Sa Navy 2015 2016:

Navies and Maritime Policies in the South Atlantic Érico Duarte, Manuel Correia de Barros, 2019-02-12 This edited volume analyzes national security issues with maritime implications and specifically naval projects and postures of main South Atlantic countries Brazil Argentina Nigeria and South Africa Additionally it provides comprehensive and multi level analysis of the interplay among national interests in the processes of demarcation of limits of the continental shelf and contention among Uruguay Chile Argentina and the United Kingdom in the Southern Atlantic and the Antarctica This book will interest scholars researchers and students in the fields of Latin American politics regional studies foreign and defense policy and maritime security Naval Powers in the Indian Ocean and the Western Pacific Howard M. Hensel, Amit Gupta, 2018-05-11 A vital component of the interdependent global economy maritime transit routes are nowhere more critical than those traversing the Indian Ocean and the Western Pacific Previously areas of the Indian Ocean and Western Pacific have been viewed as separate and discrete political economic and military regions In recent years however a variety of economic political and military forces have created a new understanding of these maritime expanses as one zone of global interaction This book complements the material presented in its companion volume Maritime Security in the Indian Ocean and the Western Pacific by analysing the perceptions interests objectives maritime capabilities and policies of the major maritime powers operating in the Indian Ocean and the Western Pacific In addition the book also assesses the contemporary maritime challenges and opportunities that confront the global community within what is rapidly becoming recognised as an integrated zone of global interaction A valuable study for researchers and policymakers working in the fields of maritime security military security and peace studies conflict resolution and Asian affairs Capacity Building for Maritime Security Christian Bueger, Timothy Edmunds, Robert McCabe, 2020-10-09 This book studies recent attempts to restructure maritime security sectors through capacity building It innovates both theoretically and empirically It proposes a new framework for understanding maritime capacity building drawing on work in peacebuilding and security sector reform The framework is then applied across empirical case studies from the Western Indian Ocean WIO region written by scholars from the Global South The WIO region is a paradigmatic case to study maritime security and capacity building in action Countries in the region face the full gamut of maritime security challenges while their indigenous capacities to deal with these are often weak In consequence the region functions as an engine of innovation for maritime capacity building more widely The lessons and best practices from the region have importance consequences for addressing maritime security across the globe African Navies Timothy Stapleton, 2022-11-11 This edited volume focuses on aspects of the understudied theme of African sea power including African navies and the engagement of non African navies with the continent Africa possesses 48 000 kilometers of coastline comprising 38 out of 54 of the continent s states and several strategic choke points for international shipping such as the Suez Canal the Gulf of Aden and the Cape of Good Hope Nevertheless post colonial Africa s small navies and their relations with the navies of external powers have not received much scholarly attention Focusing on Sub Saharan Africa this collection attempts to address this neglect and stimulate further research by offering original chapters related to historical and contemporary themes around Africa s navies The historical chapters cover the origin of the Tanzanian Ethiopian Nigerian and Ghana navies during the era of decolonization and the Cold War the asymmetrical naval campaign fought during the Nigerian Civil War 1967 70 and the activities of the Soviet Navy in supporting African states and movements fighting lingering colonialism and white supremacy during the 1970s and 1980s Focusing on the contemporary situation other chapters discuss the engagement of the Indian Navy with Africa the potential role of the Angolan and Mozambican navies in the Southern African Development Community SADC the transformation and development of the post apartheid South African Navy and the challenges and capabilities of African navies in the early twenty first century The book concludes by discussing the question of whether African coastal countries need navies This book will be of much interest to students of naval power strategic studies African politics and International Relations Chapters 1 2 6 and 8 of this book are available for free in Open Access at www.taylorfrancis.com It has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license Air Power in the Indian Ocean and the Western Pacific Howard M.

Hensel,2020-06-04 This book examines the security dynamics of the Indian Ocean and the Western Pacific concentrating upon an analysis and evaluation of the air power capabilities of the various powers active in the two regions The volume is designed to help improve understanding of the heritage and contemporary challenges confronting the global community in the Indian Ocean and the Western Pacific as well as to illuminate the policies of the various powers involved in the affairs of these regions and the military capabilities that are available in support of those policies The 16 individual chapters examine both the traditional and the non traditional threats that confront the various Indian Ocean and Western Pacific powers and assess the roles played by land based and naval fixed wing and rotary wing manned and unmanned aircraft as well as by offensively and defensively capable ballistic and cruise missiles in addressing these challenges In doing so the various chapters analyze and evaluate the air power doctrine capabilities deployment patterns and missions of the respective states In addition they assess the future issues challenges and responses involving air power as it acting in concert with other military instruments seeks to contribute to securing and promoting the interests of the state This book will be of much interest to students of air power strategic studies Asian and Middle Eastern politics and International Relations The

Illusions of Location Theory: Consequences for Blue Economy in Africa Francis Onditi, Douglas Yates, 2021-01-05 Illusions of Location Theory Consequences for Blue Economy in Africa questions the relevance of location theory in explaining the coastal hinterland continuum and the implications for the utilization of blue economy ecosystem in such a contested space in Africa It pays more attention to territorial contestations maritime disputes vulnerabilities of landlocked states and expansionist policies as displayed through spatial organizational regimes These areas of investigation have previously been largely studied from the narrow perspective of location unduly focusing on comparative advantages of distance while neglecting the influence of forces such as technology ideology and the power of mental mapping in spatial decision making This volume puts forward the argument that the harmonious relationship between states and efficient exploitation of the blue economy ecosystem in ways that promote peace between states lies not only in the structural transformation of markets but also in bridging the spatial and social divide between the coastal and hinterland societies Thus this work proffers possibilities for a holistic regime for managing Africa's coastal hinterland continuum through innovative strategies such as SMART blue economies and the infusion of the geopolitical dimension into the management of maritime and territorial diplomacy The combination of theoretical and empirical analysis buttressed by in depth case studies of what works in the management of blue economy ecosystem and what does not work make this volume ideal for researchers students and practitioners interested in African regional studies African political economy political geography strategic military studies governance of seas and oceans and maritime science diplomacy The Navy List, 1924 PIB Summary 2018 Exams Exclusive Dheeraj Sharma, Exams Exclusive, 2019-01-28 Dedicated to Our Honourable PM Sh Narendra Modi and All Member of Exams Exclusive Family Download at Discounted Price 110 by <https://examsexclusive.blogspot.com> In this Book we cover most important News from PIB from Jan_2018 to Dec_2018 with detailed Analysis Helpfull in prepration of UPSC and many other Exams Annual Report South Africa. focus on the potency of post genomic era tools that include RNAi genomic intervention genome editing and systems biology approaches for producing salt tolerant crops China's Maritime Security Strategy Edward Sing Yue Chan,2021-09-09

This book examines the evolution of China's maritime security strategy and questions what has made China shift from a constrained to a more assertive strategy Historically China has not been an active player in maritime security but in recent years Beijing has begun to pursue policies and measures to safeguard its maritime rights and interests in the Indo Pacific region This growing influence in the region has become a concern for other countries about what kind of sea power China is developing This book seeks to address this concern by providing an overview of the development of China's maritime security strategy from the era of Deng Xiaoping to Xi Jinping It suggests that while the involvement of maritime actors and the development of naval capability have provided the depth to the strategy the national strategic guidelines from each generation of Chinese leadership have determined the overall direction of the maritime security strategy After 40 years of development China has established a set of priorities for its maritime agenda territorial integrity is at the top followed by development and then regional and international maritime cooperation These findings help us to understand China's multidimensional maritime power as being both assertive and cooperative This book will be of much interest to students of naval strategy maritime security Chinese politics and International Relations New Directions in African Military History Timothy J. Stapleton,2025-06-02 New Directions in African Military History takes a thematic approach to the history of war and military structures in Africa and highlights the under researched areas African Military History represents a relatively new and fast growing sub field bridging the previously wide gap between the well established genres of African History and Military History Based on a synthesis of existing literature and aimed at a wide readership this book adopts a broad temporal range and uses select examples to highlight a series of points to cover the pre colonial to post colonial eras and offer examples from various parts of the continent This volume evaluates controversial academic debates examining evidence research methods approaches and changing historiographical contexts as well as pointing to potential new areas of research It comprises seven thematic chapters on ways of war weapons technology navies air power battles women combatants and genocide in African history This volume will be of value to students and scholars alike interested in Modern History Military History and African History Plant-Microbe Interaction and Stress Management Puneet Singh

Chauhan,Shri Krishna Tewari,Sankalp Misra,2024-08-31 This book provides a comprehensive view for plant microbe interactions towards stress management and microbiome assisted approaches in sustainable agriculture It is divided into four major sections The book gives insights into the increasing threat of abiotic and biotic stresses and the accompanying challenges to modern agriculture Through different chapters the book shows how various microorganisms could ameliorate abiotic and biotic stress and contribute towards food sustainability and restore ecosystem functioning It provides a deep understanding of soil microbiome and its interaction with plants to enhance food security It further talks about metagenomic approaches for methodological tool for studying the soil microbiome Separate sections on stress talk at length about the various abiotic and biotic stresses that plants are faced it The book culminates with an exciting section on microbiome assisted approaches for combating stress It talks about the different microbiomes such as rhizosphere soil phyllosphere and endophytic microbiome The book would be beneficial to students researchers and course instructors in microbiology botany plant pathology and agriculture
