Paul's 'Spirit of Adoption' in its Roman Imperial Context Robert Brian Lewis, 2016-01-28 Robert Lewis examines Paul's use of the phrase Spirit of Adoption in Romans 8 12 17 against the background of its Roman Imperial context in order to shed light on interpretation of Paul's Letter to the Romans Whereas other scholars have explored what Paul may have meant when he uses the term adoption Lewis instead explores the reasons behind Paul's coupling of it with the term spirit Having examined theories for a possible Jewish antecedent for Paul's use of this phrase and found them less than persuasive Lewis unlocks the data within the term's Roman Imperial context that significantly clarifies what Paul means when he uses the phrase Spirit of adoption Lewis shows that when Paul wrote his letter to the Romans adoption had become a feature of Imperial succession Roman religion gave a great deal of prominence to the Roman family spirit the genius The Emperor's genius became identified as a deity in Roman religion and its veneration was widespread in Rome as well as the provinces When Romans 8 12 17 is read against this background a very different kind of exegetical picture emerges

Aids in the Church Linda Davis, 2009-03-31 In a crisis people are sometimes confused and put their trust in man When these individuals can't answer their prayers The only name that is important is the name of Jesus

He will never leave you or forsake you like man Nor will he tell another human being any of your business I guarantee you that the name of Jesus is who you want to call for when it is time to pray The Catholic Bible, Personal Study Edition Jean Marie Hiesberger, 2006-12 The essential resource for Scripture students Cover An Introduction to the New Testament DAVID A DESILVA, 2020-05-21 Professor deSilva's outstanding textbook sets a new standard for the genre The usual topics of New Testament introduction are integrated with instruction in interpretative strategies and application to ministry formation The attractive layout includes numerous maps photographs and text boxes Fire in My Soul Soon Bong Choi, Jin Ki Hwang, Max J. Lee, 2014-06-26 Fire in My Soul pays tribute to the life and legacy of Dr Seyoon Kim who has taught as Professor of New Testament at Fuller Theological Seminary for almost two decades and is known internationally for his work on the origin of Paul's gospel This collection of essays in his honor revisits classic issues in Pauline studies and offers fresh insights on Paul's use of righteousness language in his letters the occasion and purpose of Romans the problem of universal sinfulness and justification by faith It also presents several exegetical studies on the use of the Old Testament in the gospels Scholars students and pastors interested in Pauline soteriology and gospel hermeneutics will find this volume helpful in their own research teaching and ministry The Whole Works of King Alfred the Great Alfred (King of England), 1852 Unity and Diversity in Christ William S Campbell, 2017-03-31 The legacy of Pauline scholarship from ancient to modern is characterised by a surfeit of unsettled conflicting conclusions that often fail to interpret Paul in relation to his Jewish roots William S Campbell takes a stand against this paradigm emphasising continuity between Judaism and the Christ movement in Paul's letters Campbell focusses on important themes such as diversity identity and reconciliation as the basic components of transformation in Christ The stance from which Paul theologises is one that recognises and underpins social and cultural diversity and includes the correlating demand that because difference is integral to the Christ movement the enmity associated with difference cannot be tolerated Thus reconciliation emerges as a fundamental value in the Christ movement Reconciliation in this sense respects and does not negate the particularities of the identity of Jews and those from the nations In this paradigm transformation implies the re-evaluation of all things in Christ whether of Jewish or gentile origin Married to Christ Milton J. Fletcher, 2012-09 Examine the foundation of union with Christ's death and resurrection as a source of salvation Explain the idea that as ordinary death alters legal relationships death in Christ alters the believer's legal obligations The penalty that the law exacts is death but those who have died through union with Christ have already suffered this penalty the law has no authority to condemn them further Discuss the law of marriage when one partner dies the law governing the relationship ceases to apply and remarriage is not sin Convey that believers rose to new life through union with Christ in the resurrection and are free to belong to Christ for the purpose of bearing fruit to God Illustrate that the old Adamic marriage to the law ceased to exist believers are no longer under law but are released from it Describe the new marriage an entry in to a new life dominated by the Holy Spirit who gives new power to fulfill the holy laws of God Seeing Good, Doing Evil Michael D. Russell, 2020-07-31 According to the Apostle Paul what can be known about God and by extension about ethics is plain to people so we are without excuse Romans 1 18 21 teaches that we will be without excuse when God confronts us for whatever beliefs and actions seemed good to us on the day but weren't In our time this notion has come to seem at least unpalatable and more likely unbelievable Michael D Russell's book is an extended meditation on the possibilities in this Pauline statement and a concerted effort to enable us to understand and accept it Situated in Reformed Protestant discussion of this matter he offers some clarifying proposals Maintaining all the while that whoever we are we are indeed without excuse Michael proposes how to understand that conclusion without accepting some of the usual routes to it
