how a person becomes a Secret Service agent and what their day to day life is like in this dangerous line of work Junior Secret Service Agent Training Manual U.S. Department of the Interior,2014-09-19 United States Secret Service Agents protected Springwood the home of Franklin D Roosevelt in Hyde Park New York for the 12 years that he was President of the United States of America Franklin D Roosevelt was the 32nd President and the only president ever elected to 4 terms which means he would hold that office for 16 years in a row President Roosevelt died on April 12 1945 at the beginning of his fourth term His death ended the need for the Secret Service to keep the family home and lands safe for him Their job at Springwood had started long before that when he was elected as President for the first time in November 1932 Today you can explore what it was like to be one of President Roosevelt s Secret Service Agents working here at Springwood As you visit the President s home grounds and different buildings test yourself to see if you have what it takes to protect the President by finishing your chosen activities in this Training Manual Careers in the United States Secret Service Institute for Career Research,2017-01-07 THE UNITED STATES SECRET SERVICE is the oldest federal law enforcement agency in the nation and is recognized as one of the most elite in the world It is a self contained organization not part of the FBI or CIA At the mention of the Secret Service most people conjure up images of big men in dark suits and sunglasses surrounding the leader of the free world wherever he goes Indeed the agency has a long history of protecting not only presidents but vice presidents their families foreign dignitaries and even presidential hopefuls However this is only part of the Secret Service story The agency was initially created as a division of the Treasury Department In the wake of the Civil War there was a large quantity of phony money in circulation In fact it is estimated that more than one third of American currency was counterfeit at the time President Abraham Lincoln established the Secret Service to combat the problem and to ensure the integrity of the nation s financial infrastructure Ironically Lincoln signed the legislation creating the agency on April 14 1865 the very day John Wilkes Booth assassinated him Yet it would be another 36 years before the Secret Service assumed the responsibility of protecting American presidents Since its inception the agency has been investigating and guarding against financial crimes such as counterfeiting identity theft computer fraud money laundering and all types of financial fraud It also took on anyone perpetrating mass frauds against the government which included the likes of the Ku Klux Klan among others In 2003 the Secret Service was transferred to the Department of Homeland Security Today it fights crime on a global scale investigating a growing list of technology based crimes such as cyber attacks against the nation s financial and telecommunications infrastructure and technological attacks that hack into government systems There are training programs for Secret Service special agents totaling 27 weeks The agency provides one of a kind training designed to prepare agents for the high level of responsibility they will take on Making it this far does not guarantee entry to the Secret Service Failure to pass any test along the way is cause for immediate disqualification New special agents who do successfully get through training are assigned to posts in one of the agency s domestic field offices It takes several years of experience in a field office before an agent is qualified to transfer to protective duty Officers in the Uniformed Division also go through months of rigorous training Unlike special agents who can be assigned to offices anywhere in the US or overseas officers in the Uniformed Division are typically assigned to protect government buildings and embassies in and around Washington DC A career with the Secret Service is more than a job Each day is challenging and demanding yet exciting and rewarding all at the same time It takes hard work and dedication to prepare for this career but those who have made it insist the effort is well worth it The rewards start with great pay great benefits opportunities for travel and fascinating work First and foremost it is an honor and a privilege to ensure the safety of the nation SPECIAL AGENT, SECRET SERVICE National Learning Corporation,2019
