W. Earle,2015-06-15 Excerpt from More Pot Pourri From a Surrey Garden September 1st 1898 It is now a year and a half since I finished my first book and the public have been almost as appreciative and generous in their praise of it as my nieces were Kind letters of all sorts have poured in and I have been overwhelmed with suggestions about the future and what I should or should not do Some have said and I admit that these in all friendliness are the most earnest in their heartfelt appeals that I should rest on my laurels and write no more They urge that a second book always falls flat If on the same subject as the first it is generally a failure If on a new subject it is apt to be outside the writer s experience And then they quote several incontestable examples which jump to the recollection of everybody I really agree with this view of the case up to the point of not acting upon it Nothing can ever bear being done a second time This is one of the sadnesses of life and I do not for a moment anticipate that No 2 can please in the same kind of way as did No 1 About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst
