Historia Ludens Alexander von Lünen, Katherine J. Lewis, Benjamin Litherland, Pat Cullum, 2019-08-30 This book aims to further a debate about aspects of playing and gaming in connection with history Reaching out to academics professionals and students alike it pursues a dedicated interdisciplinary approach Rather than only focusing on how professionals could learn from academics in history the book also ponders the question of what academics can learn from gaming and playing for their own practice such as gamification for teaching or using play as a paradigm for novel approaches into historical scholarship Playing and gaming are thus understood as a broad cultural phenomenon that cross pollinates the theory and practice of history and gaming alike
