adequate protection is provided for the victims and potential victims of honour based violence and abuse Since honour based violence is a violation of human rights the relevant international human rights law is examined to illustrate the perception of such crimes in the international arena The effectiveness of any remedy for victims of honour based violence and abuse depends on its capability to change deep rooted behaviours in communities with honour based patriarchal values This book argues that the law does not provide the effective impact required in part due to patriarchal structures and that more efforts should be dedicated to changes in education It is held that there is a need for an educational programme that is especially designed to tackle violence and promote gender equality The book will be essential reading for academics researchers and policy makers working in the areas of Human Rights Law Criminal Law and Gender Studies      National Library of Medicine Audiovisuals Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.),1977
