Truth, Justice and Reconciliation in Colombia Fabio Andres Diaz Pabon,2018-05-11 The signing of the peace agreements between the FARC EP and the Colombian Government in late November 2016 has generated new prospects for peace in Colombia opening the possibility of redressing the harm inflicted on Colombians by Colombians Talking about peace and transitional justice requires us to think about how to operationalize peace agreements to promote justice and coexistence for peace This volume brings together reflections by Colombian academics and practitioners alongside pieces provided by researchers and practitioners in other countries where transitional justice initiatives have taken place Bosnia and Herzegovina South Africa Sri Lanka and Peru This volume has been written in the south by the south for the south The book engages with the challenges ahead for the coming generations of Colombians Rivers of ink have dealt with the end goals of transitional justice but victims require us to take the quest for human rights beyond the normative realm of theorizing justice and into the practical realm of engaging how to implement justice initiatives The tension between theory the legislative frameworks guaranteeing human rights and practice the realization of these ideas will frame Colombia's success or failure in consolidating the implementation of the peace agreements with the FARC EP Local and Regional Development Andy Pike,2016-07-15 Actors and institutions in localities and regions across the world are seeking prosperity and well being amidst tumultuous and disruptive shifts and transitions generated by an increasingly globalised knowledge intensive capitalism global financial instability volatility and crisis concerns about economic social and ecological sustainability climate change and resource shortages new multi actor and multi level systems of government and governance and a re ordering of the international political economy state austerity and retrenchment and new and reformed approaches to intervention policy and institutions for local and regional development Local and Regional Development provides an accessible critical and integrated examination of local and regional development theory institutions and policy in this changing context Amidst its rising importance the book addresses the fundamental issues of what kind of local and regional development and for whom its purposes principles and values frameworks of understanding approaches and interventions and integrated approaches to local and regional development throughout the world The approach provides a theoretically informed critical analysis of contemporary local and regional development in an international and multi disciplinary context grounded in concrete empirical analysis from experiences in the global North and South It concludes by identifying what might constitute holistic inclusive progressive and sustainable local and regional development and reflecting upon its limits and political renewal

Configural Frequency Analysis Alexander von Eye,Wolfgang Wiedermann,2022-01-03 This unique book provides a comprehensive and detailed coverage of configural frequency analysis CFA the most useful method of analysis of categorical data in person oriented research It presents the foundations methods and models of CFA and features numerous empirical data examples from a range of disciplines that can be reproduced by the readers It also addresses computer applications including relevant R packages and modules Configural frequency analysis is a statistical method that allows the processing of important and interesting questions in categorical data The perspective of CFA differs from the usual perspective of relations among variables its focus is on patterns of variable categories that stand out with respect to specific hypotheses and as such CFA allows for testing numerous substantive hypotheses The book describes the origins of CFA and their relation to chi square analysis as well as the developments that are based on log linear modeling The models covered range from simple models of variable independence to complex models that are needed when causal hypotheses are tested Empirical data examples are provided for each model New models are introduced for person oriented mediation analysis and locally optimized time series analysis and new results concerning the characteristics of CFA methods are bolstered using Monte

Carlo simulations Primarily intended for researchers and students in the social and behavioral sciences the book will also appeal to anyone who deals with categorical data from a person centered perspective Black and Indigenous Resistance in the Americas Juliet Hooker,2020-03-04 Black and Indigenous Resistance in the Americas is an essential roadmap to understanding contemporary racial politics across the Americas where openly white supremacist politics are on the rise It is the product of a multiyear transnational research project by the Anti racist Research and Action Network of the Americas in collaboration with resistance movements confronting racial retrenchment in Brazil Bolivia Chile Colombia Guatemala Mexico and the United States How did we get here And what anti racist strategies are equal to the dire task of confronting resurgent racism This volume provides powerful answers to these pressing questions 1 It traces the making and contestation of state led racial projects in response to black and indigenous mobilization during an era of expansion of multicultural rights in the context of neoliberal capitalism 2 It identifies the origins and manifestations of the backlash against hard fought but hardly far reaching gains by marginalized peoples showing that contrary to critiques of identity politics the losses and anxieties produced by the failures of neoliberalism have been understood in racial terms 3 It distills a path forward for progressive anti racist activism in the Americas that looks beyond state centered rights seeking strategies and instead situates a critique of racial capitalism as central to the contestation of white supremacy Scientific and
