Think it out

Question 1:

What do you notice about the beginning and the ending of the poem?

Answer 1:

There is a similarity in the beginning and end of the poem because there was peace and silence even before the arrival of the goldfinch and even after it flew away. Only in the middle of poem when the goldfinch came, there was no peace on the tree and the tree was echoing with the sounds of birds.

Question 2:

To what is the bird's movement compared? What is the basis for the comparison?

Answer 2:

The movement of the bird is compared with the lizard as the lizard attacks and eats its prey. This movement is like some fractions of seconds. Birds also come quickly to the tree where they have built their nests, feed the young and quickly fly back into the sky.

Question 3:

Why is the image of the engine evoked by the poet?

Answer 3:

There can be two reasons for this. The finch is like head of the family who drives its family like an engine pulls a motor car and the family members enjoy the journey sitting in that car. Similarly the goldfinch goes out to collect the feed and its children wait for it in the nest. Secondly, when it comes on laburnum tree, the noise on the tree is also the engine.

Question 4:

What do you like most about the poem?

Answer 4:

We like the bond of love between goldfinch and their babies. Those babies waiting entire day in nest for their mother and the finch bird flying around for feed in the sun shows their undying love for each other.

Question 5:

What does the phrase "her barred face identity mask" mean?

Answer 5:

The phrase "her barred face identity mask" refers to the appearance of the goldfinch bird. The bird's body is yellow in color while its face has stripes. Though the bird can hide itself in yellow laburnum tree, its striped face can only identify its presence on the tree.
