Reynolds, 2013-11-11 The public schools have taken on increasing responsibility over the last decade for providing in school educational services to children with low incidence handicaps children who not very many years ago would have been relegated to custodial care or limited to care only in the home With the increasing responsibility for educating these children has come recognition that few of us have the requisite knowledge or skills to deliver high quality services to these children University programs are providing more staff but the existing staff must also be trained We have been involved for several years with the special education branch of the Nebraska Department of Education in the provision of in service training in the early identification and assessment of handicapping conditions when we realized an even greater need for training regular classroom teachers administrators and psychologists in addition to early childhood special education personnel about the nature of low incidence handicaps and how they might be dealt with in the public school setting Knowing the enormity and the expense of such an undertaking we tentatively approached the State Department They too were cognizant of this need and welcomed our ideas Jan Thelen and her capable staff then took to coordinating the planning with us and the Nebraska Department of Education provided the fundings Developmental Motor Disorders Deborah Dewey, David E. Tupper, 2004-09-21 Bringing together leading experts and providing vital insights to guide clinical practice this is the first volume to comprehensively address childhood motor disorders from a neuropsychological perspective The book explores the neural and behavioral bases of movement disorders and summarizes current findings from applied research Existing approaches to assessment and neuroimaging are critically examined and new and innovative methods presented. Authors also synthesize the latest knowledge on motor difficulties associated with specific developmental and neurological problems: cerebral palsy, neuromuscular disease, autism, brain injury, disorders of coordination, speech and written language, and more. Other important topics covered include psychosocial effects of motor skills impairments frequently encountered comorbidities and the status of available intervention approaches.

Essentials of School Neuropsychological Assessment
Daniel C. Miller, 2011-02-15. Provides a current overview of neuropsychological practice in schools written by a leading school psychologist. With neuropsychological assessment more widely used in school settings than ever before, school psychologists require greater knowledge of both the discipline and its application within the school environment. Written by a leading expert in school neuropsychology, Essentials of School Neuropsychological Assessment is a practical resource providing learning specialists and school psychologists with clear coverage and vital information on this evolving area of practice within school psychology. Like all the volumes in the Essentials of Psychological Assessment series, this book is designed to help mental health professionals quickly acquire the knowledge and skills they need to make optimal use of major psychological assessment instruments. Each concise chapter features numerous callout boxes highlighting key concepts, bulleted points, and extensive illustrative material, as well as test questions that help you gauge and reinforce your grasp of the information covered. Essentials of School Neuropsychological Assessment provides the most current, concise overview of all aspects of neuropsychological practice in schools and explains how to identify the need for testing, conduct a neurodevelopmental history, select appropriate assessment instruments, effectively evaluate students, and accurately interpret results. In addition to presenting a unique model of applying neuropsychological assessment principles in school settings, in chapter 4, this valuable book includes case studies and practice examples. Other titles in the Essentials of Psychological Assessment series: Essentials of Assessment Report Writing, Essentials of Processing Assessment, Essentials of Stanford Binet SB5 Assessment, Essentials of WISC IV Assessment, Essentials of WIAT II and KTEA II Assessment, Essentials of WJ III Cognitive Abilities Assessment, Essentials of WJ III Tests of Achievement Assessment, Essentials of WPPSI III Assessment, Essentials of Cross Battery Assessment, Second Edition, Essentials of KABC II Assessment, Essentials of NEPSY Assessment, Essentials of WMS III Assessment.
