of Islamic law in Indonesia Presents a complex range of references for syariah including the formal structures of a new fiqh philosophies of law transmissions of syariah through tertiary curricula and the Friday sermon in mosques a bureaucratic form for conducting the Hajj and contemporary debates on syariah values as expressions of public morality Islamic Horizons, 2001 Teaching for a Multifaith World Eleazar S. Fernandez, 2017-05-05 When religious diversity is our reality radical hospitality to people of other faiths is not a luxury but a necessity More than necessary for our survival radical hospitality to religious diversity is necessary if we are to thrive as a global society By no means does the practice of hospitality in a multifaith world require that we be oblivious of our differences On the contrary it demands a respectful embrace of our differences because that is who we are Neither does radical hospitality require that we water down our commitment because faithfulness and openness are not contradictory We must be able to say with burning passion that we are open to the claims of other faiths because we are faithful to our religious heritage The essays in this book do not offer simply theological exhortations they offer specific ways of how we can become religiously competent citizens in a multifaith world Let us take the bold steps of radical openness with this book on our side We're Off to Make 'Umrah Sana Munshey, 2015-12-26 Salam my dear friends I hope you're all well If you've time to listen I've something to tell About the first mosque A beautiful sight Which we face when we pray Where the nur shines bright Discover the joys of Umrah when a brother and sister travel with their parents to the city of Mecca and perform this sacred ritual for the very first time Includes a poster and paper dolls to enact performing Umrah Muslim Environmentalisms Anna M. Gade, 2019-08-20 How might understandings of environmentalism and the environmental humanities shift by incorporating Islamic perspectives In this book Anna M Gade explores the religious and cultural foundations of Islamic environmentalisms She blends textual and ethnographic study to offer a comprehensive and interdisciplinary account of the legal ethical social and empirical principles underlying Muslim commitments to the earth Muslim Environmentalisms shows how diverse Muslim communities and schools of thought have addressed ecological questions for the sake of this world and the world to come Gade draws on a rich spectrum of materials scripture jurisprudence science art and social and political engagement as well as fieldwork in Indonesia and Southeast Asia The book brings together case studies in disaster management educational programs international development conservation projects religious ritual and performance and Islamic law to rethink key theories Gade shows that the Islamic tradition leads us to see the environment as an ethical idea moving beyond the established frameworks of both nature and crisis Muslim Environmentalisms models novel approaches to the study of religion and environment from a humanistic perspective reinterpreting issues at the intersection of numerous academic disciplines to propose a postcolonial and global understanding of environment in terms of consequential relations Personal Narrative of a Pilgrimage to Al-Madinah and Meccah Sir Richard Francis Burton, 1906
