Barragán-Paladines,Nicole Franz,2017-06-10 In June 2014 FAO member states endorsed the Voluntary Guidelines for Securing Sustainable Small Scale Fisheries SSF Guidelines These Guidelines are one of the most significant landmarks for small scale fisheries around the world They are comprehensive in terms of topics covered and progressive with their foundations based on human rights and other key principles It can be anticipated that implementing the SSF Guidelines whether at local national or regional levels will be challenging This book contains in depth case studies where authors discuss the extent to which the Guidelines can help improve the realities of small scale fishing men and women globally and make their livelihoods and communities more secure This will require policy intervention and innovation along with contributions of civil society organizations and academia However most of all it will necessitate the empowerment of fishing people so that they can become active participants in decision making on matters where their well being and human rights are at stake By endorsing the SSF Guidelines states have committed themselves to support and facilitate this development

This book asks whether states can successfully walk the talk and provides advice as to how they can do so. The collection of case studies sets the platform for an interactive dialogue space for researchers, policy makers, civil society and small scale fishing communities to start the conversation about the monitoring and evaluation of the implementation of the SSF Guidelines at local, national, regional and global levels. An added value is that it helps add focus to our work as civil society activists involved in ensuring the application of the SSF Guidelines. Naseegh Jaffer, General Secretary, World Forum of Fisher People, WFFP. This collection offers many ways in which institutions enabling small scale fisheries can protect and promote sustainability, food security, customary tenure, self management and market access while fostering such benefits as ecosystem based management, protected areas, incorporation of local knowledge and poverty alleviation. You will want to put this book in the hands of policy makers and practitioners immediately and for years to come. Evelyn Pinkerton, Professor, Simon Fraser University, Canada.

Writing Backwards Alexander Manshel, 2023-11-21 Finalist 2025 SHARP Book History Book Prize Society for the Study of the History of Authorship. Reading and Publishing Contemporary fiction has never been less contemporary. Midcentury writers tended to set their works in their own moment, but for the last several decades, critical acclaim and attention have fixated on historical fiction. This shift is particularly dramatic for writers of color. Even as the literary canon has become more diverse, cultural institutions have celebrated Black, Asian, American, Latinx, and Indigenous novelists almost exclusively for their historical fiction. Writing Backwards explores what the dominance of historical fiction in the contemporary canon reveals about American literary culture. Alexander Manshel investigates the most celebrated historical genres: contemporary narratives of slavery, the World War II novel, the multigenerational family saga, immigrant fiction, and the novel of recent history, alongside the literary and academic institutions that have elevated them. He examines novels by writers including Toni Morrison, Viet Thanh Nguyen, Colson Whitehead, Julia Alvarez, Leslie Marmon Silko, Michael Chabon, Julie Otsuka, Yaa Gyasi, Ben Lerner, and Tommy Orange in the context of MFA programs, literary prizes, university syllabi, book clubs, and the National Endowment for the Arts. Manshel studies how historical fiction has evolved over the last half century, documenting the formation of the newly inclusive literary canon as well as who and what it still excludes. Offering new insight into how institutions shape literature and the limits of historical memory, Writing Backwards also considers recent challenges to the historical turn in American fiction.
