
Political Science Final Exam Questions and Answers.

Bloom writes: "There is one thing a professor can be absolutely certain of: almost every student entering the university believes, or says he believes, ..." Answer- "that truth is relative."

What does Bloom tell us about "strong prejudices"? Answer- They are necessary, at least at first, as visions about the way things are.

According to Bloom, American students—unlike European students—typically come to college without immersion in a national literature, but in the past they tended at least to know Answer- the Bible and the Declaration of Independence.

Bloom writes, approvingly, that great books give students Answer- access to the heroic and an awareness of alternatives

What is the proper role of music in education, according to Bloom? Answer- It helps establish a connection between pleasure and learning.

Writing about his experience teaching at Cornell during the upheaval of 1969, Bloom says Answer- higher education was decisively weakened, and democratic public opinion prevailed

Bloom tells us that the crisis of liberal education is that Answer- there is no vision of the whole that unites higher education.

What does Bloom identify as the three great divisions of knowledge within the modern university? Answer- natural science, social science, the humanities

According to Bloom, political science is different from the other social sciences because Answer- ALL of the above

Why does Shelby Steele start by speaking about the Clinton-Lewinsky scandal? Answer- to show how moral authority has changed in America since the 1950s
