Sa Council For Social Service Professions Sacssp:

Supervision for the Social Service Professions Tebogo Morokane, Rika Swanzen, 2025-08-22 Providing critically needed clarifications on the concepts elements stages skills and functions of supervision on an international level authors Swanzen and Morokane provide the pathway for the establishment of an integrated model for supervision informed by vast perspectives on supervision and best practice guidelines African Perspectives on Ethics for Healthcare Professionals Nico Nortjé, Willem A. Hoffmann, Jo-Celene De Jongh, 2018-10-24 This book focuses on ethical issues faced by a variety of healthcare practitioners across the Anglophone African continent This important resource contains in depth discussions of the most salient current ethical issues by experts in various healthcare fields Each profession is described from both an African and a South African perspective and thus contributes to dialogue and critical thinking around African ethics and decision making In this way the book provides readers with an understanding of the ethical issues at hand in various professions including the practical implications of the ethical issues and how to address those effectively This is a beneficial resource for all those involved in the various healthcare professions addressed in this book including undergraduate students lecturers researchers and practitioners across the continent Simply put with the dynamic changes and challenges in healthcare across the globe and in Africa this is an indispensable resource for healthcare practitioners Social Policy in Post-Apartheid South Africa Ndangwa Noyoo, 2019-11-01 This book critically examines the current social policy in post apartheid South Africa and proposes an alternative social policy agenda to create a new development pathway for the country Taking social policy as a vehicle that will facilitate the creation of a new society altogether namely the Good Society the author argues for the adoption of policy that will socially re engineer South Africa The author shows how the policy tools and development interventions which were undertaken by the post apartheid state in driving South Africa s transformation agenda failed to emancipate many individuals families and communities from the cycle of intergenerational poverty and underdevelopment He contends that social policy interventions that foster the social re engineering of South African society must take place to untangle the inherited colonial apartheid social order This book includes comparative analyses on the Global South and Global North to present the ways in which countries such as post Second World War Great Britain and Sweden and post independence Zambia of the 1960s and 1970s were able to use social policy to create new societies altogether or places similar to the Good Society The conceptual and methodological issues that form the basis for this book reside in public policy making and the public good and will be of interest to scholars of social policy social development and South African society Social work in the 21st century (Prof.) Mogomme A. Masoga, Allucia L. Shokane, Annaline Keet, Varoshini Nadesan, 2024-12-30 This scholarly book Social work in the 21st century Scholarship and praxis reimaged towards vulnerability is the third volume in the Knowledge Pathing Multi Inter and Trans Disciplining in Social Sciences book series Chapters were invited from contributing authors who are involved in social work practice and education and who are dealing with the issues of poverty inequality and vulnerability in these fields The focus of the book emanates from the main conference theme and sub themes of the ASASWEI Association of South African Social Work Education Institutions conference held in 2021 The theme of the conference Pandemics poverty inequality and disability Social work in the 21st century provided an opportunity for deep deliberation knowledge exchange and skills development on how vulnerable communities already on the economic margins of society due to poverty and inequality are further marginalised during significant societal disruptions such as the coronavirus 2019 COVID 19 pandemic It is these deliberations which culminated in this book Drawing on the papers presented the chapters promote knowledge and skills around vulnerabilities in our social context and how the social work profession is challenged to interrogate its role in addressing the persistent challenges of poverty and inequality that keep people on the peripheries of human development The target audience for this book is primarily academics engaged in the field of social work and related fields

Revolutionary Social Work Masoud Kamali, 2022-11-24 This book shows how social work can be an active agent for promoting revolutionary changes in order to counter the global neoliberal market fundamentalism which is destroying our planet and reinforcing socioeconomic inequalities political instability antidemocratic political ideologies and movements small wars conflicts racism and other forms of oppression Providing case studies from South Africa Chile Iran Europe Australia and the USA written by leading critical and radical social work scholars this book sheds light on consequences of the global neoliberal racial capitalism and postcolonial oppression By presenting innovative ideas and suggestions for a revolutionary social work aimed at promoting systemic changes and eliminating the roots of social problems this book will be of interest to all scholars and students of social work community development and social justice more broadly globe to begin to fundamentally question and challenge the hegemony of the Global North which sometimes is evident in social work. Linked to the foregoing and while reflecting beyond the pandemic and into the future, the book proposes that social work must become more political at all levels and strive to transform societies, global social development efforts, and economic and health systems. This contributed volume of 38 chapters discusses and analyses ethical, social, sociological, social work, and social development issues that complement and enrich available literature in the socio-political, economics, public health, medical ethics, and political science. It provides various case studies which should enable readers to gain insights into how countries have responded to the pandemic and learn how COVID-19 negatively impacted countries in different parts of the world. This book also provides a platform for the articulation of neglected and marginalized voices such as those of indigenous populations, the poor, or oppressed. The chapters are grouped according to three main themes as they relate to research on the COVID-19 pandemic and social work in Africa, Asia, Europe, Latin America, and North America: Analysis, Social Issues, and the COVID-19 Pandemic; Strategies and Responses in Social Work Globally and Locally; Outlook Looking Ahead Beyond the Pandemic. Intended to engage a global, diverse, and interdisciplinary audience, The Coronavirus Crisis and Challenges to Social Development is a timely and relevant resource for academics, students, and researchers in inter alia Social Work, Philosophy, Sociology, Economics, and Development Studies.
