

Personal Reflective Essay

Being a teenager in today's society is hard. The pressure surrounding the upcoming exams - from both parents and teachers - is stressful to say the least. People close to you change - and not necessarily for the better. Peer pressure gradually becomes a bigger deal. We are supposed to be young adults, yet get treated like children. I feel that some people have the mental age of a five year old, yet others act far older than their years. Society often labels us depending on what we wear or what we like. We have the pressure to look a certain way, and the expectation to dress like the people in magazines. Relationships come to the fore too. The joys of being a teenager - or so I'm told.

Exams. If you ask anyone in education right now what on their mind, the answer will be exams. With only a couple of months till they begin everything is starting to get slightly hectic. We're all panicking because we don't understand anything, and the occasional outburst from your teacher telling you that "you are going to fail if you don't buck up your ideas", isn't really that helpful to be honest. The new exams being made up on the spot, or so it feels, isn't exactly reassuring either. Over the past few years I have discovered that I'm someone who needs structure. I need a specific road that will lead me to the end goal, or a plan that has been meticulously planned. And with very few teachers giving me a straight answer when asked about the exams, you could say I'm starting to get a bit panicky. I also feel that some teachers forget you do other subjects cough maths cough. As important as that subject is, I do have other homework slightly more important than a page of a worksheet!

As you can probably tell I have some strong feelings about these changes, in addition to everything else that goes on inside my head. I'm not normally an emotional person, but this year I have discovered emotions I've never felt before. I discovered over the past couple of months that people around me are changing. Someone that used to be a very close friend is drifting from my group. It's been building up over the past few weeks and months, with the occasional snap at someone, or getting up and storming off. With eight girls in a group that tends to happen now and again. But now I feel that this happening too regularly and I don't like it. I spoke to my mum, as we are quite close and she told me to keep fighting for the friendship that we used to have. But, I don't actually think I want to fight for it anymore. I'm tired and fed up of the nights I spent worrying about this individual, thinking I've done

Handbook of Counselor Preparation Karen Eriksen, 2011-12 Published in cooperation with the Association for Counselor Education and Supervision ACES Handbook of Reflection and Reflective Inquiry Nona Lyons, 2010-04-07

Philosophers have warned of the perils of a life spent without reflection but what constitutes reflective inquiry and why it is necessary in our lives can be an elusive concept Synthesizing ideas from minds as diverse as John Dewey and Paulo Freire the Handbook of Reflection and Reflective Inquiry presents reflective thought in its most vital aspects not as a fanciful or nostalgic exercise but as a powerful means of seeing familiar events anew encouraging critical thinking and crucial insight teaching and learning In its opening pages two seasoned educators Maxine Greene and Lee Shulman discuss reflective inquiry as a form of active attention Thoreau's wide awakeness an act of consciousness and a process by which people can understand themselves their work particularly in the form of life projects and others Building on this foundation the Handbook analyzes through the work of 40 internationally oriented authors Definitional issues concerning reflection what it is and is not Worldwide social and moral conditions contributing to the growing interest in reflective inquiry in professional education Reflection as promoted across professional educational domains including K 12 education teacher education occupational therapy and the law Methods of facilitating and scaffolding reflective engagement Current pedagogical and research practices in reflection Approaches to assessing reflective inquiry Educators across the professions as well as adult educators counselors and psychologists and curriculum developers concerned with adult learning will find the Handbook of Reflection and Reflective Inquiry an invaluable teaching tool for challenging times Maximizing Self-Reflections in the Classroom Ellen Richard, 2022-11-22 What if we could guide children to self reflect on their level of understanding to learn what concepts they truly grasp and to identify those concepts with which they still struggle before and after being assessed on these concepts What if they could take this information and produce a plan to help themselves master material before an assessment This practical book will enable you to work with students more effectively so they can evaluate their own levels of understanding and determine strategies to get them from where they are academically to where they need to be You'll also find out how to involve families since self reflection works better when students teachers and families partner in the learning process Appropriate for K 8 teachers and curriculum coordinators the book is perfect for teamwide book studies and teacher training Examples are included throughout and the appendix tools can be downloaded for classroom use Literacy Projects for Student-Centered Classrooms Karrell Hickman, 2007-04-18 Meets NCTE and IRA standards offers guidelines for using the student centered approach to literacy instruction and presents four long term research projects that encourage teamwork and creativity Learning to Love Assessment Sherah Betts Carr, Anaya L. Bryson, 2017-07-07 Learning to Love Assessment Unraveling Complexities and Providing Solutions provides educators and stakeholders with two very critical components of the current assessment dialogue One is to understand the historical and legislative components and perceptions that have created the current climate of school accountability measures The second is to deconstruct these complexities and offer concrete solutions for making classroom assessment an enjoyable productive and student owned endeavor The bulk of this book focuses on solutions It offers concrete techniques for educators at all levels to cultivate and implement effective classroom assessment strategies Over 50 unique strategies for formative student peer and self assessment data dialogues technological tools and PBL3 problem project and performance based assessments are detailed A special feature of the book includes access to a companion web site that contains links and handouts that coordinate with the various classroom assessment strategies In addition each chapter contains reflective pre and post reading questions so the book can be effectively used to supplement professional learning or educational courses Teaching and Learning in a Concept-Based Nursing Curriculum Ignatavicius, Donna D.
