Read the following passage on advertising and answer the multiple-choice questions that follow.

The influence of advertising

1. Advertising was usually seen to make people aware of the goods available in the market. It was as simple as announcing what you had or what was on the menu you offer in your premises. Over the years, advertising has evolved into a major industry that goes beyond informing, or persuading and influencing. It is a form of persuading consumers.

2. Advertising has become a type of culture with strict protocols in the process. It attracts consumer attention from manufacturers and service providers who have an edge over their competitors. Unfortunately, in keeping with the ever-increasing demand of the manufacturers, the advertisers have resorted to creating consumer needs and create competition in most of us. This is a marketing for harmful products that we are better off without. It goes on our minds, entering us completely unnoticed. The advertisers (promoters), advertisers and other advertisers target us from a very early age, turning us into the world as we grow into adults.

3. The reason that the media are primarily in place for good or bad is that very true. If the truth may be told, the media are there to gather a large enough audience, perhaps there is a price community and sell it to the advertisers. The advertisers, on the other hand, pay charges on the basis of a target audience to persuade them that the product or service is better than that of the competition.

4. In a nutshell, advertising does influence people about all the advertisements are filled with images that create emotional and being with material association and create independence and success with consumption of objects. Advertising also makes people forget their effect on products other than real people. Media advertising media relationships. The media media media in the world of advertising where products like brands
