starting a new school are each explored within the framework of a loving and caring God's willingness and ability to comfort and save. The children in the stories serve as a model for Christian fellowship as they commiserate, share the gospel, and support one another to trust in the LORD and depend on Jesus as their Savior. Along with the beautifully illustrated pages, each fictional story includes a study companion loaded with facts and information and a Test Your Knowledge section that hopes to extend the learning that the stories spark. Included as well are several activity options that will inspire an application of the gleaned biblical knowledge and an opportunity for families to share together a deeper knowledge and appreciation for the LORD God's majestic creation. For God's older children, the Salvation Spotlight, a correlating Bible study and related lesson plan is included to scaffold a deeper understanding of the gospel and may provide a time of worship and pleasure in God's Word for you as you prepare to share the stories with your children, grandchildren, or students. Here in Grace's Garden, sisters Grace and Faith will, along with their family and friends, grow up into Christ by beholding and adoring Him. Young readers will hear and explore the gospel of Jesus Christ, the grace of a loving and patient God, and will contemplate His awesome might as it is seen in His majestically created world. The series offers an opportunity for parents, grandparents, siblings, and/or teachers to present the gospel as God's story of love, unity, and relationship, a story into which God has written each of us.

Northern Harvest Erita Brady Hill, 2020-05-05. Pays tribute to the women behind the local sustainable and quality foods of northwestern Michigan. Northern Harvest Twenty Michigan Women in Food and Farming looks at the female culinary pioneers who have put northern Michigan on the map for food, drink, and farming. Erita Brady Hill interviews women who share their own stories of becoming the cooks, bakers, chefs, and farmers that they are today, each even sharing a delicious recipe or two. These stories are as important to tracing the gastronomic landscape in America as they are to honoring the history, agriculture, and community of Michigan. Divided into six sections, Northern Harvest celebrates very different women who converged in an important region of Michigan and helped transform it into the flourishing culinary Eden it is today. Hill speaks with orchardists and farmers about planting their own fruit trees and making the decision to transition their farms over to organic. She hears from growers who have been challenged by the northern climate and have made exclusive use of fair trade products in their business. Readers are introduced to the first ever cheesemaker in the Leelanau area and a pastry chef who is doing it all from scratch. Readers also get a sneak peek into the origins of Traverse City institutions such as Folgarelli's Market and Wine Shop and Trattoria Stella. Hill catches up with local cookbook authors and nationally known food writers. She interviews the founder of two historic homesteads that introduce visitors to a way of living many of us only know from history books. These oral histories allow each woman to tell her story as she chooses, in her own words, with her own emphasis and her own discretion or indiscretions. Northern Harvest is a celebration of northern Michigan's rich culinary tradition and the women who made it so. Hungry readers will swallow this book whole.
