Psalm 32 The Joy Of Forgiving:

Psalm 32 Amanda Bartlett, 2015-01-22 Black White Version This is a testimony about true renewal and my journey to find my place with God After a downward spiral of alcoholism memories of childhood abuse and never ending suicidal thoughts since a young girl I decided there had to be something more I ended up on my knees asking God Why Sometimes we have to let go of everything in this world to find ourselves with Him The alcoholism and abuse had been passed down in my family for several generations I needed to break these chains through fasting and prayer so this would not be passed down to my two beautiful daughters This would take me changing almost everything around me In this process I found the Amazing peace and joy of knowing our wonderful Savior I then also realized I already had His forgiveness for all of the wrong choices I had made throughout my life God has completely changed me and my heart forever My faith in Him is growing each day and will Never be shaken He mended my broken hearted spirit and gave me a new heart through complete deliverance Nothing excites me more than His love and just living for Him right beside me each and every day Psalm 32 Amanda
