Folsom's The Highway War is his award-winning memoir of his experience as the commanding officer of Delta Company First Light Armored Reconnaissance Battalion U S Marine Corps which was one of the first into Iraq in March 2003. In The Highway War he conveyed the stress excitement and uncertainty of modern ground warfare from the viewpoint of a young combat leader. In the Gray Area centers on an Iraqi Army that is more mature and on the cusp of independence from its American partners and it takes place during a period in which there are increased calls for the United States to withdraw from Iraq. In his new book Folsom shows his maturation as a commander as he thoughtfully details the difficulties posed by a possibly premature American departure from Iraq and questions if the advisor mission is really the key to our attempt to exit Iraq.
