Beeline Shalini Shankar, 2019-04-30 An anthropologist uses spelling bees as a lens to examine the unique and diverse traits of Generation Z and why they are destined for success At first glance Generation Z youth born after 1997 seems to be made up of anxious overachievers hounded by Tiger Moms and constantly tracked on social media One would think that competitors in the National Spelling Bee the most popular brain sport in America would be the worst off Counterintuitively anthropologist Shalini Shankar argues that far from being simply overstressed and overscheduled Gen Z spelling bee competitors are learning crucial twenty first century skills from their high powered lives displaying a sophisticated understanding of self promotion self direction and social mobility Drawing on original ethnographic research including interviews with participants judges and parents Shankar examines the outsize impact of immigrant parents and explains why Gen Z kids are on a path to success

The Name Therapist Duana Taha, 2016-04-05 What's a stripper name For that matter what's a high class name How do you tell the difference Why does everyone call them baby names when they follow us through our whole lives And can your name determine your destiny From a television screenwriter and contributor on the LaineyGossip com blog comes a book about what names really mean how we use them and why they matter A child of Irish and Egyptian immigrants to Canada Duana Taha became fascinated by names not least because hers felt awkward at best and impossible at worst She believed that names explained not only who you were but where you came from and who you could be She became a name nerd and later a name snob before settling into the role she was born to play a Name Therapist giving straight talk baby and grown up name advice to just about everyone In a romp through North American naming trends traditions and pop culture Duana brings us the hilarious insightful and surprising truths about hipster names in Brooklyn and Malibu and the most intelligent names at Harvard University digs into the stereotypes about culture and class where names are concerned and heads backstage to find out the stories behind those supposed stripper names And if you don't know what a Starbucks name is Duana points out why you obviously never needed one The Name Therapist's explorations will help you understand your feelings about your own name whether it's one you share with millions hi Jennifer or one you grew up waiting in vain for the Romper Room host to say Would you by any other name still be you The Best Boy in the United States Of America Dr. Ron Wolfson, 2015-07-31 Powerful life lessons in a funny and moving portrait of family community and spiritual discovery in America Hilarious and heartfelt Ron Wolfson's inspiring memoir is filled with stories of growing up in a warm family encountering colorful characters like the merchants of Omaha and the famous Warren Buffett navigating adolescence and learning never to underestimate his mother With easygoing Midwestern humor and profound poignancy Ron's true stories of family and community in the United States of America will resonate with anyone seeking to shape stronger families create compelling communities and live their best life a life of joy and laughter meaning and purpose and yes blessings and kisses I am the best boy in the United States of America That's what my grandfather my Zaydie called me from the time I was a little child in Omaha Nebraska I know it's true because this is a true story All my stories are true Zaydie loved three things his family his business and his adopted country the United States of America I never ever heard Zaydie say the United States It was always da United States of America in his thick Russian accent For Louie Paperny each one of his nine grandchildren was the best boy or the best girl in the United States of America We believed him I believed him And in a certain way I've lived the rest of my life trying to be that best boy from Chapter 1 Hyper Education Pawan Dhingra, 2021-09-07 An up close look at the education arms race of after school learning academic competitions and the perceived failure of even our best schools to educate children Beyond soccer leagues music camps and drama lessons today's youth are in an education arms race that begins in elementary school In Hyper Education Pawan Dhingra uncovers the growing world of high achievement education and the after school learning centers spelling bees and math competitions that it has spawned It is a world where immigrant families vie with other Americans to be at the head of the class putting in hours of studying and testing in order to gain a foothold in the supposed meritocracy of American public education A world where enrichment centers like Kumon have seen 194 percent growth since 2002 and target children as young as three Even families and teachers who avoid after school academics are getting swept up Drawing on over 100 in depth interviews with teachers tutors principals children and parents Dhingra delves into the why people participate in this phenomenon and examines how schools families and communities play their part Moving past Tiger Mom stereotypes he addresses why Asian American and white families practice what he calls hyper education and whether or not it makes sense By taking a behind the scenes look at the Scripps National Spelling Bee other national competitions and learning centers Dhingra shows why good schools good grades and good behavior are seen as not enough for high achieving students and their parents and why the education arms race is likely to continue to expand
