Chambers, Loni Crumb, 2020-11-09 Despite comprising the largest minority in rural settings the literature to date largely subsumes African American rural students into a broader set of students with a primarily urban focus This volume focuses on the higher education pathways of rural African American students and highlights their experiences in US colleges and universities

Break the Stigma: Autism Nichole E Scheerer ,April Hargreaves ,Catalina Sau Man Ng ,Matthew Daniel Lerner, 2024-12-17 While awareness of neurodiversity and specific forms of neurodivergence such as autism has increased over the last few years autism stigma and prejudice against autistic people remains a critical issue that warrants further attention and investigation The experience of stigma and prejudice such as discriminatory actions and attitudes towards autistic individuals on both a personal and public level can have many negative impacts across one's lifetime These experiences can lead people on the autism spectrum and their families to avoid seeking help which can delay diagnosis and access to supportive services of not only autism itself but also co occurring physical and psychological health needs Prejudiced beliefs against autistic people may lead to many forms of discrimination including but not limited to medical education and employment discrimination These attitudes can be built into society at a systemic level and influence policies that govern access to supports and our communities Additionally autism stigma and prejudice against autistic people such as stereotypical portrayals of autistic people in media and the language we use to describe autistic people can be invalidating to a person's autistic identity and to autistic culture Further the impacts of stigma and prejudice can be internalized by autistic individuals which may not only have poor effects on their wellbeing but also increase the want and or need to mask or camouflage to pass as non autistic Masking or camouflaging can reduce a person's sense of belonging self esteem sense of self worth and close relationships all of which are associated with poor outcomes It can also lead to avoidance of opportunities such as connection with other autistic individuals that could increase quality of life This Research Topic aims to showcase evidence on why the stigma surrounding autism and the prejudice against autistic people are so detrimental It hopes to provide insights into research and interventions on how stigma and prejudice can be tackled as well as awareness understanding and acceptance raised in the hope that the research presented will translate to best practice applications in clinical public health policy and community settings We invite researchers to submit a range of articles including but not limited to original research articles reviews meta analyses opinions perspectives and case reports to provide new evidence on the following Harmful impacts of stigma and prejudice on autistic people Interventions on reducing stigma surrounding and prejudice against autistic people Health promotion in autism i e approaches that increase the mental and physical well being of autistic people Interventions targeted at increasing understanding of autism and neurodiversity as well as increasing acceptance and advocacy of as well as allyship with autistic people Examining intersectionality in autism stigma and or prejudice towards autistic people of diverse backgrounds The

Palgrave Handbook of Educational Leadership and Management Discourse Fenwick W. English, 2022-10-13 This Handbook explores the discourse within the field of educational leadership and management It provides a clear analysis of the current field as well as older foundational ideas and newer concepts which are beginning to permeate the discussion The field of educational leadership and management has long acknowledged that educational contexts include a variety of leaders beyond school principals and other school officials such as informal and middle level leaders By looking at the knowledge dynamic rather than a static knowledge base this Handbook allows research to be presented in its multidimensional evolving reality

Hyper Education Pawan Dhingra, 2021-09-07 An up close look at the education arms race of after school learning academic competitions and the perceived failure of even our best schools to educate children Beyond soccer leagues music camps and drama lessons today's youth are in an education arms race that begins in elementary school In Hyper Education Pawan Dhingra uncovers the growing world of high achievement education and the after school learning centers spelling bees and math competitions that it has spawned It is a world where immigrant families vie with other Americans to be at the head of the class putting in hours of studying and testing in order to gain a foothold in the supposed meritocracy of American public education A world where enrichment centers like Kumon have seen 194 percent growth since 2002 and target children as young as three Even families and teachers who avoid after school academics are getting swept up Drawing on over 100 in depth interviews with teachers tutors principals children and parents Dhingra delves into the why people participate in this phenomenon and examines how schools families and communities play their part Moving past Tiger Mom stereotypes he addresses why Asian American and white families practice what he calls hyper education and whether or not it makes sense By taking a behind the scenes look at the Scripps National Spelling Bee other national competitions and learning centers Dhingra shows why good schools good grades and good behavior are seen as not enough for high achieving students and their parents and why the education arms race is likely to continue to expand

Winner of the 2024 RUSA Outstanding Reference Award This book introduces students to African American innovators and their contributions to art entertainment sports politics religion business and popular culture While the achievements of such individuals as Barack Obama Toni Morrison and Thurgood Marshall are well known many accomplished African Americans have been largely forgotten or deliberately erased from the historical record in America This volume introduces students to those African Americans whose successes in entertainment business sports politics and other fields remain poorly understood Dr Charles Drew whose pioneering research on blood transfusions saved thousands of lives during World War II Mae Jemison an engineer who in 1992 became the first African American woman to travel in outer space and Ethel Waters the first African American to star in her own television show are among those chronicled in Forgotten African American Firsts With nearly 150 entries across 17 categories this book has been carefully curated to showcase the inspiring stories of African Americans whose hard work courage and talent have led the course of history in the United States and around the world Race,

Education and Educational Leadership in England Paul Miller,Christine Callender,2019-04-18 In recent years the issue of race in education in the UK have been submerged in wider discourses of diversity leading to an invisibility of the quotidian experiences of marginalised peoples in educational institutions Race Education and Educational Leadership in England looks at how the experiences of black and ethnic minority BME students and academics in education has changed and investigates how the implementation of current policies on race equality are being monitored by the government The contributors take an integrated approach looking at issues and themes that occur across all educational phases in England and draw on expertise from within and outside the education system The editors highlight areas of weakness and good practice in access curriculum progression and the lived experience This book makes a compelling argument for why race equality matters in England s education system Race Lessons Prentice T. Chandler,Todd S. Hawley,2017-05-01 We hold that the mission of social studies is not attainable without attention to the ways in which race and racism play out in society past present and future In a follow up to the book Doing Race in Social Studies 2015 this new volume addresses practical considerations of teaching about race within the context of history geography government economics and the behavioral sciences Race Lessons Using Inquiry to Teach About Race in Social Studies addresses the space between the theoretical and the practical and provides teachers and teacher educators with concrete lesson ideas for how to engage learners with social studies content and race Oftentimes social studies teachers do not teach about race because of several factors teacher fear personal notions of colorblindness and attachment to multicultural narratives that stress assimilation This volume will begin to help teachers and teacher educators start the conversation around realistic and practical race pedagogy The chapters included in this volume are written by prominent social studies scholars and classroom teachers This work is unique in that it represents an attempt to use Critical Race Theory and inquiry pedagogy Inquiry Design Model to teach about race in the social science disciplines
