Conditionality International Monetary Fund. Strategy, Policy, & Review Department, 2019-05-20 The 2018 Review of Program Design and Conditionality is the first comprehensive stocktaking of Fund lending operations since the global financial crisis The review assesses program performance between September 2011 and end 2017 Programs during this period were defined by the protracted structural challenges faced by members and hampered by the persistently weak global environment

Proposed Amendment on the Reform of the IMF Executive Board and Fourteenth General Review of Quotas - Status of Acceptances and Consents International Monetary Fund. Strategy, Policy, & Review Department, 2013-05-14 A stronger presumption of publication for all program related documents could further increase publication rates while defining prompt publication should help reduce publication lags Streamlining external communication products could reduce the risk of inconsistent messaging The review also presents new evidence on evenhandedness with now only few cases not fulfilling the criteria for modifications under the policy It nevertheless suggests measures to strengthen monitoring in this area The review sets out the Fund's policies on confidential information and proposes that staff systematically explain these policies in its interactions with country authorities In response to recent surveillance reforms the review also proposes a new publication regime for multi country documents Staff sees the introduction of a publication regime for a new category of multi country documents as the best way to ensure that the Fund publishes candid multilateral surveillance while respecting members' needs Similarly the modification rules for country documents will need to be adapted to take into account the implications of the Integrated Surveillance Decision ISD
