Teaching Performance Expectations for Educating English Learners María V. Balderrama, Lynne T. Díaz-Rico, 2006 Teacher Performance Expectations for Educating English Learners addresses the needs of elementary and secondary teachers in multilingual classrooms including second language learning across multiple academic subjects Renowned authors Mar a V Balderrama and Lynne D az Rico provide in a single volume the techniques necessary to prepare teachers and other professionals to teach speakers of other languages and cultural backgrounds This timely text is designed to be a comprehensive source of teaching techniques and effective educational practices particularly those that meet California's standardized Teacher Performance Assessment that prospective teachers must take This book specifically addresses those standards by presenting explicit expectations that challenge teachers in multilingual multiethnic classrooms Subscribing to a teaching approach that respects and builds second language skills upon a foundation of native language proficiency Teacher Performance Expectations for Educating

English Learners contains the most up to date techniques currently available for promoting linguistic proficiency and features multiple effective teaching methods for the educator of English learners The main tenet of the book is that successful English language learning results from a combination of rich interesting content instruction and a fast moving engaging curriculum Young Children and Families in the Information Age Kelly L. Heider, Mary Renck Jalongo, 2014-12-05 This edited book presents the most recent theory research and practice on information and technology literacy as it relates to the education of young children Because computers have made it so easy to disseminate information the amount of available information has grown at an exponential rate making it impossible for educators to prepare students for the future without teaching them how to be effective information managers and technology users Although much has been written about information literacy and technology literacy in secondary education there is very little published research about these literacies in early childhood education Recently the National Association for the Education of Young Children and the Fred Rogers Center for Early Learning and Children s Media at Saint Vincent College published a position statement on using technology and interactive media as tools in early childhood programs This statement recommends more research to better understand how young children use and learn with technology and interactive media and also to better understand any short and long term effects Many assume that today s young children are digital natives with a great understanding of technology However children may know how to operate digital technology but be unaware of its dangers or its value to extend their abilities This book argues that information and technology literacy include more than just familiarity with the digital environment They include using technology safely and ethically to demonstrate creativity and innovation to communicate and collaborate to conduct research and use information and to think critically solve problems and make decisions Teacher Education and Certification ,1960 The Software Encyclopedia ,1988 Working Mother ,2003-10 The magazine that helps career moms balance their personal and professional lives National Compendium of Televised Education Lawrence E.
