Care of People with Diabetes Trisha Dunning, 2013-09-03 Care of People with Diabetes is an essential guide to the care and management of people with diabetes mellitus with particular emphasis on the acute care setting Written by an experienced clinical nurse specialist with extensive knowledge of evidence based diabetes care this fully updated fourth edition serves as an essential companion to clinical practice for nurses and healthcare professionals People with diabetes experience a high symptom and self care burden associated with managing their condition and require appropriate support advice and regular monitoring Similarly health professionals need to maintain and keep up to date with an ever increasing body of knowledge in order to help people with diabetes incorporate new research into their self care Care of People with Diabetes provides an extensive overview of the knowledge base all health professionals require to work effectively with people with diabetes Special features Comprehensive clinical manual on an ever more prevalent condition written to meet the needs of nurses and healthcare professionals Includes new material on evaluating education programmes cystic fibrosis related diabetes diabetes and sleep apnoea and end of life care Provides key evidence for best practice Includes protocols for consistent care and improving patient outcomes Proceedings ,1994 ESA Newsletter ,2006 Naturopathic Medicine Fraser Smith,2022-10-28

This book offers comprehensive coverage of naturopathic medicine The principles and values of this profession are already clearly stated i e Find and Treat the Cause Treat the Whole Person etc but few are the textbooks that provide a clear exposition of what the approach is that differs from what is described as conventional or allopathic medicine The toolkit herbs or nutrients then becomes the defining feature but this is not the most important attribute To paraphrase the historian of medicine Harris Coulter in this approach the body reacts creatively to stressors and the Empirical school or natural medicine approach is more focused on supporting adaptive responses than suppressing symptoms Or to put it another way naturopathic physicians certainly do things to ameliorate symptoms but their real interest is to discern what disturbances to the determining factors of health lead to imbalances physiological dysfunction and are generating the symptoms This is not an attempt to argue that all health issues can get better on their own or that conventional medical interventions aren't capable of producing stellar outcomes Conventional medicine holds great value but there remains a concurrent need for a naturopathic approach that helps rebuild the body There is a need for an approach in medicine that works to support adaptive responses of the body reduce maladaptive responses address determining factors of health and sometimes create temporary homeostasis with agents such as drugs or certain natural medicines can play to maintain life when the body's healing responses are insufficient This book takes this approach and begins by examining what health is and then what states lead to disease In terms of the basis of disease states the book teaches about how the lack of coordination in the body's bioregulatory systems hormones nervous system cell signaling can lead to disease as well as the impact of irreversible degeneration genetic damage chronic stress etc The book takes the reader to some of the more common and well described reasons for these states of dysfunction including the body's inability to process environmental toxins and disruptions to the human microbiome The book then teaches how to assess a patient and how various natural therapies impact root causes of disease the long term consequences and the various clinical manifestations The book then takes a systems approach cardiovascular pulmonary etc This is where most books on the subject start but instead of breaking out a number of conditions and giving protocols of diet supplements herbs etc the author examines how to restore stability and function to that system There is in depth coverage of how to confront degenerative processes that make self healing far more challenging or perhaps not entirely attainable The application of the model of healing outlined in previous chapters is applied to each system Special topics are then covered ranging from lifespan primary care considerations to the role of research the rise of advanced data analytics as decision assistance to the environmental cultural and global determinants of health Each chapter will additionally include tables that summarize key diagnosis or treatment points arrayed in an order that reflects the model presented in the book This is an ideal guide for students in naturopathic medicine as well as physicians and medical professionals looking to learn more about this field aimed towards maximizing patient resilience Afghan Refugees,

Pakistani Media and the State Ayesha Jehangir, 2023-12-20 Drawing on the frameworks of peace journalism this book offers new insights into the Pakistani media coverage of Afghan refugees and their forced repatriation from Pakistan Based on a three year study the author examines the political social and economic forces that influence and govern the reporting practices of journalists covering the protracted refugee conflict between Pakistan and Afghanistan Through a critical discourse analysis of the structures of journalistic iterability of Afghan refugees in Pakistan the author distils four dominant and three emerging frames and proposes a new teleological turn for peace journalism as deliberative practice that is to say practice that by promoting transparency and accountability recognition and challenging dominant power proposed narratives and perspectives resistance encourages public engagement and participation cosmopolitan solidarity The author also privileges an analytical approach that conceptualises the nexus between digital witnessing and peace journalism through the paradigm of cosmopolitanism The author finds routinely accommodated media narratives of security that represent Afghan refugees as a threat a burden and the other that through reinforcement have become an incontestable reality for the public in Pakistan This book will appeal to those interested in studying and practicing journalism as a conscientious communicative practice that elicits the very public it seeks to inform Textbook of Palliative Care Roderick Duncan MacLeod, Lieve Van den Block, 2025-02-25 This second edition provides the most up to date information on all aspects of palliative care including recent developments including COVID 19 global policies service provision symptom management professional aspects organization of services palliative care for specific populations palliative care emergencies ethical issues in palliative care research in palliative care public health approaches and financial aspects of care This new Textbook of Palliative Care remains a unique comprehensive clinically relevant and state of the art book aimed at advancing palliative care as a science a clinical practice and as an art Palliative care has been part of healthcare for over fifty years but it still needs to be explained to many Healthcare education and training has been slow to recognize the vital importance of ensuring that all practitioners have a good understanding of what is involved in the care of people with serious or advanced illnesses and their families However the science of palliative care is advancing and this new edition will contribute to a better understanding This new edition offers 86 updated or new chapters out of 108 written by experts in their given fields providing up to date information on a wide range of topics of relevance to those providing care towards the end of life no matter what the disease may be We present a global perspective on contemporary and classic issues in palliative care with authors from a wide range of disciplines involved in this essential aspect of care The Textbook includes sections addressing aspects such as symptom management and care provision organization of care in different settings care in specific disease groups palliative care emergencies ethics public health approaches and research in palliative care This new Textbook will be of value to practitioners in all disciplines and professions where the care of people approaching death is important specialists as well as non specialists in any setting where people with serious advanced illnesses are residing It is also an important resource for researchers policy and decision makers at national or regional levels Neither the science nor the art of palliative care will stand still so the Editors and contributors from all over the world aim to keep this Textbook updated so that the reader can find new evidence and approaches to care Breaching Safe Nursing Practice Zane Robinson Wolf, Denise Nagle
