Planet Climax English Edition:

Empires of Print Patrick Scott Belk, 2017-05-08 At the turn of the twentieth century the publishing industries in Britain and the United States underwent dramatic expansions and reorganization that brought about an increased traffic in books and periodicals around the world Focusing on adventure fiction published from 1899 to 1919 Patrick Scott Belk looks at authors such as Joseph Conrad H G Wells Conan Doyle and John Buchan to explore how writers of popular fiction engaged with foreign markets and readers through periodical publishing Belk argues that popular fiction particularly the adventure genre developed in ways that directly correlate with authors experiences and shows that popular genres of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries emerged as one way of marketing their literary works to expanding audiences of readers worldwide Despite an over determined print space altered by the rise of new kinds of consumers and transformations of accepted habits of reading publishing and writing the changes in British and American publishing at the turn of the twentieth century inspired an exciting new period of literary invention and experimentation in the adventure genre and the greater part of that invention and experimentation was happening in the magazines

Conflicted Power in Malawian Christianity Fiedler, Klaus, 2015-12-01 The volume constitutes Klaus Fiedler s crowning contribution to scholarship Essays in the first half of the book focus on Malawian Christianity and how contrasting Powers Gospel and Secular engage each other creating social political and cultural conflict in the process In the second half Fiedler examines general missiological themes These essays provide a broader missiological background offering a theoretical framework necessary for appreciating the essays in the first half He concludes with a chapter that reviews selected seminal books on themes under study Throughout the volume Fiedler applies the restorationist revival theory he constructed in The Story of Faith Missions an earlier 1994 work putting emphasis on non classical missions and churches not systematically covered in earlier scholarship This volume the first of its kind on Malawian Christianity will long remain an indispensable text for those interested in Missiology and Malawian Christianity
