

Lobby Hero — Kenneth Lonergan

DAWN: They think I'm nuts. Well not exactly, my mother thinks I'm nuts, but I happen to think she's nuts too so there's no harm done there, right? But I guess generally my parents are proud. I was near the top of my class at the academy. I just uhm- I just fucked up with this prick that's all. And now I'm screwed because I obviously I really misjudged him, ya know? For all I know he's been shooting off his mouth all over the department. And it wouldn't have been so hard to avoid the whole thing in the first place. But these guys — I mean they've seen so much horrible shit it's like they don't give a damn about anything — so you gotta walk around like you don't give a damn about anything either, but they know you still do. And they wanna like stamp it out of you or something and like test you all the time and it's always like, "Hey, you're not men. You're not women. You're cops. Act like cops and you'll be treated like cops." Only then it turns out they've got a pool going as to who's gonna fuck you first. Ok, and that's fine I can handle it. You make them respect you. But then somebody decent comes along and goes out of his way to make life easier for you — and I didn't even ask him to, because I didn't expect anything different. I didn't want anything different. But then oh my god it's true love. Except when he comes down in that elevator just watch because I'm gonna be the one who's expected to act like I'm a cop. I mean — and then I've got you. Yeah. God damnnit!

The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and gripping novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
