increasing teacher effectiveness and student performance Early Holistic Scoring of Writing Richard Haswell, Norbert Elliot, 2019-11-01 What is the most fair and efficient way to assess the writing performance of students Although the question gained importance during the US educational accountability movement of the 1980s and 1990s the issue had preoccupied international language experts and evaluators long before One answer to the question the assessment method known as holistic scoring is central to understanding writing in academic settings Early Holistic Scoring of Writing addresses the history of holistic essay assessment in the United Kingdom and the United States from the mid 1930s to the mid 1980s and newly conceptualizes holistic scoring by philosophically and reflectively reinterpreting the genre's origin development and significance The book chronicles holistic scoring from its initial origin in the United Kingdom to the beginning of its heyday in the United States Chapters cover little known history from the holistic scoring of school certificate examination essays written by Blitz evacuee children in Devon during WWII to teacher adaptations of holistic scoring in California schools during the 1970s Chapters detail the complications challenges and successes of holistic scoring from British high stakes admissions examinations to foundational pedagogical research by Bay Area Writing Project scholars The book concludes with lessons learned providing a guide for continued efforts to assess student writing through evidence models Exploring the possibility of actionable history Early Holistic Scoring of Writing reconceptualizes writing assessment Here is a new history that retells the origins of our present body of knowledge in writing studies Speaking Across the Curriculum, 2004 Speaking Across the Curriculum gives teachers ready made speaking and listening activities that can be infused into any curriculum Over 50 activities help teachers encourage debate and discussion and teach students speaking and listening skills Students will learn how to outline a speech build active listening skills develop a media presentation persuade an audience and speak spontaneously Activities also help students analyze and evaluate arguments and sources including web sites Science Educator's Guide to Laboratory Assessment Rodney L. Doran, 2002 The book opens with an up to date discussion of assessment theory research and uses Then comes a wealth of sample assessment activities in biology chemistry physics and Earth science Keyed to the National Science Education Standards the activities include reproducible task sheets and scoring rubrics All are ideal for helping students reflect on their own learning during science lab Human-Centered Design, Operation and Evaluation of Mobile Communications June Wei, George Margetis, 2025-06-07 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 6th International Conference on Design Operation and Evaluation of Mobile Communications MOBILE 2025 held as part of the 27th International Conference HCI International 2025 which was held in Gothenburg Sweden during June 22-27 2025 The total of 1430 papers and 355 posters included in the HCII 2025 proceedings was carefully reviewed and selected from 7972 submissions The MOBILE 2025 proceedings were organized in the following topical sections Mobile Usability Experience and Personalization Mobile Health Inclusivity and Well Being Mobile Security Protection and Risk Assessment and Mobile Applications for Culture and Social Engagement The V-chip Debate Monroe

E. Price, 2013-11-26 The V chip is a highly significant part of the discussion about whether television or broadcasting in general deserves some special attention in terms of its accessibility to children its particular power to affect conduct and its invasiveness But as this notion of filtering and labeling has caught the imagination of the regulator the legislator and all those who wish to consider new ways to alter bargaining over imagery in society the very idea of the V chip or its equivalent is moving across other technologies including the Internet The V chip issue has also fueled the ongoing debate about violence and sexual practices in society and how representations on television relate to those practices Although the initial concept of the V chip is simple its flow into the public realm raises so many extraordinary questions that the introduction and production of the chip virtually serves as a case study in problems of law and public policy The very conceptualization of speech in society is being affected by this issue Accordingly the place of the V chip in this debate is increasingly important indeed it may be argued that the V chip's contribution to legal argumentation may be greater than its ultimate contribution to the relationship between children and imagery Among the questions the contributors address are What research basis is necessary to require a framework for labeling and rating What relationship between government and the image producing industries can be characterized for constitutional and other reasons as voluntary as opposed to coercive Who should evaluate these images To what extent should the evaluation process be centralized and or distributed What assessment is appropriate to evaluate whether the experiment is successful In addition to the V chip's origin's in Canada and its further evolution in the United States this book discusses the development of the V chip and television rating systems in Europe Australia and throughout the world It also includes essays which contrast the very different approaches in Canada and the United States in terms of the role of regulatory agency industry and government
