A Residence in Jutland, the Danish Isles, and Copenhagen Horace Marryat, 1860 The Sabbath Recorder, 1946 The Christian lady's magazine [formerly The Englishwoman's magazine] ed. by mrs. Milner Mary Milner, 1855 Getting it Right General Conference of Seventh-Day Adventists, Youth Dept Staff, General Conference of Seventh-Day Adventists. Youth Department, 2005 Saint Andrew Daily Missal, with Vespers for Sundays and Feasts Catholic Church, Gaspar Lefebvre, 1940 The Spirit of the Corporation Michael T. Black, 2024-12-12

The modern corporation began its life as a religious institution first as the nation of Israel and subsequently as the Christian Church Long before its official recognition in law the corporation had been an identifiable and unique form of human association Its only essential characteristic is the voluntary and collective submission of individual interests to the interests of a Name its own living Spirit The corporation is thus invited into existence as a presence independent of its members and through which the Spirit provides both its unity and its continuity In this fascinating interdisciplinary text Michael T Black reveals how the modern corporation has become a parody of itself It is a travesty of the opportunity it offers namely the opportunity to engage in a continuous search for the good the criteria of right action in other words the practical pursuit of the divine in and through our daily lives with others In a sweeping historical analysis Black highlights how The Name has been obscenely turned into a Brand which sells but does not inspire how the plethora of manipulative management techniques and authoritarian corporate structures are merely ineffectual compensatory attempts to create corporate unity in the absence of the Spirit This is the spiritual spoilt This work hopes to provide an alternative to the jargon filled self justifying and ultimately futile conceptions of the corporate institution which are used to justify its current spiritual aridity

This book is a journey book Sitting down at a computer and producing the story has been a grand trek I have learned that there is a principle in nature that some things need to mellow calm down and soak in The refusal of winemakers to take a wine before its time is a notion I am coming to understand It works with writers as well Like a fetus signaling its mother that it is time to head for the hospital a literary work stays in the mind until its time In my education I have read of the battles of great Church leaders who were eventually thrown out of their churches In my denominational education I was largely led to see them as heretics rebels eccentrics revolutionaries apostates and as generally representing a lower form of spirituality Church education often asked me to surrender my biases in favor of accepting a new set of assumptions my denominational ones We were to be critical of everything except our organization I submit that there is danger in that This book will cover incidents from the first forty years of my life as a religious addict You
