Nordic Lessons Nordic Lights Book 2:

Northern Lights on the Dead Sea Scrolls Anders Klostergaard Petersen, Torleif Elgvin, Cecilia Wassen, Hanne von Weissenberg, Mikael Winnige, 2010-01-01 Structured by four important themes the book discusses various aspects pertaining to the interpretation of the Dead Sea Scrolls The first theme is comprised by a number of essays that deal with different aspects of textual interpretation of particular Qumran writings The second theme centers on the question of historical referentiality How can the purported referentiality of particular Qumran writings be used in order to reconstruct an underlying historical reality The third theme includes essays that pertain to different dimensions concerning the methodology of interpretation The fourth theme focuses on problems relating to the textual reconstruction of specific Qumran texts In the final section of the book the perspective is widened to other writings outside the more specific Qumran context

Northern Lights on TIMSS and PISA 2018 David Reimer, Bent Sortkear, Magnus Oskarsson, Trude Nilsen, Maria Rasmusson, Kari Nissinen, 2018-08-10 The results from PISA 2015 and TIMSS 2015 were published in November and December 2016 All the Nordic countries participated in PISA Denmark Finland Norway and Sweden participated in TIMSS grade 4 and Norway and Sweden participated in TIMSS grade 8 The Nordic countries have similarities but also differences which makes it interesting and valuable to carry out analyses in a Nordic perspective In this report researchers from all the Nordic countries have done in depth analyses on different policy relevant themes based on the results presented in 2016 The purpose of this report has been to present policy relevant analyses of TIMSS and PISA in a way that is accessible for policy makers on different levels in the Nordic countries with the aim to contribute to further development in the education area

Northern Lights on TIMSS and PIRLS 2011 Kajsa Yang Hansen, Jan-Eric Gustafsson, Monica Rosén, Sari Sulkunen, Kari Nissinen, Pekka Kupari, Ragnar F. Ólafsson, Júlíus K. Björnsson, Liv Sissel Grønmo, Louise Rønberg, Jan Mejding, 2014-05-23 How is reading literacy taught in Nordic classrooms and how is this influenced by the curricula How can we improve mathematics teaching in Nordic classrooms What is the relationship between school performance and policy variations How do teachers attitudes beliefs and practices influence pupils learning outcomes What characterizes the top performing pupils and how can we stimulate more pupils to perform at the highest levels These are some of the questions that are discussed in this collection of articles that are based on the results of the IEA studies TIMSS and PIRLS 2011 The articles aim to provide input for policy discussions and further policy development within the Nordic countries Therefore the main target groups are educational ministers and policymakers at all levels These analyses will also provide input to the joint Nordic initiatives on educational development

Middle Class Identities and Social Crisis Alejandro Grimson, Menara Guizardi, Silvina Merenson, 2022-12-16 This book explores the dynamics of the middle class global rebellion born of the frustration at declining living standards Addressing narratives constructed by different social and political agents and groups it examines contexts of social crisis in Latin America Europe Africa Asia and Oceania understanding the middle classes as a set of complex and conflicting political relationships With attention to the manner in which people create situated habits consolidating new expectations and desires through a concrete biography it analyzes continuities and changes in classed self perceptions based on performative use With new perspectives including historical and intersectional approaches Middle Class Identities and Social Crisis transcends disciplinary boundaries to explore the hybridity of research methods and techniques and challenge established analytical frameworks It will therefore appeal to scholars across the social sciences with interests in class and questions of class identity Class and Stratification Analysis Gunn Elisabeth Birkelund, 2013-02-06 Emphasizes unsolved issues and developments within class and stratification analysis discussing both theoretical and methodological innovations and revisions In this book comparative analysis has also revealed cross national differentiation in stratification processes partly related to welfare state arrangements and national policies

International Handbook of Mathematical Learning Difficulties Annemarie Fritz, Vitor Geraldi Haase, Pekka Räsänen, 2019-01-30 This comprehensive volume provides teachers researchers and education professionals with cutting edge knowledge developed in the last decades by the educational behavioural and neurosciences integrating cognitive developmental and socioeconomic approaches to deal with the problems children face in learning mathematics The neurocognitive mechanisms and the cognitive processes underlying acquisition of arithmetic abilities and their significance for education have been the subject of intense research in the last few decades but the most part of this research has been conducted in non applied settings and there is still a deep discrepancy between the level of scientific knowledge and its implementation into actual educational settings Now it is time to bring the results from the laboratory to the classroom Apart from bringing the theoretical discussions to educational settings the volume presents a wide range of methods for early detection of children with risks in mathematics learning and strategies to develop effective interventions based on innovative cognitive test instruments It also provides insights to translate research knowledge into public policies in order to address socioeconomic issues And it does so from an international perspective dedicating a whole section to the cultural diversity of mathematics learning difficulties in different parts of the world All of this makes the International Handbook of Mathematical Learning Difficulties an essential tool for those involved in the daily struggle to prepare the future generations to succeed in the global knowledge society Exceptionalism Lars Jensen, Kristín Loftsdóttir, 2021-09-27 This volume crucially provides an analytical and comparative approach investigating the meaning and uses of the concept of exceptionalism while demonstrating the ways in which it manifests itself in different historical and geographical settings Exceptionalism offers comparative case studies from different parts of the world showcasing the way in which exceptionalism has come to occupy an important narrative position in relation to different nation states including the United States the United Kingdom the Nordic countries various European nations and countries in Latin America Africa and Asia An introduction to and overview of a term that has come to define the past and present identity of many nations this book will appeal to scholars of sociology

Children's Literature in Hitler's Germany Christa

Kamenetsky, 2019-06-17 Between 1933 and 1945 National Socialists enacted a focused effort to propagandize children's literature by distorting existing German values and traditions with the aim of creating a homogenous folk community. A vast censorship committee in Berlin oversaw the publication, revision, and distribution of books and textbooks for young readers, exercising its control over library and bookstore content as well as over new manuscripts so as to redirect the cultural consumption of the nation's children. In particular, the Nazis emphasized Nordic myths and legends with a focus on the fighting spirit of the saga heroes, their community loyalty, and a fierce spirit of revenge, elements that were then applied to the concepts of loyalty to and sacrifice for the Führer and the fatherland. They also tolerated select popular series even though these were meant to be replaced by modern Hitler Youth camping stories. In this important book, first published in 1984 and now back in print, Christa Kamenetsky demonstrates how Nazis used children's literature to selectively shape a Nordic Germanic worldview that was intended to strengthen the German folk community, the Führer, and the fatherland by imposing a racial perspective on mankind. Their efforts corroded the last remnants of the Weimar Republic's liberal education while promoting an enthusiastic following for Hitler.

The Rough Guide to Skiing and Snowboarding in North America

Tam Leach, 2003 A guide for both skiers and snowboarders to the slopes and resorts of the US and Canada, covering over 100 destinations from world-class mountains to local gems. There is in-depth coverage of the ski areas, including piste reviews, suggestions for backcountry forays, details of board parks, and tips on avoiding crowds. The guide also provides informative and colourful reviews of the other attractions that make up a ski trip: hotels, restaurants, bars, spas, and shopping.

Danish Mothers On-Screen Djuna

Hallsworth, 2021-11-19 This book combines content analysis of film and television, cases, the examination of policy documents, and first-hand interview material with Danish industry professionals, tracing the pivotal moments in media and welfare state history to unite these two overlapping spheres: welfare state, social policy, and media imagery. In doing so, it addresses a gap in existing academic and policy documents to demonstrate how motherhood and femininity are presented in contemporary state-supported Danish screen fiction. As an industry premised on state funding and public service values, Danish screen fiction plays a cogent role in shaping and communicating cultural norms and provides a space for the cultivation of belonging and a sense of a shared identity. For this reason, it is vital to identify and examine representational trends and patterns in popular media formats. This book argues that the political narrative of gender equality, democracy, and universal social support that permeates Danish state policy is undermined in screen fiction, wherein working mother characters are problematised and the welfare system's integrity is challenged. This book asserts that the framing of femininity, motherhood, and citizenship in many contemporary Danish films and television dramas indicates a cultural concern about the welfare state's institutionalisation of caregiving and presents absent mothers as an indirect cause of crime trauma or social unrest Feminism, Labour and Digital Media Kylie Jarrett, 2015-11-19 There is a contradiction at the heart of digital media We use commercial platforms to express our identity to build community and to engage politically At the same time our status updates tweets videos photographs and music files are free content for these sites We are also generating an almost endless supply of user data that can be mined re purposed and sold to advertisers As users of the commercial web we are socially and creatively engaged but also labourers exploited by the companies that provide our communication platforms How do we reconcile these contradictions Feminism Labour and Digital Media argues for using the work of Marxist feminist theorists about the role of domestic work in capitalism to explore these competing dynamics of consumer labour It uses the concept of the Digital Housewife to outline the relationship between the work we do online and the unpaid sphere of social reproduction It demonstrates how feminist perspectives expand our critique of consumer labour in digital media In doing so the Digital Housewife returns feminist inquiry from the margins and places it at the heart of critical digital media analysis

Translation and Creativity Kirsten Malmkjær, 2019-07-23 Kirsten Malmkjær argues that translating can and should be considered a valuable art form Examining notions of creativity and their relationship with translation and focusing on how the originality of translation is manifest in texts the author explores a range of texts and their translations in order to illustrate original as opposed to derivative translation With reference to thirty translators discourses on their source texts and the author's own experience of translating a short text Malmkjær explores the theory of creativity philosophical aesthetics the philosophy of language experimental and theoretical translation studies and translators discourses on their work Showing the relevance of these varied topics to the study of translating and translations underlines their complexity and the immensity of understanding that is regularly invested in translations This work proposes a complete rethinking of the concepts of creativity and originality as applied to translation and is vital reading for advanced students and researchers in translation studies and comparative literature Skiing, 1983-02 The Independent Hindustan, 1920 The
