Harrington, 1978 This is an attempt to gather together Palestinian Aramaic texts of various sorts and varying lengths from the last two centuries B C and the first two centuries A D The texts are of diverse character a few of them are biblical a number belong to the so called intertestamental literature of Palestinian Jews some of them are letters contracts or business documents of different sorts reflecting various elements of Palestinian life of that period The last part of the collection of texts presented here comes from ossuaries or tombstone inscriptions The collection made here provides the texts of these documents a translation of the text a brief introduction and a bibliography of secondary literature on each of the texts A glossary of the texts complete the collection American Racing Manual, 1928 Oak Ridge National Laboratory Master Analytical Manual Oak Ridge National Laboratory, 1959 Notes and Queries, 1866 A History of the Jewish People in the Time of Jesus Christ Emil Schürer, 1901 The Labour Market Triangle Paul de Beer, Trudie Schils, 2010-01-01 This fascinating book presents an in depth study of the particular combination of unemployment insurance employment protection and active labour market policies prevalent in seven European countries Currently European governments are being challenged to find an optimal social policy strategy that fosters flexicurity whereby a flexible well functioning labour market is achieved while protection for workers is maintained The contributors explore the formal laws and regulations as well as the administration and implementation of social policy paying special attention to the role of the social partners A detailed country comparison shows that the combination of social policy instruments is important to labour market performance but that multiple optimal mixes already appear to exist The Labour Market Triangle will prove

Pearson, Julie Krans, 2017-08-29 Mental imagery refers to the mental simulation or recreation of perceptual experience across different sensory modalities The exploration of mental imagery represents a new and important area within clinical psychology but arguably one still in its infancy While mental imagery has featured prominently in recent theoretical accounts of disorders as diverse as post traumatic stress disorder phobia body dysmorphic disorder mood disorders and psychosis there remains an insufficiently strong theoretical and methodological foundation to enable comparison of the role of imagery across such different disorders The current research topic presents a diverse range of cutting edge papers focusing on investigating the underlying mechanisms and or treatment interventions associated with mental imagery in clinical disorders with the goal of helping establish those common elements most clinically relevant when investigating mental imagery The research topic comprises fifteen articles drawn from the fields of psychiatry psychology and neuroscience This is a unique collection of articles that combine different perspectives from the field of clinical psychology with more diverse perspectives drawn from the wider literature on mental imagery The original research studies and theoretical articles presented are organised around four main chapters that cover imagery and eye movements imagery and craving imagery and autobiographical memory and imagery and clinical disorders We believe that the range of submissions presented in the research topic make a strong contribution to helping establish a theoretical and methodological foundation that can enable the effective study of imagery across different disorders and domains The Shock and Vibration Digest ,1983 Publishers' circular and booksellers' record ,1861 Mechanical Engineering ,1985 Master Analytical Manual Oak Ridge National Laboratory. Postmodernism and Notions of National Difference Geoffrey William Lord, Kristi Jauregi Ondarra, 1996

Postmodernism and Notions of National Difference examines the critical construction of postmodern fiction raising the question of whether the construction of postmodernism has sufficiently accounted for national difference. Geoffrey Lord argues that current meta-national conceptions of postmodernism need serious reconsideration to take national cultural contexts into account. Through a comparative investigation of the theoretical debate, literary traditions, and close textual reading of a number of postmodern texts, Lord makes a persuasive case for his broad claim that national cultural differences are more persistent and powerful than usually allowed by established theories of postmodernity, which claim a general collapse of traditional cultural orders and the meta-narratives that justify them.
