Dahmani, V. Guirardel, D. Osin, 2017-01-18 The authors introduce and study the notions of hyperbolically embedded and very rotating families of subgroups The former notion can be thought of as a generalization of the peripheral structure of a relatively hyperbolic group while the latter one provides a natural framework for developing a geometric version of small cancellation theory Examples of such families naturally occur in groups acting on hyperbolic spaces including hyperbolic and relatively hyperbolic groups mapping class groups and the Cremona group Other examples can be found among groups acting geometrically on spaces fundamental groups of graphs of groups etc The authors obtain a number of general results about rotating families and hyperbolically embedded subgroups although their technique applies to a wide class of groups it is capable of producing new results even for well studied particular classes For instance the authors solve two open problems about mapping class groups and obtain some results which are new even for relatively hyperbolic groups Pre-Service and In-Service Teacher Education: Concepts, Methodologies, Tools, and Applications Management Association, Information Resources, 2018-11-02 As with any industry the education sector goes through frequent changes due to modern technological advancements It is every educator's duty to keep up with these shifting requirements and alter their teaching style to best fit the needs of their classroom Pre-Service and In-Service Teacher Education Concepts Methodologies Tools and Applications explores the current state of pre-service teacher programs as well as continuing education initiatives for in-service educators

After the Education Wars Andrea Gabor, 2018-06-12 The education wars have been demoralizing for teachers After the Education Wars helps us to see a better way forward Cathy N Davidson The New York Times Book Review After the Education Wars is an important book that points the way to genuine reform Diane Ravitch author of Reign of Error and The Death and Life of the Great American School System A bestselling business journalist critiques the top down approach of popular education reforms and profiles the unexpected success of schools embracing a nimbler more democratic entrepreneurialism In an entirely fresh take on school reform business journalist and bestselling author Andrea Gabor argues that Bill Gates Eli Broad and other leaders of the prevailing education reform movement have borrowed all the wrong lessons from the business world After the Education Wars explains how the market based measures and carrot and stick incentives informing today's reforms are out of sync with the nurturing culture that good schools foster and contrary to popular belief at odds with the best practices of thriving twenty first century companies as well These rich detailed stories of real reform in action illustrate how enduring change must be deeply collaborative and relentlessly focused on improvement from the grass roots up lessons also learned from both the open source software and quality movements The good news is that solutions born of this philosophy are all around us from Brockton Massachusetts where the state's once failing largest high school now sends most graduates to college to Leander Texas a large district where school improvement spurred by the ideas of quality guru W Edwards Deming has become a way of life A welcome exception to the doom and gloom canon of education reform After the Education Wars makes clear that what's needed is not more grand ideas but practical and informed ways to grow the best ones that are already transforming schools

Discrimination based on Colour, Ethnic Origin, Language, Religion and Belief in Turkey's Education System Nurcan Kaya,2015-10-27 The Turkish government is urged to make a fundamental shift in its approach to education by Minority Rights Group International MRG in a new report A long standing focus on state building has been supplemented by increasing emphasis on religious teaching Both feature strongly in the education system in Turkey making schools a focus of discrimination The report Discrimination based on Colour Ethnic Origin Language Religion and Belief in Turkey's Education System reveals evidence of discrimination of minority groups and suggests comprehensive reforms to effectively ensure equality The national education system which for decades aimed to create young Turkish nationalists has in recent years become a vehicle for raising young religious Turkish nationalists says Nurcan Kaya Turkey Coordinator of Minority Rights Group International Religious education is compulsory from grade four in primary schools While some information on world religions has been introduced the emphasis remains on teaching Sunni Muslim religious practices Children of Jewish and Christian families may apply to opt out but the process can be cumbersome and in many schools alternatives are not provided for them Non Muslim students who have opted out can still find themselves having to remain in the religious instruction class or alternatively having to wander in the school corridor making them vulnerable to taunts from pupils and even teachers The opt out possibility is still not available to children of other minorities Another issue is mother tongue education In 2012 a new elective on the living languages and dialects in Turkey was introduced but due to various limitations minorities remain marginalised others in the education system Subsequent to the 2012 reform the report monitors discrimination in the formal education system in the period of the academic year of 2014 2015 The findings are based on the field work of the Monitoring Discrimination in Education Network an alliance of 16 organizations working in Turkey The report compiles numerous cases of discrimination based on language religion ethnicity skin colour and the level of income In order to bring about a fundamental solution to these problems in the education system the government must prioritise developing an approach that sees all groups as equal and that responds to demands for rights based on such an understanding of equality says Kaya The report highlights that Turkey has no anti discrimination law or an equality commission to which victims of discrimination can apply The existing legislation contains no effective and accessible means of judicial remedies or compensation Therefore many discriminatory practices are not reported to school administrations The entire education system is based on Turkishness Non Turkish groups are either not referred to or referred in a negative way says Kaya Education system has played a significant role in deepening conflict in society The positive representation of other groups in the education system would contribute to social peace and harmony In order to resolve the many problems in the education system that the current approach causes the overall aim of government education policy should be cleared of ideological references and the protection of children s best interests and the right to education in line with international standards should be considered its fundamental goal says the report
