Sad Peom Xhosa:

Xhosa Poets and Poetry Jeff Opland, 1998 Xhosa oral poetry has defied the threats to its integrity over two centuries to take its place in a free South Africa This volume establishes the background to this poetic re emergence preserving and transmitting the voice of the Xhosa poet Jolobe, Xhosa Poet and Writer Benjamin Ezra Nuttall Mahlasela, 1973

Literatures in African Languages B. W. Andrzejewski, S. Pilaszewicz, W. Tyloch, 1985-11-21 Although African literatures in English and French are widely known outside Africa those in the African languages themselves have not received comparable attention In this book a number have been selected for survey by fourteen specialist writers providing the reader with an introduction to this very wide field and a body of reference material which includes extensive bibliographies and biographical information on African authors Theoretical issues such as genre divisions are discussed in the essays and the historical social and political forces at work in the creation and reception of African literature are examined Literature is treated as an art whose medium is language so that both the oral and written forms are encompassed This book will be of value not only to readers concerned with the cultures of Africa but to all those with an interest in the literary phenomena of the world in general Diviners and Prophets Among the Xhosa (1593-1856) Mongameli Mabona, 2004 The South African anthropologist Dr M Mabona uses the main title of this book as a convenient platform to launch an investigation into the roots of Xhosa culture and history Many of the findings break new ground in Southern African anthropology and history such as the original stock of the Bantu peoples arose from a cradle land between the Orange and Vaal rivers in South Africa the word Guinea is identical with the Xhosa ebu Nguni Nguniland Xhosa as well as Bantu history stretches back 50 000 years ago into the Middle Stone Ages MSA and into the Acheulian Age the age of hominisation the basic paradigmatic structure of Bantu speech Xhosa thought structures the fundamental relationship between the Xhosa language and mythology A Vision of Order Ursula A. Barnett, 1983 Southern African Literatures Michael J. F. Chapman, 2003 Southern African Literatures is a major study of the work of writers from South Africa Zimbabwe Zambia Malawi Angola Mozambique and Namibia written at a time of crucial change in the subcontinent It covers a wide range of work from the storytelling of stone age Bushmen to modern writing by renowned figures such as Es kia Mphahlele Nadine Gordimer and Andr c Brink encompassing traditional popular and elite writing literature in translation and case studies based on topical issues Michael Chapman argues that literary history in the southern African region is best based on a comparative method which while respecting differences of language race and social circumstance seeks cultural interchange including translations of experience across linguistic and ethnic borders Instead of perpetuating division the study examines points of common reference as it asks what makes a literary culture Who are to be regarded as major and minor authors What are the strengths and limitations of local and international perspectives Should literature in today s southern Africa be confined to the art forms of poems plays and fiction The author seeks to answer these questions vital to all literary discussion in the volatile context of recent southern African history in a style accessible to the general reader The study is republished with a revised Preface in which the author considers the sometimes heated debates that accompanied the book's initial appearance Southern African Literatures in 2000 was awarded the premier Bill Venter Prize for academic literature in South Africa

The Spirit of Resistance in Music and Spoken Word of South Africa's Eastern Cape Lindsay Michie, 2021-09-20 From an array of prominent activists including Nelson Mandela and Steve Biko to renowned performers and oral poets such as Johnny Dyani and Samuel Mqhayi the Eastern Cape region plays a unique role in the history of South African protest politics and creativity The Spirit of Resistance in Music and Spoken Word of South Africa's Eastern Cape concentrates on the Eastern Cape's contribution to the larger narrative of the connection between creativity mass movements and the forging of a modern African identity and focuses largely on the amaXhosa population Lindsay Michie explores Eastern Cape performance artists activists organizations and movements that used inventive and historical means to raise awareness of their plight and brought pressure to bear on the authorities and systems that caused it all the while exhibiting the depth originality and inspiration of their culture Orality, Literacy, and Colonialism in Southern Africa Jonathan A. Draper, 2004-01-01 Literacy is essentially about the control of information memory and belief and with colonialism in Southern Africa came the Bible and text based literacy monitored by missionaries and colonial authorities Old and new oral traditions however are beyond the control of empire and often carry the resistance hopes and dreams of colonized people The essays in this volume recover aspects of Southern Africa's rich oral tradition The authors from disciplines such as anthropology African literature and biblical studies delineate some of the contours of the indigenous knowledge systems which sustained resistance to colonialism and today provide resources for postapartheid society in Southern Africa Paperback edition is available from the Society of Biblical Literature www.sbl-site.org Spearheading Debate Steven C. Dubin, 2012 As South Africa's democracy matures this book raises pertinent questions How does the state mediate between traditional tribal authority and constitutional law in matters such as initiation customs or the rights of women children and homosexuals What are the limitations on artistic freedom in a society where sensitivities over colonial and apartheid era representations are acute How does race open up discussions or close down dialogue and What are the parameters of freedom of speech when minorities fear that hateful language may trigger actual violence against them Examining disputes over South African art music media editorial cartoons history public memory and a variety of social practices the culture wars perspective is extended to new territory in this study demonstrating its cross cultural applicability and parsing critical debates within this vibrant society in formation Southern African Material in Anthologies of English Literature in the Strange Library of Africana Strange Library of Africana, 1988 Escarpmnts Patrick Cullinan, 2008 The Uncoiling Python Harold Scheub, 2010-06-05 There are many collections of African oral traditions but few as carefully organized as The Uncoiling Python Harold Scheub one of the world's leading scholars of African oral traditions and folklore explores the ways in which oral traditions have served to combat and subvert colonial domination in South Africa From the time colonial forces first came to southern Africa in 1487 oral and written traditions have been a bulwark against what became 350 years of colonial rule characterized by the racist policies of apartheid The Uncoiling Python South African Storytellers and Resistance is the first in depth study of oral tradition as a means of survival In open insurrections and other subversive activities Africans resisted the daily humiliations of colonial rule but perhaps the most effective and least apparent expression of subversion was through indigenous storytelling and poetic traditions Harold Scheub has collected the stories and poetry of the Xhosa Zulu Swati and Ndebele peoples to present a fascinating analysis of how the apparently harmless tellers of tales and creators of poetry acted as front line soldiers Singing Ideas Triona Ní Shíocháin,2017-12-29 Considered by many to be the greatest Irish song poet of her generation Míre Bhú Ní Laeire Yellow Mary O Leary 1774 1848 was an illiterate woman unconnected to elite literary and philosophical circles who powerfully engaged the politics of her own society through song As an oral arts practitioner Míre Bhú composed songs whose ecstatic radical vision stirred her community to revolt and helped to shape nineteenth century Irish anti colonial thought This provocative and richly theorized study explores the re creative liminal aspect of song treating it as a performative social process that cuts to the very root of identity and thought formation thus re imagining the history of ideas in society The Tongue Is Fire Harold Scheub,1996-10-01 In the years between the Sharpeville Massacre of 1960 and the Soweto Uprising of 1976 a period that was both the height of the apartheid system in South Africa and in retrospect the beginning of its end Harold Scheub went to Africa to collect stories With tape recorder and camera in hand Scheub registered the testaments of Swati Xhosa Ndebele and Zulu storytellers farming people who lived in the remote reaches of rural South Africa While young people fought in the streets of Soweto and South African writers made the world aware of apartheid's evils the rural storytellers resisted apartheid in their own way using myth and metaphor to preserve their traditions and confront their oppressors For more than 20 years Scheub kept the promise he made to the storytellers to publish his translations of their stories only when freedom came to South Africa The Tongue Is Fire presents these voices of South African oral tradition the historians the poets the epic performers the myth makers documenting their enduring faith in the power of the word to sustain tradition in the face of determined efforts to distort or eliminate it These texts are a tribute to the storytellers who have always in periods of crisis exercised their art to inspire their own people South African Battles Timothy Couzens,2013-08-12 South African Battles describes 36 battles spread over five centuries These are not the well trodden battlefields of standard histories but generally lesser known ones Some were of critical importance while some were infinitely curious Who for instance has heard of the battles of Nakob Middelpos Mome Gorge or Mushroom Valley Who knows about the four black women that Bartolomeu Dias brought with him on his pioneering voyage of exploration Who knows that there was a significant battle in what is now the Kruger National Park in 1725 Who knows about the military episode where not a shot was fired but which brought South Africa into the Great War Who knows that Germany once invaded South Africa Written in a light humorous and personal style each chapter is self contained like a short story They can be read one a night and mulled over next day with the promise of further enjoyment to come South African Battles is an ideal bedside book as well as an engaging travel companion But there is also a twist in the tale at the end Caveat lector or lectrix Ariel ,1996 The Dassie and the Hunter Jeff Opland,2005 This book chronicles the life times and poetry of extraordinary Xhosa praise poet the late David Yali Manisi and his growing friendship and fruitful working relationship with author Jeff Opland Opland is a renowned scholar who is recognized world wide as a foremost authority on Xhosa izibongo or praises His perceptive account gives insight not only into Manisi himself but the complex art form of praise poetry a spontaneous performance art of extraordinary subtlety and sophistication that as Opland notes embodies in itself the ancestral culture history and politics of the Xhosa nation What is unique about this book is the personal dimension that Opland brings to the subject fusing impeccable scholarship with self reflective autobiographical narrative The book incorporates a variety of styles from autobiographical to verbatim interview and its shift of voice reflect the author s own internal journey as his deepening friendship with Manisi works its humanizing alchemy The book is a celebration of the supreme talent of a gifted African poet and the interaction of a black and a white South African reaching out to each other Epic Singers and Oral Tradition Albert Bates Lord,2018-08-06 Albert Bates Lord here offers an unparalleled overview of the nature of oral traditional epic songs and the practices of the singers who composed them Shaped by the conviction that theory should be based on what singers actually do and have done in times past the essays collected here span half a century of Lord s research on the oral tradition from Homer to the twentieth century Drawing on his extensive fieldwork in living oral traditions and on the theoretical writings of Milman Parry Lord concentrates on the singers and their art as manifested in texts of performance In thirteen essays some previously unpublished and all of them revised for book publication he explores questions of composition transmittal and interpretation and raises important comparative issues Individual chapters discuss aspects of the Homeric poems South Slavic oral traditional epics the songs of Avdo Metedovic Beowulf and Anglo Saxon poetry the medieval Greek Digenis Akritas and other medieval epics central Asiatic and Balkan epics the Finnish Kalevala and the Bulgarian oral epic The work of one of the most respected scholars of his generation Epic Singers and Oral Tradition will be an invaluable resource for scholars and students of myth and folklore classicists medievalists Slavists comparatists literary theorists and anthropologists Black Composers of Southern Africa Yvonne Huskisson,1992 This publication contains details of a new up and coming generation of composers It provides information on 318 composers and as such is a standard reference word on local composers Nation's Bounty Nontsizi Mqgwetho,2007-06 A beautiful study of the incredible life of Nontsizi Mqgwetho For nearly a decade Nontsizi Mqgwetho contributed poetry to a Johannesburg newspaper Umteteli wa Bantu the first and only female poet to produce a substantial body of work in Xhosa Apart from what is revealed in these writings very little is known about her life She explodes on the scene with her swaggering urgent confrontational woman's poetry on 23 October 1920 sends poems to the newspaper regularly throughout the three years from 1924 to 1926 withdraws for two years until two final poems appear in December 1928 and January 1929 then disappears into the shrouding silence she first burst from Nothing more is heard from her but the poetry she left immediately claims for her the status of one of the greatest literary artists ever to write in Xhosa an anguished voice of an urban woman confronting male dominance ineffective leadership black apathy white malice and indifference economic exploitation and a tragic history of nineteenth century territorial and cultural dispossession The Nation's Bounty contains the original poems alongside English translations by Jeff Opland It was the first of a number of new titles planned for release in the African Treasury Series a premier collection of texts by South Africa's pioneers of African literature and written in indigenous languages First published by Wits University Press in the 1940s the series provided a voice for the voiceless and celebrated African culture history and heritage It continues to make a contribution by supporting current efforts to empower and develop the status of African languages in South Africa
