Digital Diplomacy in Indonesia's Foreign Policy Albert Triwibowo, 2025-06-02 This book introduces the developments and practices of digital diplomacy in Indonesia s foreign policy to support diplomatic practice The analysis focuses on Indonesia s digital diplomacy specifically its implementation by the Indonesian Ministry of Foreign Affairs and its Missions in selected locations to achieve the country s foreign policy objectives Specific case studies on palm oil the Rohingya crisis and the COVID 19 pandemic are used to show how Indonesia s digital diplomacy is executed and performed Arguing that Indonesian digital diplomacy follows a bottom up approach model in its development the author demonstrates that Indonesia s digital diplomacy is related to state to state communication as well as state to public communication It is also utilised for communicating sensitive issues as Indonesia is still in the first stage of digital diplomacy and is influenced by domestic interests counternarrative interests and information dissemination motives The book is a valuable addition to the study of digital diplomacy specifically from the experience and perspective of a middle power country It will be of interest to researchers in International Relations Asian Politics

The Handbook of African Defence and

Armed Forces Evert Kleynhans, Marco Wyss, 2025-03-01 The Handbook of African Defence and Armed Forces provides the first in depth and multifaceted analysis of the evolution and current state of national defence policies strategies doctrines capabilities security challenges and strategic responses of African states and their armed forces Geographically these aspects are investigated at the national sub regional and regional levels Chronologically they are analysed against the backdrop of the superpower withdrawal from the continent in the 1990s and the so called New Scramble for Africa which has seen a crescendo of renewed great power interest in the continent s resources as well as its strategic role location and relevance since the 2000s The book takes a bottom up and African centric approach and is organized around five key themes i the differing security outlooks and defence policies of African powers within the region and the different sub regions ii the strategies doctrines transformation and employment of African armed forces iii the relationship between African armed forces with sub regional regional and international organizations iv the challenges that African states and their armed forces have been facing and their strategic responses and v the position of African perspectives and agency in the context of continental and international security and defence Understanding African security and defence especially in terms of each individual nation s ability to contribute to peacekeeping operations counterterrorism border security and internal security requires a focus on the national level of armed forces and defence policies this in turns sheds light on sub regional and regional divergences challenges and cooperation Based on this framework the chapters in this volume offer comprehensive African perspectives on African and international security and defence and in doing so show the agency of the continent s countries and armed forces in International Security and Relations

Counter-Insurgency in Nigeria Akali

Omeni, 2017-09-08 This book offers a detailed examination of the counter insurgency operations undertaken by the Nigerian military against Boko Haram between 2011 and 2017 Based on extensive fieldwork conducted with military units in Nigeria Counter Insurgency in Nigeria has two main aims First it seeks to provide an understanding of the Nigerian military s internal role a role that today as a result of internal threats pivots towards counter insurgency The book illustrates how organizational culture historical experience institutions and doctrine are critical to understanding the Nigerian military and its attitudes and actions against the threat of civil disobedience today and in the past The second aim of the book is to examine the Nigerian military campaign against Boko Haram insurgents specifically plans and operations between June 2011 and April 2017 Within this second theme emphasis is placed on the idea of battlefield innovation and the reorganization within the Nigerian military since 2013 as the Nigerian Army and Air Force recalibrated themselves for COIN warfare A certain mystique has surrounded the technicalities of COIN operations by the Army against Boko Haram and this book aims to disperse that veil of secrecy Furthermore the work s analysis of the air force s role in counter insurgency is unprecedented within the literature on military warfare in Nigeria This book will be of great interest to students of military studies counter insurgency counter terrorism African politics and security studies in general

War of Intervention in Angola Adrien

Fontanellaz, Tom Cooper, José Augusto Matos, 2023-06-30 Through late 1987 and early 1988 the battlefields of southern Angola moved ever further away from the border with South West Africa Namibia until the showdown between the Soviet and Cuban supported government in Luanda and South African supported insurgency of UNITA culminated in the controversial and still much disputed Battle of Cuito Cuanavale During this period Angolan and Cuban airpower slowly grew to a point where it outmatched the SAAF in turn limiting the freedom of movement of the SADF and UNITA ground forces and reducing their operations to attritional battles with little chance of achieving major victories on terms acceptable to the government in Pretoria As the changing political climate between East and West and in Africa began to bring about an end to the South African intervention in Angola and the occupation of South West Africa Namibia the government of Angola was able to switch its attentions to dealing with UNITA

Volume 5 of War of Intervention in Angola examines in detail this final period of Cuban involvement in the long and tragic civil war that ruined Angola between 1975 and 1992 While the emphasis is upon the operations of the Angolan and Cuban air forces it also details how these impacted upon the ground operations of all parties This volume is richly illustrated with original photographs of the forces involved specially commissioned maps of the ground operations and a range of full color artworks

Koevoet Steve Crump, 2023-01-19 Koevoet Afrikaans for Crowbar tells of the origination and deployment of the South West African Police's elite counter insurgency capability during the South African Border War of 1978-1989 Drawing upon previously unpublished sources and from interviews with a number of key personalities including former members of Koevoet this volume is the first of two documents the formation of Koevoet and its early operations up to 1984 Koevoet examines the background and context to the South West African conflict and details the early experiences of the South African Police in seeking to counter SWAPO PLAN activities It outlines the tasking assigned to Colonel Hans Dreyer of the South African Police to establish Ops K and to develop a counter insurgency unit as part of the South West African Police response to the developing conflict a unit that was to become both respected and feared and is today considered as one of the most effective counter insurgency forces of modern times Koevoet describes the recruitment of trackers from the local population the integration of black and white Koevoet operators into a single entity their training organization and deployment across the Operational Area The author examines Koevoet tactics in the field including all arms co operation with the South African Defence Force and the South African Air Force and the practice of turning captured SWAPO PLAN fighters and their employment across the Zulu teams The design and evolution of the iconic Casspir and Wolf Mine Protected Vehicles MPVs is covered as is their practical use on operations alongside the development of other specialized weapons and equipment utilized by Koevoet In documenting Koevoet operations in Kavnago Kaokoland and Owamboland Volume 1 of Koevoet seeks to examine SWAPOL COIN's effectiveness and to assess how the lessons learned between 1979-1984 shaped future Koevoet doctrine and thinking to afford the reader a truly inclusive perspective on counter insurgency today as police and armed forces globally move to a greater reliance on cutting edge digital technology including artificial intelligence Color profiles detail a range Mine Protected Vehicles MPVs used by Koevoet including the iconic Casspir and Wolf along with SADF and SAAF helicopters used to support these operations Uniforms and insignia of Koevoet are presented in specially commissioned full color artworks

Chinese Overseas Ports in Southeast and South Asia Jean-Marc F. Blanchard, 2024-11-15 This book examines PRC involved seaports overseas where involvement can take the form of PRC foreign direct investment FDI contracting and or terminal operations in countries such as Cambodia Pakistan and the Philippines Including country oriented chapters the book sheds light on inter alia the realization or not of Chinese seaports the effects of Chinese participation on port performance trade FDI employment and the environment and the wider economic political and other ramifications of China's role Importantly the case studies in the book clearly demonstrate that amongst these ports there are successes and failures positive or negative effects are not preordained and domestic and international political factors notably influence what occurs in these overseas ports The book also illuminates the critical role of 3rd parties including India in shaping the dynamics of China's participation in Southeast and South Asian ports and evaluate the potential for Chinese involved ports to become naval bases Presenting contributions from experts on Southeast and South Asia and utilising rich empirical data to reveal the factors that are driving China's participation overseas this book will appeal to students and scholars of Asian and Southeast Asian studies international relations particularly through the lens of economic relations

Media in Postapartheid South Africa Sean Jacobs, 2019-03-11 A study of mass media in twenty first century South Africa offering revelations about the nature of citizenship and public engagement in our media saturated age Daniel R Magaziner author of The Law and the Prophets Black Consciousness in South Africa 1968-1977 In Media in Postapartheid South Africa Sean Jacobs turns to media politics and the consumption of media as a way to understand recent political developments in South Africa and their relations with the African continent and the world Jacobs looks at how mass media define the physical and human geography of the society and what it means for comprehending changing notions of citizenship in postapartheid South Africa Jacobs claims that the media have unprecedented control over the distribution of public goods rights claims and South Africa's integration into the global political economy in ways that were impossible under the state controlled media that dominated the apartheid years Jacobs takes a probing look at television commercials and the representation of South Africans reality television shows and South African continental expansion soap operas and postapartheid identity politics and the internet as a space for reassertions and reconfigurations of identity As South Africa becomes more integrated into the global economy Jacobs argues that local media have more weight in shaping how consumers view these products in unexpected and consequential ways

20 Battles Evert Kleynhans, David Brock Katz, 2023-07-28 Favouring manoeuvre over attrition and often punching above their weight South African soldiers have become known for their tenacity dash and ability to defy the odds Their unique directive command style has also helped them to excel in defining battles and operations from the campaign in German South West

Africa in 1915 to the cross border operations in Angola during the Border War In 20 Battles military historians Evert Kleynhans and David Brock Katz investigate the evolution of South Africa's armed forces over a century from 1913 to 2013 They track the evolution of the doctrine and structure of the defence force uncovering historical continuity and the lessons learned from past battles and operations What is clear is that when South African soldiers have the freedom to operate according to their manoeuvre doctrine as they had in East Africa in 1916 and southern Ethiopia in 1941 they can achieve stunning results But when hemmed in by rigid doctrine and a top down command style as at Delville Wood in 1916 and Tobruk in 1942 the results can be tragic 20 Battles combines both battlefield drama and crisp analysis and in the process provides a much needed perspective on the South African way of war
