

Opening Statement

This is a regular open meeting of LifeRing Secular Recovery. LifeRing is a self-help support group for all people who want to get and stay clean and sober.

We feel that in order to remain in recovery, we have to make sobriety the top priority in our lives. By sobriety, we mean complete abstinence from alcohol and other addictive drugs.

Out of respect for people of all faiths and none, we conduct our meetings in a secular way, which means that, during this hour, we do not use prayer or talk about religion. We rely in our recovery on our own efforts and on the help of the group members and other friends.

Everything that we share at this meeting is completely confidential and stays in this room. If you are under the influence of alcohol or drugs now, we ask that you maintain silence at this meeting. You may speak with members afterward.

The meeting format is flexible. We generally begin by checking in and talking about the highlights and heartaches of our past week in recovery, and what we plan to do to stay clean and sober in the coming week.

We encourage cross-talk throughout the meeting. By cross-talk we mean questions and positive, supportive feedback. Positive experiences from your own recovery are welcome. Please allow enough time for everyone to participate by limiting your speaking time if necessary.

If this is your first time at this meeting of LifeRing -- Welcome. Please introduce yourself by your first name. If you would like, tell us how long you have been in recovery and then tell us about your past week and your coming week in recovery. If you would like to know more about the LifeRing approach, we have LifeRing books and handouts available here.

Thank you.

Sample Of Opening Statements For Job Interview:

Use Your Head to Get Your Foot in the Door Harvey Mackay, 2011-01-04 Harvey Mackay hits the bull's eye. An important book for important times in our lives. The Shark Man at his very best. Larry King. Harvey Mackay returns with the ultimate book on how to get and keep a job you truly love, whether you're twenty-one, fifty-one, or seventy-one. In this era of downsizing and outsourcing, you can never be sure your job will still exist in five years or five weeks. So you'd better think of your career as a perpetual job search. That demands a passion for lifetime learning and the skills for relentless and effective networking. Uplifting, amusing, and jam-packed with proven tips, Use Your Head to Get Your Foot in the Door will guide you through the toughest job market in decades. It's also the definitive A to Z career resource for the rest of your life. I Hate Job

Interviews Sam Owens, 2024-06-04 For anyone wanting to elevate their interview skills, this superb book does the job. STEPHEN M. R. COVEY, New York Times bestselling author of The Speed of Trust. Go into your next job interview with confidence, ready to knock any question they throw at you out of the park. The key to landing that dream job or big promotion often comes down to how you perform in the job interview. After bombing some interviews early in his career, Sam Owens vowed that would never happen to him again and began work on a system to ensure he was ready for even the most oddball questions in future interviews. The system he developed proved so successful, Sam built a career coaching business around teaching it to others and has now coached thousands of people on how to prepare for interviews. In I Hate Job Interviews, Sam shares his proven methodology and provides simple frameworks and demonstrations on how to answer any type of job interview question. Using this proven system, job candidates will gain confidence in answering introductory, behavioral, hypothetical, opinion, personal, think-on-your-feet, salary, and self-awareness questions. You will learn how to craft powerful examples to show how your skills align perfectly with the job you are applying for. To conduct practice interviews so you are ready when the big day arrives. To make a big first impression with that first question. To tell compelling stories that clearly demonstrate your abilities. Simple strategies and frameworks to nail hypothetical and scenario questions. Salary negotiation skills to maximize your job offer. How to Say It Job Interviews
