Seventh-day Adventist Church Manual. General Conference of Seventh-Day Adventists, 2005 Church Schism & Corruption , The Sabbath Recorder ,1925 Crescent City Illustrated Anonymous, 2025-08-27 Reprint of the original first published in 1873 The Antigonus publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage Life Narratives of African Americans in Iowa ,2001 Life Narratives of African Americans in Iowa speaks of life in Iowa from the nineteenth century to the present day The voices in these pages range from factory workers to doctors politicians to lawyers Each individual shares interesting insights into what it was like for African Americans in the state Racism was prevalent with each person encountering it in some form but despite these challenges those profiled here made a significant contribution to society Willie Stevenson Glanton recalls her time spent as the first African American woman in the Iowa Legislature George Boykin remembers the early days at the Sanford Center in Sioux City Although a physician Percy Harris tells about the problems of finding a place to live in Cedar Rapids Bernice Jones recalls challenging the status quota as a federal government worker in the Quad Cities The participants in this oral history ranged in age from late 50s to early 90s at the time of their interviews Our Church Life ,1903 The Homiletic Review ,1893 When the Spirit Moves Vincent Goddard, 2022-02-10 Pastor Vince s memoir When the Spirit Moves is a carefully crafted literary exposition of the faithful journey of a poor Jamaican born Englishman Yet because of its articulated integrity and spiritual candour unnumbered thousands of Caribbean peoples will find this miraculous saga irresistible It has regional and international attractions and identifications baked into its articulated fibre Perhaps one of the most interesting aspects of this easy to read but hard to put down autobiography is the fact that the content generates emotional turbulence Yet at the same time it provides hope and comfort peace and pleasure vision and faith all wrapped securely in a sound Biblical theological blanket What Pastor Vince humbly permitted God to do in his life and with his lifestyle drowns out most excuses for living a life without purpose His story takes away excuses for not being all that God intends for one to become It leaves no excuses for failures By the grace of God Pastor Vince made quality decisions and did many magnanimous things that most people generally fail to do Ironically Pastor Vince like so many Caribbean and African peoples whose lands and treasures were borrowed destroyed or stolen had the courage to forgive and forget the colonial history Most interestingly they risked life in many instances to leave their native lands and journey to the very heart of the socio political and economic global empire that once oppressed They took advantage of available opportunities that enabled them to survive and thrive through hard work education and raw faith in themselves and a sanctified faith in Almighty God The Sunday School Teacher ,1868 The National Sunday School Teacher ,1868 Homiletic Review ,1893 The Assembly Herald ,1904 History of Knox Church, Dunedin John Hislop (New Zealander.), 1892 Annual Report of the Board of Publication of the

China and the True Jesus Melissa Wei-Tsing Inouye,2018-12-03 In 1917 the Beijing silk merchant Wei Enbo's vision of Jesus sparked a religious revival characterized by healings exorcisms tongues speaking and most provocatively a call for a return to authentic Christianity that challenged the Western missionary establishment in China This revival gave rise to the True Jesus Church China's first major native denomination The church was one of the earliest Chinese expressions of the twentieth century charismatic and Pentecostal tradition which is now the dominant mode of twenty first century Chinese Christianity To understand the faith of millions of Chinese Christians today we must understand how this particular form of Chinese community took root and flourished even throughout the wrenching changes and dislocations of the past century The church's history links together key themes in modern Chinese social history such as longstanding cultural exchange between China and the West imperialism and globalization game changing advances in transport and communications technology and the relationship between religious movements and the state in the late Qing circa 1850 1911 Republican 1912 1949 and Communist 1950 present day eras Vivid storytelling highlights shifts and tensions within Chinese society on a human scale How did mounting foreign incursions and domestic crises pave the way for Wei Enbo a rural farmhand to become a wealthy merchant in the early 1900s Why did women in the 1920s and 30s such as an orphaned girl named Yang Zhendao devote themselves so wholeheartedly to a patriarchal religious system What kinds of pressures induced church leaders in a meeting in the 1950s to agree that Comrade Stalin had saved many more people than Jesus This book tells the striking but also familiar tale of the promise and peril attending the collective pursuit of the extraordinary how individuals within the True Jesus Church in China over the past century have sought to muster divine and human resources to transform their world The Canada Directory for 1857-58 ,1857 China Sunday School Journal ,1919 Literacy and Religion

Cushla Kapitzke,1995-01-01 This book explores the interrelation of literacy and religion as practiced by Western Christians in first historical contexts and second in one contemporary church setting Using both a case study and a Foucauldian theoretical framework the book provides a sustained analysis of the reciprocal discursive construction of literacy religiosity and identity in one Seventh day Adventist Church community of Northern Australia Critical linguistic and discourse analytic theory is used to disclose processes of theological church familial home and educational school normalisation of community members into regulated ways of hearing and speaking reading and writing being and believing Detailed analyses of spoken and written texts taken from institutional and local community settings show how textual religion is an exemplary technology of the self a politics constituted by canonical texts interpretive norms textual practices ritualised events and sociopolitical protocols that ultimately are turned in upon the self The purpose of these analyses is to show how across denominational difference in belief tradition and practice particular versions of self and society are constructed through economies of truth from text that constrain what can and cannot be articulated and enacted by believers History

Dudley, 2000

Between 40 and 50 per cent of Adventist youth leave the church in their 20s Why How can we keep them How can we win them back This book is the culmination of a magnificent obsession For more than ten years Roger Dudley traced the lives of 1500 teenagers as they grew up and often grew disillusioned Refusing to let them leave in peace Dudley bombarded them with questionnaires Many of them answered This is their story Dudley puts faces on the statistics by focusing in on individual case studies He cites the heart wrenching testimony of desperately lonely people surrounded by uncaring members They want to belong to be needed to be heard to be loved They made some mistakes We share their pain and their dreams and feel the dissonant cadences of their troubled hearts Some who never left explain what kept them in the church Many who left want to return Without God life is hell wrote one If you want to know what the youth of your church are not telling you read this book It includes the responses of a group of kids who were asked to design the ideal church and an appendix explaining the causes of adolescent heresy the conflict spawned by the teenage struggle for autonomy
