

2024 ECONOMICS 12 MACROECONOMICS ESSAYS (P1)

A. CIRCULAR FLOW

1. Discuss in detail the markets within the FOUR-SECTOR model. (28 marks)

INTRODUCTION

- ✓ Market is the mechanism that brings buyers and sellers together to exchange goods and services. ✓✓
- ✓ Markets coordinate economic activities and determine prices of goods and services. ✓✓

BODY

PRODUCT AND FACTOR MARKETS

Product market/Goods/Output markets ✓

- Product market is where goods and services are exchanged for money. ✓✓
- E.g. Shoprite retailer. ✓
- These are markets for consumer goods and services. ✓✓
- In economics a distinction is made between goods and services:
- Goods are defined as any tangible items such as clothing, food cars that satisfy human wants or need. ✓✓
- Capital and consumer goods are traded in these markets. ✓✓
- Capital goods market are trading buildings and machinery. ✓✓
- Consumer goods markets are trading durable consumer goods, semi-durable goods and non-durable goods. ✓✓
- Services are defined as non-tangible actions e.g. wholesalers and retailer, transport and financial markets. ✓✓

Factor market/Resource/Input markets ✓

- Factor market is where factors of production are traded. ✓✓ e.g. labour is hired and capital is borrowed. ✓✓
- Households sell factors of production in this market. ✓✓
- These services earn wages for labour, interest for capital, rent for natural resources and profits for entrepreneurship. ✓✓
- Labour can be bought and sold in this market. ✓✓
- Factor market includes labour, property and financial markets. ✓✓
 - ✓ Product markets and factor markets are related in the sense that the demand for factor services is a derived demand. ✓✓

Patent Settlements in the Pharmaceutical Industry under US Antitrust and EU Competition Law Amalia Athanasiadou, 2018-08-14 Reverse payment settlements or pay for delay agreements between originators and generic drug manufacturers create heated debates regarding the balance between competition and intellectual property law These settlements touch upon sensitive issues such as timely generic entry and access to affordable pharmaceuticals and also the need to preserve innovation incentives for originators and to strengthen the pipeline of life saving pharmaceuticals This book is one of the first to critically and comparatively analyse how such patent settlements and various other strategies employed by the pharmaceutical industry are scrutinised by both United States US and European courts and enforcement authorities and to discuss the applicable legal tests and the main criteria used for their assessment The book s ultimate objective is to provide guidance to the pharmaceutical industry regarding the types of patent settlements strategies and conduct which may be problematic from US antitrust and European Union EU competition law perspectives and to assist practitioners in structuring settlements which are both efficient and compliant To this end an exhaustive legal analysis of some of the most controversial issues regarding pharmaceutical patent settlements is provided including the lengthy split among US Circuit Courts on the issue of pay for delay settlements its resolution by the US Supreme Court in FTC v Actavis and subsequent jurisprudence the decision of Lundbeck v Commission by the European General Court and the Servier decision of the European Commission the Roche Novartis decision of the European Court of Justice and the most important decisions by National Competition Authorities on pharma patent settlements in the EU an overview of other types of strategies such as product hopping and product reformulations no authorised generic commitments problematic side deals mechanisms affecting generic substitution the rejection of the scope of the patent test in both the US and the EU and the balancing of patent law and antitrust law considerations in the prevailing applicable tests the benefits of settlements and the main criteria for assessing their legitimacy under US antitrust and EU competition law The analysis provides concrete examples of both illegitimate and legitimate settlements and strategies emphasising on conduct that falls within a grey zone and on the circumstances and criteria under which such conduct could be deemed problematic from an antitrust perspective This book will serve as a valuable guide for pharmaceutical companies wishing to minimise the risk of engaging in conduct that could potentially infringe US antitrust and EU competition law It further aims to save courts and enforcement agencies and also practitioners and academics considerable time and resources by providing an exhaustive analysis of the relevant caselaw with the ultimate goal to increase legal certainty on the most controversial aspects of patent settlements in the pharmaceutical industry World University Rankings and the Future of Higher Education Downing, Kevin, Ganotice, Jr., Fraide A., 2016-10-06 Delivering quality education to students while remaining competitive at an international level is only one of the many challenges universities face today To attain their goals universities must adopt new strategies to achieve academic excellence World University Rankings and the Future of Higher Education is a pivotal reference source for the latest scholarly research on the implementation of a ranking system for higher education institutions providing a thorough overview of the impacts of these rankings on educational quality Exploring the benefits and challenges of this system in a global context this book is ideally designed for academicians researchers students administrators and policy makers interested in the effects of university rankings in the education sector and beyond

Routledge Handbook of International Education and Development Simon McGrath, Qing Gu, 2015-07-24 This timely Handbook takes stock of the range of debates that characterise the field of international education and development and suggests key aspects of a research agenda for the next period It is deliberately divergent in its approach recognising the major ideological and epistemological divides that characterise a field that draws on many traditions Leading and emergent voices from different paradigms and contexts are afforded a space to be heard and each section puts current debates in larger historical contexts The Handbook is divided in four parts and book ended by an introduction and a conclusion the latter oriented towards the implications that the volume has for future research agendas The first part explores major strands of debates about education's place in development theory The second acknowledges the disciplining of the field by the education for all movement and examines the place that learning and teaching and schools play in development Part three looks beyond schools to consider early years adult and vocational education but focuses particularly on the return to thinking about higher education's role in development The final part considers the changing but still important role that international cooperation plays in shaping education in developing countries Featuring over thirty chapters written by leading international and interdisciplinary scholars the Routledge Handbook of International Education and Development offers the first comprehensive and forward looking resource for students and scholars Higher Education: Handbook of Theory and Research Michael B. Paulsen, 2018-04-06 Published annually since 1985 the Handbook series provides a compendium of thorough and integrative literature reviews on a diverse array of topics of interest to the higher education scholarly and policy communities Each chapter provides a comprehensive review of research findings on a selected topic critiques the research literature in terms of its conceptual and methodological rigor and sets forth an agenda for future research intended to advance knowledge on the chosen topic The Handbook focuses on a comprehensive set of central areas of study in higher education that encompasses the salient dimensions of scholarly and policy inquiries undertaken in the international higher education community Each annual volume contains chapters on such diverse topics as research on college students and faculty organization and administration curriculum and instruction policy diversity issues economics and finance history and philosophy community colleges advances in research methodology and more The series is fortunate to have attracted annual contributions from distinguished scholars throughout the world Research Handbook on Shadow Banking Iris H.-Y. Chiu,Iain G. MacNeil, Research Handbook on Shadow Banking brings together a range of international experts to discuss shadow banking activities the purposes they serve the risks they pose to the financial system and implications for regulators and the regulatory perimeter Including discussions specific to the UK European Union US China and Singapore this book offers high level and theoretical perspectives on shadow banking and regulatory risks as well as more detailed explorations of specific markets in shadow banking Utilities Reform in Twenty-First Century Australia Malcolm Abbott,Bruce Cohen,2021 The book traces the development and consequences of the economic reform measures undertaken in the utilities sector in Australia communications energy water wastewater services and transport in the last years of the 20th century and early decades of the 21st century Entrepreneurship, Innovation, and Platforms Jeffrey Furman,Annabelle Gawer,Brian S. Silverman,Scott Stern,2017-09-29 Despite recent advances in our understanding of how innovation and entrepreneurship impact the creation and appropriation of value numerous questions remain unanswered This volume draws together scholars working at the forefront of entrepreneurship strategy and innovation related domains to explore these questions Methodology of Islamic Economics Necmettin Kizilkaya,2019-11-05 In its pursuit to equip the reader with a basic knowledge of Islamic economics this book divulges the micro foundations of the discipline and highlights the predominant schools of thought that exist in the field It explains in simple terms what Islamic economics entails and how it can be studied as a science in relation to the Holy Quran the Sunnah and the Islamic intellectual tradition based on these two sources The book familiarizes the reader with knowledge of the basic maxims of the discipline It then establishes the arguments that are presented by the proponents of religion based economics specifically Islam and apprises readers about the aforementioned schools as they exist A number of chapters consider the dimension of the dilemmas the discipline is facing and the chronological progress of the field is reviewed hence providing a comprehensive overview of the topic The book deals with the issues about the origins of Islamic economics the basic methodological questions the use of the opportunities offered by fiqh in the methodological discussions and the main problems arising from the encounter with other cultures and civilizations It offers practical solutions despite the differing schools of thought not unlike the development of conventional Economics where radical differences between Keynesian Classical and Monetarist approaches existed It concludes by incorporating some of the finest works that explain to the reader how Islamic economics may progress as a discipline This guide will provide both students and researchers in Comparative Economic Studies Islamic Economics and Islamic Finance with an essential overview of the field Handbook of Macroeconomics John B. Taylor, Harald Uhlig, 2016-11-12 Handbook of Macroeconomics Volumes 2A and 2B surveys major advances in macroeconomic scholarship since the publication of Volume 1 1999 carefully distinguishing between empirical theoretical methodological and policy issues including fiscal monetary and regulatory policies to deal with crises unemployment and economic growth As this volume shows macroeconomics has undergone a profound change since the publication of the last volume due in no small part to the questions thrust into the spotlight by the worldwide financial crisis of 2008 With contributions from the world's leading macroeconomists its reevaluation of macroeconomic scholarship and assessment of its future constitute an investment worth making Serves a double role as a textbook for macroeconomics courses and as a gateway for students to the latest research Acts as a one of a kind resource as no major collections of macroeconomic essays have been published in the last decade Builds upon Volume 1 by using its section headings to illustrate just how far macroeconomic thought has evolved Making Public in a Privatized World David A. McDonald, 2016-02-15 How do we provide effective public services in a deeply neoliberal world In the wake of the widespread failure of privatisation efforts societies in the global south are increasingly seeking progressive ways of recreating the public sector With contributors ranging from cutting edge scholars to activists working in health water and energy provision and with case studies covering a broad spectrum of localities and actors Making Public in a Privatized World uncovers the radically different ways in which public services are being reshaped from the grassroots up From communities holding the state accountable for public health in rural Guatemala to waste pickers in India and decentralized solar electricity initiatives in Africa the essays in this collection offer probing insights into the complex ways in which people are building genuine alternatives to privatization while also illustrating the challenges which communities face in creating public services which are not subordinated to the logic of the market or to the monolithic state entities of the past Mobile Payments, Consumer Policy, and the Law Nwanneka Ezechukwu, 2023-03-17 Mobile technology offers an innovative and cost effective channel for delivering a range of financial services including mobile payments In some jurisdictions mobile payments simply provide a convenient option for facilitating payment transactions In other jurisdictions mobile payments are viewed as potentially transformative because they present an opportunity to expand access to financial services However as with other innovations mobile payments raise consumer protection concerns and require robust regulatory mechanisms to address such concerns Against this backdrop the book adopts a typology of consumer policy tools which can be used to address the identified consumer concerns This typology guides the enquiry into the existing consumer protection frameworks applying to mobile payments in selected jurisdictions Canada Kenya and the United Kingdom The main objective of this endeavour is to identify best practices that national authorities seeking to leverage mobile payments and similar innovations can emulate This book will be of interest to policymakers regulators industry stakeholders students and scholars interested in the regulation of innovative financial services particularly from a consumer protection perspective
