District Proficiency Test

1) Reading Comprehension

a) Vocabulary

- i) Description of Content: Questions in the vocabulary section require you to identify the word whose meaning is similar (synonym) or opposite (antonym) to that of the target word.
- ii) Sample Question:
Choose the word that is MOST similar in meaning to the underlined word.

despondent

- A) disheartened*
- B) cheerful
- C) focused
- D) attentive

The correct answer is A. Both despondent and disheartened refer to a loss of morale, a sense of discouragement, or loss of spirit.

b) Reading Comprehension

- i) Description of Content: Questions on the reading comprehension section contain a paragraph or passage that you must read in order to determine the main idea or meaning of the content. Some correct responses will be based on the literal statements contained within the paragraph, while others will require you to infer the response that best expresses the meaning of the paragraph.

Most paragraphs have one sentence that states the author's main idea about the topic. This topic sentence acts as a transition between a paragraph's subject and its details. It is more specific than just a subject, and more general than the details.

A topic sentence typically has two functions:

- It unifies the paragraph by stating one main idea.
- It organizes the details presented in the paragraph.

To identify a topic sentence, ask yourself questions about the topic and the details of the paragraph.

- What is the entire paragraph about? (the subject)
- What information about the subject is provided? (details)
- What do the details tell you about the subject? What conclusions can be drawn? (The topic sentence)

Once you have identified the topic sentence and understand the main point of the paragraph, you are ready to select a response. To select the best and most appropriate response, you should ask yourself which response option:

1. expresses the main point?
2. can be inferred by the passage?
3. describes the purpose of the passage?

Collateral Damage Sharon L. Nichols, David C. Berliner, 2007-03-01 Drawing on their extensive research Nichols and Berliner document and categorize the ways that high stakes testing threatens the purposes and ideals of the American education system For more than a decade the debate over high stakes testing has dominated the field of education This passionate and provocative book provides a fresh perspective on the issue and powerful ammunition for opponents of high stakes tests Their analysis is grounded in the application of Campbell's Law which posits that the greater the social consequences associated with a quantitative indicator such as test scores the more likely it is that the indicator itself will become corrupted and the more likely it is that the use of the indicator will corrupt the social processes it was intended to monitor Nichols and Berliner illustrate both aspects of this corruption showing how the pressures of high stakes testing erode the validity of test scores and distort the integrity of the education system Their analysis provides a coherent and comprehensive intellectual framework for the wide ranging arguments against high stakes testing while putting a compelling human face on the data marshalled in support of those arguments
