Pamphlet Architecture 28 Augmented Landscapes:

Pamphlet Architecture 28 Mark Smout, Laura Allen, 2013-07-02 In 1977 Steven Holl and William Stout created a grittier alternative to mainstream architectural publishing called Pamphlet Architecture With Holl's Bridges the landmark series was born and for 30 years Pamphlet has served as soapbox and laboratory for such notable architects and theorists as Lebbeus Woods Zaha Hadid Lars Lerup and Michael Sorkin With its twenty eighth installment Pamphlet Architecture celebrates its thirtieth anniversary no less bold than when it began Augmented Landscapes features a landscape architecture practice for the first time in Pamphlet history London's Smout Allen presents five projects that respond to the way in which man has enlarged the landscape through architecture and infrastructure manipulating and blurring perceptions of what is natural and what is artificial

Pamphlet Architecture 29 Nannette Jackowski, Ricardo de Ostos, 2013-07-02 Ambiguous Spaces the newest installment in the Pamphlet Architecture series and a return to Pamphlet's own progressive roots features the architectural fictions The Pregnant Island and Nuclear Breeding These two projects develop alternative urban concepts that address the challenges presented by the specific situations and social dynamics described in controversial locations such as the Brazilian Tucuruí Dam the Three Gorges Dam in China and former English nuclear test sites Using narrative techniques fictional programs ambiguous spaces and building devices Ambiguous Spaces explores people communities and even entire cities oppressed by a lack of freedom

Procuring Innovative Architecture Leon van Schaik, Geoffrey London, 2010-05-12 The case studies in this book describe how clients' promotion of innovative communities of practice has led to important collections of architectural works The book provides an assessment of the effectiveness of their approaches Architects and clients will understand what to look for as they construct their careers and their portfolios with innovation as a goal It is taken for granted nowadays that supporting innovative architecture benefits society In countries as diverse as Austria Australia Belgium England Japan South East Asia Slovenia Spain Switzerland and the USA retailers institutions local and regional government and transport authorities have established substantial bodies of work by new and emerging architects This book looks at what their goals are and how they have achieved them Is it possible to promote sustainable communities of innovative practice through such patronage Can innovation be kick started by importing visionary works

Influence and Resistance in Post-Independence Egyptian Architecture Marwa M. El-Ashmouni, Ashraf M. Salama, 2022-07-22 This book is an effort towards an in depth understanding of the architectural discourse in Egypt developed over more than eight decades It offers a distinctive theoretical interpretation of the forces shaping the kaleidoscopic shifts in Egyptian architecture through the analysis of the micro space of architectural representation of twentieth century Egyptian architecture Predicated on historical contextualization theoretical integration and global conceptualization Edward Said's analytical method of contrapuntal reading and the spatial discourse analysis posited by C Greig Crysler are lucidly assimilated to generate insights into various voices within the architectural discourse in Egypt The

Sustainable food planning: evolving theory and practice André Viljoen, 2023-09-04 Half the world's population is now urbanised and cities are assuming a larger role in debates about the security and sustainability of the global food system Hence planning for sustainable food production and consumption is becoming an increasingly important issue for planners policymakers designers farmers suppliers activists business and scientists alike The rapid growth of the food planning movement owes much to the unique multi functional character of food systems In the wider contexts of global climate change resource depletion a burgeoning world population competing food production systems and diet related public health concerns new paradigms for urban and regional planning capable of supporting sustainable and equitable food systems are urgently needed This book addresses this urgent need By working at a range of scales and with a variety of practical and theoretical models this book reviews and elaborates definitions of sustainable food systems and begins to define ways of achieving them Four different themes have been defined as entry points into the discussion of sustainable food planning These are 1 urban food governance 2 integrating health environment and society 3 urban agriculture 4 planning and design This is an important compilation on a timely topic It brings together the work of planners and designers from both sides of the Atlantic and challenges us to think about how to create food systems that deliver healthy just and sustainable communities and vital places The book moves dexterously between the grassroots and policy halls and draws valuable lessons for theory and practice Dr Kami Pothukuchi Department of Urban Studies Planning Wayne State University To address the problems of urban food production we need to look at the city in a completely different way This timely book will act as an important source for those who have an ethical interest not only in food but in improving the quality and justice of life in our city communities Prof Flora Samuel School of Architecture University of Sheffield and member of Royal Institute of British Architects Research and Development Committee This publication provides a lot of food for thought not just for persons professionally involved in the food sector and officials dealing with national food policies but especially for local and regional authorities urban planners and architects NGOs and community based organisations health and environmental officers and concerned consumers Against the background of the growing awareness of the elevated social health and ecological costs of the mainstream globalized agri food system this book analyses the emergence of a new vision and many initiatives that seek to reconnect sustainable production with sustainable consumption Hence the book delivers what is promised in its title it discusses new concepts related to food and sustainable urban regional planning based on a critical review of innovative practices at various levels Ir Henk de Zeeuw Director RUAF Foundation For those who work to address the future challenges facing city development this book is a must Why Because today practitioners and professionals are being asked to understand urban food production within a social economic and ecological context This book shows us how these connections are being made The chapters are accessible and fascinating and will help beginners and experts to deal with food production in their everyday work Dr Carlo W Becker bgmr Landscape Architects Berlin Leipzig and Technical Universit

Occupation: ruin, repudiation, revolution Lynn Churchill,Dianne Smith,2016-03-03 Bringing together an international range of contributors from the fields of practice theory and history this book takes a fresh look at occupation It argues that occupation is a prospect that begins with ruin a residue from the past an implied or even a resounding presence of something previous that holds the potential for transformation This prospect invites us to repudiate re imagine and re define lived space thereby asserting occupation as an act of revolution Authors drawn from the fields of architecture urbanism interior architecture dance dramaturgy art history design and visual arts cultural studies and media studies provide a unique holistic view of occupation examining topics such as the authority of architecture architecture as an act of revolution women in hypersexual space occupation as a serialized act of ruin and the definition of space as repudiation They discuss how acts that re invent territory and or shift boundaries psychological social and physical affect identity and demonstrate possession This theme of occupation is significant and topical at a time of radical flux generated by the proliferation of hypermedia and also by the dramatically shifting environmental political and economic context of this era The book concludes by asserting that it is through occupation private and public real virtual remembered re invented that we appear or disappear as the individual or collective self because the spaces we construct assert particular agendas which we may either contest or live in accord with

Landscape Futures Geoff Manaugh,2013 This work travels the shifting terrains of architectural invention where new spatial devices on a variety of scales from the handheld to the inhabitable reveal previously overlooked dimensions of the built and natural environments From philosophical toys and ironic provocations to a room sized kinetic mechanism that models future climates these devices are not merely diagnostic but creative deploying fictions as a means of exploring different futures Exhibition Nevada Museum of Art 13 08 2011 12 2 2012

Drawing Architecture ,2013-10-18 We are in the second decade of the 21st century and as with most things the distinction between digital and analogue has become tired and inappropriate This is also true in the world of architectural drawing which paradoxically is enjoying a renaissance supported by the graphic dexterity of the computer This new fecundity has produced a contemporary glut of stunning architectural drawings and representations that could rival the most recent outpouring of architectural vision in the 1960s 1970s and 1980s Indeed there is much to learn by comparing the then and the now The contemporary drawing is often about its ability to describe the change fluctuations and mutability of architecture in relation to the virtual real 21st century continuum of architectural space Times have changed and the status of the architectural drawing must change with them This reassessment is well overdue and this edition of AD will be the catalyst for such re examination Features the work of Pascal Bronner Bryan Cantley Peter Cook Perry Kulper CJ Lim Tom Noonan Dan Slavinsky Neil Spiller Peter Wilson Nancy Wolf Lebbeus Woods and Mas Yendo Contributors include Nic Clear Mark Garcia Simon

Herron and Mark Morris Cultural Sustainable Tourism Uglješa Stankov, Sofia-Natalia Boemi, Sahar Attia, Stella Kostopoulou, Nabil Mohareb, 2019-04-23 This book includes research papers submitted to and presented during the first international conference on Cultural Sustainable Tourism CST that was held in Thessaloniki Greece in November of 2017. Discussing complex relations between Culture tourism and the role of planners and architects in their maintenance this conference was jointly organized by IEREK International Experts for Research Enrichment and Knowledge Exchange and Aristotle University of Thessaloniki. The conference was an attempt to shed a light on the significance of Culture and Heritage as two important factors attracting tourists and promoting economic growth and convey civilizations through tourism. Themes covered in this book give an overview on current research and topics of discussion that focus on Cultural sustainable tourism through several sections. The first section titled Art Architecture and Culture discusses urban regeneration as a road to the preservation of cultural and tourist destinations and the importance of understanding and benefitting from our heritage to allow for modern day improvements. Heritage Tourism the section 2 of the book is more focused on offering nontraditional solutions and management plans to sustain cultural tourism and improve quality of life around historically significant areas. The third section on the City and Rural Tourism follows by providing sustainable strategies to attract tourists and promoting the use of existing resources. The last and final section with the title of Sustainable Tourism Development and Environmental Management maneuvers around the different yet common environmental issues existing today and proposes new and innovative solutions for their elimination. Presenting a wide range of topics in chapters this book provides the scientific community with a collection of unique and enlightening literature.

Architect ,2009-07 Vernacular Architecture Newsletter ,2006 American Book Publishing Record ,2007 Blueprint ,2007 Hidden Hands and Divided Landscapes Anoma Pieris, 2009-02-28 During the nineteenth century the colonial Straits Settlements of Singapore Penang and Melaka were established as free ports of British trade in Southeast Asia and proved attractive to large numbers of regional migrants. Following the abolishment of slavery in 1833 the Straits government transported convicts from the East India Company's Indian presidencies to the settlements as a source of inexpensive labor. The prison became the primary experimental site for the colonial plural society and convicts were graduated by race and the labor needed for urban construction. Hidden Hands and Divided Landscapes investigates how a political system aimed at managing ethnic communities in the larger material context of the colonial urban project was first imagined and tested through the physical segregation of the colonial prison. It relates the story of a city Singapore and a contemporary city state whose plural society has its origins in these historical divisions. A description of the evolution of the ideal plan for a plural city across the three settlements is followed by a detailed look at Singapore's colonial prison. Chapters trace the prison's development and its dissolution across the urban landscape through the penal labor system. The author demonstrates the way in which racial politics were inscribed spatially in the division of penal facilities and how the map of the city was reconfigured through convict labor Later chapters describe penal resistance first through intimate stories of penal life and then through a discussion of organized resistance in festival riots Eventually the plural city ideal collapsed into the hegemonic urban form of the citadel where a quite different military vision of the city became evident Hidden Hands and Divided Landscapes is a fascinating and thoroughly original study in urban history and the making of multiethnic society in Singapore It will compel readers to rethink the ways in which colonial urban history postcolonial urbanism and governance have been theorized by scholars and represented by governments
