Childhood as Memory, Myth and Metaphor Catherine Crimp, 2017-12-02 A fascination with childhood unites the artist Louise Bourgeois 1911 2010 and the writers Samuel Beckett 1906 89 and Marcel Proust 1871 1922 But while many commentators have traced their childhood images back to memories of lived experiences there is more to their mythologies of childhood that waits to be explored They invite us to move away from familiar ideas whether psychological or biographical about what a child can represent and even what a child is The haunting child figures of Bourgeois Beckett and Proust echo each other as they show how imagining origins for a life for a work of art involves paradoxes that test the limits of our forms of expression Art meets literature profusion meets concision French meets English and images of childhood reveal new insights in this encounter between three great figures of twentieth and twenty first century culture Catherine Crimp holds a PhD from the University of Cambridge and is currently Lectrice d'anglais at the Ecole Normale Supérieure de Lyon

Beckett and Nature Charles Clements, Eleanor Green, James Martell, 2025-07-10 New analyses on the insightful ways in which Beckett's work actively engages with contested notions of Nature and the natural developing a radical version of modernism's main questions and insights Beckett and Nature takes its cue from contemporary developments in Beckett scholarship focused on ecocriticism posthumanism and the Anthropocene going beyond them into a questioning of the very concepts of Nature and the natural It examines one of the most unthought ontological dimensions of literature and life that symbolic space deemed natural or part of Nature appears necessary and undeniable and therefore impossible to be deconstructed In doing so the authors show that in fact this space takes on many shapes recognizing three natural dimensions criticized by Beckett bodies worlds and literatures Featuring a wide range of both Beckett's work and Beckett scholars including Jean Michel Rabat and Stanley E Gontarski Beckett and Nature offers contextualized readings of the understandings of nature and the natural throughout his decade spanning oeuvre The volume shows that part of the radicality of Beckett's writing is that through a variety of evolving techniques and strategies it questions what appears in our cultures as the most unquestionable and opens up possibilities for thinking not only what is human literature and philosophy but also gender identity and any attempt at definitions of ourselves or the world at large Beckett Writing Beckett H. Porter Abbott, 2019-01-24 Suppose that before he is writing fiction before he is writing drama before he is writing any of the autonomous highly polished pieces that make up his life work Beckett is writing Beckett What follows from this In Beckett Writing Beckett H Porter Abbott argues that by the time he had written Waiting for Godot Beckett's art had crystallized as a life project keyed to the simultaneous action of writing and reading the self How does such an interpretive shift change the way we see the salient features of Beckett's art his extraordinary and persistent assaults on narrative his restless exploration of genres and media his attempts to exercise autocratic control over performance and publication his increasingly musical formal structures his tireless capacity to invent How moreover does this view relate to the contempt for autobiography so pervasive in Beckett's work In approaching these questions Beckett Writing Beckett seeks to redirect current discussion of such concepts as the author and originality Arguing on several widely contested fronts in Beckett criticism including such vexed issues as Beckett's postmodernism his politics and his relation to his audience Abbott develops an interpretive method grounded in the concept of autographical action The method allows Abbott to articulate the centrality of the inexhaustible strangeness of Beckett's work and to do so without robbing that strangeness of its power to surprise Modernism Melba Cuddy-Keane, Adam Hammond, Alexandra Peat, 2014-02-05 Guided by the historical semantics developed in Raymond Williams' pioneering study of cultural vocabulary Modernism Keywords presents a series of short entries on words used with frequency and urgency in written modernism tracking cultural and literary debates and transformative moments of change Short listed for The Modernist Studies Association 2015 Book Prize for an Edition Anthology or Essay Collection Highlights and exposes the salient controversies and changing cultural thought at the heart of modernism Goes beyond constructions of plural modernisms to reveal all modernist writing as overlapping and interactive in a simultaneous and interlocking mix Draws from
