Reading Textbooks For Elementary School:

What Children Read in School Sara Goodman Zimet, 1972 Reading in the Elementary School George Daniel Spache, Evelyn B. Spache, 1975 Textbooks in School and Society Arthur Woodward, David L. Elliot, Kathleen Carter Nagel, 2013-08-21 Textbooks have been standard schoolroom fixtures for as long as most living citizens of this country can remember. Many turn of the century students were introduced to reading through the moralistic McGuffey Readers and struggled through the rather drab and colorless pages of volumes on history, geography, and civics. In contrast, today's textbooks contain not only narrative content accompanied by colorful photographs and graphics but also section and chapter exercises that are extended through the use of worksheets and other materials. Moreover, the textbook and its related student materials are packaged together with teacher's editions and tests in grade level sets that amount to content area programs rather than mere texts.

Teaching Reading in Today's Elementary Schools Betty Roe, Sandra H. Smith, Nancy J. Kolodziej, 2018-02-08 TEACHING READING IN TODAY'S ELEMENTARY SCHOOLS sets the standard for reading instruction to ensure that aspiring teachers are able to help students learn the mechanics of word recognition, how to comprehend what they read, and enjoy the process. The book advocates a balanced approach to reading, presenting newer approaches with more traditional approaches that have proven value, such as phonics, vocabulary instruction, and strategies for literal and higher order comprehension. Practices are featured such as use of recent technologies for literacy learning, varying approaches with attention to dealing with the many types of diverse learners in today's classrooms, and use of close reading techniques with appropriate materials to enhance the learning experience. New chapters are devoted to diversity and fluency. Praxis CCSS and edTPA assistance is also incorporated. Important Notice: Media content referenced within the product description or the product text may not be available in the ebook version.

Characters in Textbooks Jeana Wirtenberg, Robin Murez, Rose Ann Alspektor, 1980 The Elementary School Journal, 1918 Teaching Reading in Today's Elementary Schools Betty D. Roe, Sandy H. Smith, 2011 This market leading text sets the standard for reading instruction to ensure that aspiring teachers are able to help students learn not only how to recognize words but also how to comprehend what they read and enjoy the process. The book balances new approaches to reading such as language arts integration and emergent literacy, literacy as a continuum with more traditional foundations of strong skills and phonics instruction. Updates to the Eleventh Edition include discussion of the latest technology for literacy learning, how writing instruction impacts literacy learning, and recent movements in literacy assessment.
