and diverse Church in an Age of Global Migration presents a collage of embodied ecclesial practices understandings and realities that have emerged and are continuing to develop in the face of global migration Committed to transnational and ecumenical dialogue and to integrating practical and theoretical perspectives this volume is the first to offer an in depth analysis of the ways in which churches are being changed by migrants

Holy Ground Stephen Platten, 2017-10-01 Cathedrals are one area of the church's life where increasingly the unchurched and the half believer encounter God and where the institutions of our society instinctively engage with the Christian gospel Holy Ground digs deep into the life of England's cathedrals and discusses such diverse topics as finance growth heritage liturgy development music and art Of Gods, Gifts and Ghosts Terence Heng, 2020-12-02 How do individuals inscribe their spiritual identities and diasporic ethnicities in the city Through a series of sociological and photographic essays Terence Heng maps the various rituals collectives individuals and events that characterise Chinese religion practices in Singapore From spirit mediums to the Hungry Ghost Festival each chapter engages with the social the spatial and the ephemeral and in so doing it will explore the significance and relevance of Chinese religion in a secular nation state reveal the strategies and tactics used by diasporic individuals to perform and retain their identities uncover the importance of flow and fluidity in the making of sacred space and evidence the value and efficacy of the use of photographs in social research Of Gods Gifts and Ghosts is a ground breaking exploration into the intersections between visual sociology cultural geography and creative photographic practice A visual monograph that gives equal importance to image and text it interrogates the tensions between sacred and profane official and unofficial state and individual physical and spiritual peeling away the myriad layers of the spiritual imagination
