Welcome to the Rolling Rains Report

Trying times call for trying something new!

People are asking, "Does it really have to be this uncomfortable to travel?" .

The travel & hospitality industry is sensing the spark of something new as people answer, "No, and we plan to do something about it."

Fresh thinkers are testing countless breakthrough ideas on accessible travel. They are rubbing ingenuity against continuity to enkindle a new flame.

At Rolling Rains we monitor that brush fire as it reveals ideas that are standing the test of the times.

In particular we search out examples of how Universal Design creates new travel opportunities and products that are, to quote the definition of Universal Design, usable by the widest range of people operating in the widest range of situations.

Explore as an idea whose time.

The concept of Inclusive Travel is itself traveling around the world. It is leaving an infrastructure that will allow the pleasure of world discovery to generations to come. It enables generations present to do so through all stages of their lifespan. That's the vision of Universal Design applied to tourism — Inclusive Tourism.

Follow the journey of Inclusive Tourism here at RollingRains.com

L. Bragg, 2007 Lavishly illustrated with seventy four color plates and fifty black and white photographs and drawings Never for Want of Powder tells the story of a world class munitions factory constructed by the Confederacy in 1861 the only large scale permanent building project undertaken by a government often characterized as lacking modern industrial values In this comprehensive examination of the powder works five scholars a historian physicist curator architectural historian and biographer bring their combined expertise to the task of chronicling gunpowder production during the Civil War In doing so they make a major contribution to understanding the history of wartime technology and Confederate ingenuity Early in the war President Jefferson Davis realized the Confederacy's need to supply its own gunpowder Accordingly Davis selected Col George Washington Rains to build a gunpowder factory An engineer and West Point graduate Rains relied primarily on a written pamphlet rather than on practical experience in building the powder mill yet he succeeded in designing a model of efficiency and safety He sited the facilities at Augusta Georgia because of the city's central location canal transportation access to water power railroad facilities and relative security from attack As much a story of people as of machinery Never for Want of Powder recounts the ingenuity of the individuals involved with the project A cadre of talented subordinates including Frederick Wright C Shaler Smith William Pendleton and Isadore P Girardey assisted Rains to a degree not previously appreciated by historians This volume also documents the coordinated outflow of gunpowder and ammunition and Rains's difficulty in preparing for the defense of Augusta Today a lone chimney along the Savannah River stands as the only reminder of the munitions facility that

Yeomen, Sharecroppers, and Socialists Kyle G. Wilkison,2008-10-28 As the nineteenth century ended in Hunt County Texas a way of life was dying The tightly knit fiercely independent society of the yeomen farmers plain folk as historians have often dubbed them was being swallowed up by the rising tide of a rapidly changing cotton based economy A social network based on family religion and community was falling prey to crippling debt and resulting loss of land ownership For many of the rural people of Hunt County and similar places it seemed like the end of the world In Yeomen Sharecroppers and Socialists historian Kyle G Wilkison analyzes the patterns of plain folk life and the changes that occurred during the critical four decades spanning the end of the nineteenth and the beginning of the twentieth centuries Political protest evolved in the wake of the devastating losses experienced by the poor rural majority and Wilkison carefully explores the interplay of religion and politics as Greenbackers Populists and Socialists vied for the support of the dispossessed tenant farmers and
