Portfolios and Other Assessments Julia Jasmine, 1993 Presents reproducible activities in learning to observe students in action and make valid performance assessments discovering methods for creating useful assessment rubrics and making portfolios work for the teacher and the student Teaching Historical Fiction with Ready-Made Literature Circles for Secondary Readers Carianne Bernadowski, Kelly Morgano, 2011-10-24 This comprehensive step by step guide provides practical guidance to implement literature circles in any social studies or language arts classroom This book provides a how to guide for a novice or veteran teacher or library media specialist who is interested in implementing literature circles with high interest texts After an introduction that covers the research findings on literature circles and supplies a framework for implementation of literature circles in the classroom and library Teaching Historical Fiction with Ready Made Literature Circles for Secondary Readers presents 14 selected historical fiction titles for grades 7 through 12 that lend themselves perfectly to interdisciplinary teaching Each selection is accompanied by bibliographic information an annotation vocabulary words discussion questions and guided reading questions as well as lessons for before during and after reading The titles included cover many historical time periods and topics that can easily aligned with state and national standards Just as importantly these are texts that a history teacher or literature instructor would find beneficial to use with students 21st Century Literacy Renita Schmidt, Paul Lee Thomas, 2008-11-09 Renita Schmidt and P L Thomas The guiding mission of the teacher education program in the university where we teach is to create teachers who are scholars and leaders While the intent of that mission is basically sound in theory we instill the idea that teachers at all levels are professionals always learning and growing in knowledge that theory that philosophical underpinning does not insure that the students who complete our program are confident about the act or performance of teaching. In our unique program, students work closely with one teacher and classroom for the entire senior year and then are supervised and mentored during their first semester of teaching. The program is heavily field based and it depends on the effectiveness of mentoring throughout the methods coursework and the first semester of full time teaching. Students tell us this guidance and support is invaluable and yet we feel the disjuncture between university and school just as many of you in more traditional student teaching settings. Students hear best practice information from us in methods classes and they receive ample exposure to the research supporting our field but have a hard time implementing research based practices in their classroom settings and an even harder time finding it in the classrooms around them.

Differentiated Literacy and Language Arts Strategies for the Elementary

Classroom Shellie Hipsky, 2011. The Fall 2011 issue of the Kappa Delta Pi Record includes a review of Differentiated Literacy and Language Arts Strategies for the Elementary Classroom. From the review: In today's inclusive classrooms, this book will be an excellent resource from which teachers can draw advice and find teaching resources that will assist them in designing effective instruction. Click here to read the book review on page 47. For courses in Methods of Reading for Elementary or Early Childhood, Methods of Language Arts for Elementary or Early Childhood, Differentiated Instruction in the Classroom or Special Education and Language Arts. Although it can seem a daunting task to individualize learning for all students, this book provides specific how-to techniques to make it happen, equipping pre-service teachers with the tools they need to differentiate instruction for all students: general education, gifted and talented, challenged, or English Language Learners (ELL). This new text is much like a how-to guide for differentiating instruction in for today's educators with a diverse population of students to serve. Seasoned with authentic examples from elementary teachers and their real classrooms, the text offers a plethora of advice for implementing strategies in literacy-based classrooms, creative ways to create effective learning environments, appropriate instructional techniques based on students' abilities, learning profiles and interests, and strategies to differentiate in the reading areas of emerging literacy skills, vocabulary, comprehension, fluency, writing, speaking, listening, and content area reading. Every chapter in the book includes specific, illuminating classroom examples, questions for reflecting on the reading, active engagement ideas for further exploration of the topic, and conclusions. Unique to this text is the inclusion of a journal kept by an elementary teacher whose classroom is visited in the text, demonstrating a year's worth of successful implementation of differentiation, assessment, and instruction. Keenly focused on the needs of pre-service teachers with ample strategies to positively impact the classrooms of current teachers, Differentiated Literacy and Language Arts Strategies for the Elementary Classroom addresses the reader with an engaging, personalized tone and demystifies the process of differentiated instruction for all teachers.
