Northern Lights B. J. Epstein, 2009 This volume is a collection of essays based on papers given at the Nordic Translation Conference which took place in London in March 2008 The purpose of the collection is twofold First it serves to place the Nordic languages firmly into the field of translation studies where hitherto little research has focused on the Nordic region the essays include many Nordic specific studies and ideas Second the book presents research and conclusions which are relevant to translation studies in all languages and cultures Therefore this volume which covers a wide range of Nordic languages and both literary and non literary topics is unambiguously pertinent to the Nordic countries while also being universally valuable

Northern Lights Drago Jančar, 2001 Josef Erdman arrives in Maribor Slovenia on the eve of World War II Though claiming to be a salesman it soon becomes apparent that Josef has no purpose in the town and that a newcomer can expect nothing but distrust from the townspeople Maribor is full of tensions that are played out in pub brawls and in the rivalry between the Slovenes and Germans at the top of the social hierarchy Against this backdrop of ethnic hatred and personal descent Josef witnesses the fiery shimmer of the aurora borealis and imagines the town has been set aflame an omen of the coming of war

Northern Lights Byron Rempel-Burkholder, Dora Dueck, 2010-03-18 Canada is known for its wild and diverse physical geography But do Canadians have a spiritual geography an identity uniquely shaped by their land their history their people This first of its kind collection brings together writings from within the Christian heritage to help Canadians explore that question The forty six contributors include award winning literary figures religious and political leaders and social activists from one end of Canada to the other Their traditions range from evangelical to Catholic mainline Protestant to Orthodox Pentecostal to Mennonite Some still have family connections beyond Canada's borders others have ancestors who were here long before Europeans came These writers do not analyze define or argue about Christianity in Canada They simply showcase it through their memoir or poetry fiction or meditation mapping into words something of what it means to be Christian in this country The spiritual landscape they paint is diverse inspiring and provocative It s a colourful dance of words a wonderful Canadian celebration Under the Northern Lights Januarius Aloysius MacGahan,1876 Description of the voyage of the Pandora commander Captain Allen Young to Greenland and the Arctic seas in 1875 Northern Lights on the Dead Sea Scrolls Anders Klostergaard Petersen,2009 Structured by four important themes the book discusses various aspects pertaining to the interpretation of the Dead Sea Scrolls The first theme is comprised by a number of essays that deal with different aspects of textual interpretation of particular Qumran writings The second theme centers on the question of historical referentiality How can the purported referentiality of particular Qumran writings be used in order to reconstruct an underlying historical reality The third theme includes essays that pertain to different dimensions concerning the methodology of interpretation The fourth theme focuses on problems relating to the textual reconstruction of specific Qumran texts In the final section of the book the perspective is widened to other writings outside the more specific Qumran context Northern Lights Tim O'Brien,2011-11-09 A CLASSIC FROM THE NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLING AUTHOR OF THE THINGS THEY CARRIED Originally published in 1975 Tim O'Brien s debut novel demonstrates the emotional complexity and enthralling narrative tension that later earned him the National Book Award At its core is the relationship between two brothers one who went to Vietnam and one who stayed at home As the two brothers struggle against an unexpected blizzard in Minnesota s remote north woods what they discover about themselves and each other will change both of them for ever Science and Daily Life in the Study of the Northern Lights, 1898-1928 Mette Bunting,2018-12-14 The world s first Northern Lights observatory is the focus of this account about everyday life and epoch making pioneering of geophysical research on Haldde Mountain in Finnmark Norway Inside four walls in extreme weather conditions at 9000 metres above sea level the residents formed a class divided mini society with researchers assistants wives and maids This book provides an insight into eventful years of the last century Children are born photographs and measurements of the Northern Lights are taken the research develops and important people die The work conducted on Haldde Mountain resulted in a geophysical institute and weather forecasting services for Northern Norway and was the basis for the foundation of Norway s most northern university The book builds on private letters memoirs and archive material about daily life and research The Works of Gilbert Parker: Northern lights Gilbert Parker,1916 Northern Lights on PISA 2006 Tomas Matti,2009 The Next Big Thing Trends Shaping Nordic Innovation is written for people interested in and working with the issues of innovation economic development globalisation and climate change and how these issues impact on companies and industries and in national or in international settings such as Nordic co operation or the European Union The book argues that innovation needs to be measured and managed Innovation needs to be developed as a serious management discipline in order to deliver on the future expectations of investors whether these investors are from private companies or public government agencies The publication also argues that there is a need to emphasise that research is not the same as innovation and that we need to distinguish between science and the scientific method in order to develop better innovation policies and innovation management techniques In the final focus chapter on climate change the book states that the Nordic region has a strong position within some of the new energy and environment industries Yet in order to keep that position and to stay in the global vanguard of clean technologies and climate industries it might be necessary for the Nordic countries to experiment with what the authors call forced innovation The book is relevant for industry branch organisations company managers policy makers public policy professionals as well as graduate and undergraduate courses in management innovation entrepreneurship globalisation and climate change Catalog of Copyright Entries, Third Series
