Implementing Peace Agreements D. Bekoe, 2008-04-28 This book critically investigates the conditions facing the warring parties during the implementation of peace agreements in Mozambique Angola and Liberia as successes and failures in these countries highlight incentives for the international community to keep peace processes from faltering

World Englishes □ Problems, Properties and Prospects Thomas Hoffmann, Lucia Siebers, 2009-09-23 World Englishes is a vibrant research field that has attracted scholars from many different linguistic subdisciplines Emphasizing the common ground of all research on World Englishes the 22 articles in this collected volume selected from more than a hundred papers presented at the 2007 conference of the International Association for World Englishes in Regensburg cover a broad range of topics which together reflect the state of the art of research in this field The volume focuses on regions as diverse as Africa the Caribbean the Antipodes and Asia but also promotes a globally comparative perspective by analyzing selected characteristics of the English language across a wide range of varieties Methodologically a number of different approaches are applied including corpus linguistic studies socio phonetics as well as historical discourse analysis Due to its wide scope the book is of interest not only to World Englishes scholars but also to sociolinguists as well as applied contact or corpus linguists

Globalizations Heikki Patomäki, 2005-02-05 What can we say about the shape of things to come in world politics the probability of different possibilities and the reflexivity of our anticipations Building on post Keynesian economic theory and classical theories of imperialism the book discusses anticipations that neoliberalism will push the world into a new era of insecurity confrontations armaments and wars Part I of this volume delves into the acute geopolitical landscape especially the war in Ukraine Through the analysis of the lessons from the OSCE process the focus moves to political economy Part II Political Economy focuses on the dynamics of the world political economy and concludes with discussions on connections between economic and normative theory Part III concerns global political theory ending with a cosmopolitan vision of the university s future The volume also investigates partial failures of and limits to anticipating the future in open systems Normative assessments and priorities have also changed in some respects with the world historical context The comprehensive introduction addresses the question what can we learn from all this and how do these lessons help us anticipate the future better This book will be of great interest to students scholars and researchers of International Relations International Political Economy Economic History Development Studies and Futures Studies The chapters in this book except for chapters

3 and 6 were originally published in Globalizations This volume comes with a new introduction Interpretations of Peace in History and Culture W. Dietrich, 2012-01-17 This is the first volume in the trilogy Many Peaces on transnational peace and elicitive conflict transformation It proposes an innovative analysis of peace interpretations in global history and contemporary cultures of peace the so called five families of energetic moral modern post modern and transnational

Conflict and Development Andrew J. Williams, Alasdair Gordon-Gibson, 2024-09-26 Fully revised and updated in its third edition this timely book brings together the study of conflict and war and the problems surrounding the economic development of developing societies that are most prone to experiencing problems in moving on after war The book does so by reflecting on the issues surrounding war as it unfolds and after it has in principle ended within the context of the history present day problems and future prospects The book aims to highlight the possibilities successes and failures of past and present policies that bring development to countries and peoples that want to be more involved in deciding their own futures after conflict and war and often find themselves subject to what can be seen as arbitrary and even alien ways of thinking and acting by institutions in which they theoretically have membership and agency but often do not in practice The case studies have been fully updated to reflect changes and developments since the second edition of this text and there are questions at the end of each chapter to promote reflection This new edition presents a deeper dive into the history of conflict and the emergence of new theories and policy guidance about present and future options in the fields of conflict and development Accessible and engaging this textbook is a pivotal resource for a nexus of subjects related to the often separated fields of conflict and development studies as well as practitioners in this area Pastoral Letters of the United States Catholic

Bishops Catholic Church. National Conference of Catholic Bishops, Patrick W. Carey, 1998 Vol 6 spine title Pastoral letters Includes bibliographical references and indexes v 6 1989 1997 Global Media Coverage of the Palestinian-Israeli Conflict Nouredine Miladi, 2023-07-13 The attempts to evict Palestinian residents of Sheikh Jarrah in May 2021 caught the attention of the world While this small Palestinian neighbourhood in East Jerusalem had long been central to the Israel Palestinian conflict the planned expulsions pushed the situation back into the spotlight This book discusses the complexity of the media war that took place at the same time Across 20 chapters it compares Israeli Western Palestinian and Arab media to understand how different narratives were discussed supported and challenged In particular the book captures how social media became a site of online activism and alternative war narratives The volume is unique in focusing on a specific event from many different perspectives and with material from different countries and media platforms Case studies include the Spanish press the African press the BBC Al Jazeera English TRT World Television and digital media such as TikTok and Facebook as well as the impact of social media activism In doing so the book also comments on the extent that citizen journalists challenge the propaganda war From Conflict to Collaboration Austin Onuoha, 2005-04-30 One of the major policy challenges for the US following the events of September 11 2001 and their aftermaths has been how to reduce the country's dependence on oil from the Middle East. There have been suggestions of policy shifts in Washington in which Africa's share of US oil imports will rise dramatically over the next few years. Nigeria, one of the world's largest producers of crude oil, is believed to have more than 30 billion barrels of crude oil reserves, mostly in the Niger Delta areas. Despite this huge reserve, however, crude supplies from the country remain at best erratic, largely because of conflicts, violence, and the rise of ethnic militias in the oil-producing areas of the country. The book explores the causes, sources, and dynamics of the conflicts between the oil-bearing communities and oil companies in Nigeria. Taking its point of departure from the social interaction paradigm, it argues that the conflicts in the Niger Delta are embedded in the triangular relationship between the government, the oil companies, and the host communities. Global Nonkilling Leadership Forum Book of Proceedings Glenn D. The Sage Handbook of Peace and Conflict Studies Maia Carter Hallward, Ji Eun Kim, Cécile Mouly, Timothy Seidel, Zubairu Wai, 2025-06-07. The Sage Handbook of Peace and Conflict Studies offers a comprehensive exploration of the complexities of violence, conflict, and peace from a global interdisciplinary perspective. The handbook addresses the traditional Western-centric approach while emphasizing the need to integrate Global South perspectives to create a more inclusive and transformative understanding of peace and conflict. While important voices in peace and conflict studies have long stressed the need to not only address direct violence but also structural and cultural, one certain strand of the field has upheld conservative knowledge production and reinforced unequal power structures. This volume seeks to challenge these biases by foregrounding critical and decolonial approaches that emphasize gender, race, culture, global history, and political economy. Its diverse chapters invite us to question mainstream assumptions and promote a broader, more inclusive analysis of peace and conflict. The handbook explores the evolution of the field, highlighting the impact of historical events and the role of oppositional knowledge in political change. It offers a critical overview of theoretical approaches emphasizing reflexivity, inclusivity, and the importance of local actors in peace and conflict dynamics. Additionally, it examines how cultural and disciplinary assumptions shape peacebuilding and conflict transformation and critiques traditional global narratives on issues like governance, climate change, and human rights. Finally, the handbook presents real-world case studies that integrate themes of decoloniality, race, gender, and power inequalities across diverse global contexts. By centering the Global South and integrating interdisciplinary perspectives, this handbook provides valuable insights for scholars and practitioners committed to fostering a more equitable and just world.

The Struggle for Peace Elizabeth Warnock Fernea, Mary Evelyn Hocking, 2014-11-06. The determination of ordinary people to end regional and global conflicts is powerful despite the forces opposing them. The Struggle for Peace explores how average citizens on both sides of the Israeli-Palestinian conflict worked for peace in the late twentieth century Essays by noted scholars are juxtaposed with profiles of individual Israelis and Palestinians involved in peace activism What emerges is a unique perspective on the prospects for peace in this troubled area Coordinated with a documentary film of the same name the book is designed as a tool for the study of conflict resolution generally and the Israeli Palestinian conflict in particular The twelve original essays deal with the issues from different disciplinary perspectives political science Yehoshafat Harkabi A R Norton Muhammad Muslih and Robert Vitalis history Avraham Zilkha and Joel Beinin anthropology Robert Rubinstein sociology Salim Tamari film Steven Talley law Edward Sherman and international peacekeeping Christian Harleman The human side of the struggle is presented through brief biographies and portraits of twenty five ordinary Israelis and Palestinians involved in peace activities in Israel and the West Bank

Dialogue in Palestine Nadia Naser-Najjab, 2020-01-23 Since 1993 various international donors have poured money into a People to People P2P diplomacy programme in Palestine This grassroots initiative still funded by prominent external donors today seeks to foster public engagement through contact and therefore remove deeply embedded barriers This book examines the limited nature of this contact and explains why the P2P framework which was ostensibly concerned with the promotion of peace ultimately served to reinforce conflict and power relations The book is based on the author's own experience of the solidarity activities during the First Intifada and her first hand involvement as a coordinator of the P2P projects implemented during the 1990s It provides a much needed critical account of the internationally sponsored peace process and develops new theoretical analyses of settler colonialism

Defiant Discourse Tamar Katriel, 2020-10-29 In this timely and innovative book Tamar Katriel takes a language and discourse centred approach to the subject of peace activism in Israel Palestine one of the most significant political issues of our time while also posing more general questions about the role played by language in activist movements how activists themselves conceptualize their speech and its relationship to action Viewing activism as a globalized cultural formation that gives shape and meaning to grassroots organizations struggles for political change this book explores the relations between the cultural categories of speech and action as constructed and evaluated in activist contexts It focuses on the specific empirical field of defiant discourse associated with the soldierly role in Israeli culture using it to offer an in depth exploration of the cultural underpinnings of defiant speech Katriel interrogates discourse centered activism as part of social movements action repertoires on the one hand and of the local cultural construction of speech cultures on the other This is critical reading for all students and scholars studying activism and social movements within linguistics Middle Eastern studies peace studies and communication studies

Displacing Human Rights Adam Branch, 2011-08-22 Today Western intervention is a ubiquitous feature of violent conflict in Africa Humanitarian aid agencies community peacebuilders microcredit promoters children's rights activists the World Bank the International Criminal Court the U S military and numerous others have involved themselves in African conflicts all claiming to bring peace and human rights to situations where they are desperately needed However according to Adam Branch Western intervention is not the solution to violence in Africa but instead can be a major part of the problem often undermining human rights and even prolonging war and intensifying anti civilian violence Based on an extended case study of Western intervention into northern Uganda's twenty year civil war and drawing on Branch's own extensive research and human rights activism there this book lays bare the reductive understandings motivating Western intervention in Africa the inadequate tools it insists on employing its refusal to be accountable to African citizenries and most important its counterproductive consequences for peace human rights and justice In short Branch demonstrates how Western interventions undermine the efforts Africans themselves are undertaking to end violence in their own communities The book does not end with critique however Motivated by a commitment to global justice it proposes concrete changes for Western humanitarian peacebuilding and justice interventions as well as a new normative framework for re orienting the Western approach to violent conflict in Africa around a practice of genuine solidarity A key strength of the book is its ability to analyse and reveal common patterns in seemingly disparate and complex empirical instances of counterproductive human rights interventions in Uganda This book should be required reading for all those working on various themes in Africa today The Journal of Modern African Studies This book provides a pessimistic but much needed critique of the history of foreign intervention in Northern Uganda Responsible discussions of foreign policy must consider the ways in which great power politics can hurt people in the name of protection this book is an excellent place to start that discussion The Christian Science Monitor British Qualifications 2016 Philip

Kogan,2015-12-03 Now in its 46th edition British Qualifications is the definitive one volume guide to every qualification on offer in the United Kingdom With an equal focus on vocational studies this essential guide has full details of all institutions and organizations involved in the provision of further and higher education and is an essential reference source for careers advisors students and employers It also includes a comprehensive and up to date description of the structure of further and higher education in the UK The book includes information on awards provided by over 350 professional institutions and accrediting bodies details of academic universities and colleges and a full description of the current framework of academic and vocational education It is compiled and checked annually to ensure accuracy of information Nation-Building Jochen Hippler,2005-06-20 The term nation building has experienced a remarkable renaissance since the early 1990s It has been used to describe and to justify the military interventions in Somalia Afghanistan and Iraq Linked to the idea of failed or failing states the concept is used to hide and legitimise a whole range of diverse policies allowing foreign powers to control and reshape countries in areas of conflict Currently the international debate on nation building is heavily dominated by US actors and authors especially by writers connected to the Bush administration or its policies This book presents academic and political alternatives presenting a critical view from Old Europe The book combines academic research and analysis with policy orientation with contributors from both fields It clarifies the terminology distinguishing developmental peace related imperial and analytical approaches to nation building Highlighting its connections to globalization democracy ethnic and religious minorities the contributors consider case studies such as Somalia the Balkans Afghanistan Iraq and Nigeria The Weekly Notes ,1913 Intercultural Dispute Resolution in Aboriginal Contexts Catherine Bell,David Kahane,2007-10 In the last twenty years there has been a growing interest in alternative dispute resolution ADR as scholars and practitioners seek more effective context sensitive approaches to conflict Where formerly conflict was tackled and resolved in formal legal settings and with an adversarial spirit more conciliatory approaches negotiation mediation problem solving and arbitration are now gaining favour These new methods are proving especially appropriate in intercultural contexts particularly for Aboriginal land claims self government and community based disputes The essays collected here by Catherine Bell and David Kahane provide a balanced view of ADR exploring its opportunities and effectiveness alongside its challenges and limits The essays are international in scope with examples of efforts at dispute resolution involving Inuit and Arctic peoples Dene Gitksan and Wet suwet en Tsuu T ina Cree Metis Navajo Maori Aboriginal Australians and Torres Strait Islanders With contributions from Aboriginal and non Aboriginal theorists and practitioners Intercultural Dispute Resolution in Aboriginal Contexts presents an array of insightful perspectives This book will appeal to students and scholars of Aboriginal law and alternative dispute resolution legal and political theorists dispute resolution practitioners and anyone involved in struggles around land claims treaty and self government agreements in Canada or abroad Politics and the Media in Twenty-First Century Indonesia Krishna Sen,David Hill,2010-11 This book examines the media in the post authoritarian politics of twenty first century Indonesia It considers how the media is being transformed its role in politics and its potential impact in enabling or hampering the development of democracy in Indonesia
