Zimbabwe: Mired in Transition Masunungure, Eldred V., Shumba, Jabusile M., 2014-04-03 Three years after the advent of Zimbabwe's Inclusive Government in February 2009 the country still awaits the elections that people hope will lead to a more enduring political settlement Zimbabwe Mired in Transition reviews the experience of recent years assesses the progress that has been made What is the public mood and how has it changed What steps have been taken to reform the media How important is a new constitution Although the economy has stabilised to some extent with the adoption of a multi currency regime industrial and agricultural production are depressed and investment inflows are limited what spaces exist for fiscal reform Are local authority structures and the state bureaucracy equipped to handle the tasks that will be asked of them In terms of two important areas the book extends its analysis further back than 2009 First is the issue of emigration Estimates of the number of Zimbabweans in the diaspora range from three to four million what impact is this having on national development and to what extent might the trend of migration be reversed The second concerns young people the chapter on which concludes We already have a lost generation those who were once called the born frees Unless positive changes are made we will still have another This collection of eleven essays examines in detail some of the pressing questions which Zimbabweans must ask as they chart a way forward

The History and Political Transition of Zimbabwe Sabelo J. Ndlovu-Gatsheni, Pedzisai Ruhanya, 2020-10-21 This book is the first to tackle the difficult and complex politics of transition in Zimbabwe with deep historical analysis Its focus is on a very problematic political culture that is proving very hard to transcend At the center of this culture is an unstable but resilient nationalist military alliance crafted during the anti colonial liberation struggle in the 1970s Inevitably violence misogyny and masculinity are constitutive of the political culture Economically speaking the culture is that of a bureaucratic parasitic primitive accumulation and corruption which include invasion and emptying of state coffers by a self styled Chimurenga aristocracy However this Chimurenga aristocracy is not cohesive as the politics that led to Robert Mugabe's ousting from power was preceded by dirty and protracted internal factionalism At the center of the factional politics was the first family Robert Mugabe and his wife Grace Mugabe This book offers a multidisciplinary examination of the complex contemporary politics in Zimbabwe taking seriously such issues as gender misogyny militarism violence media identity modes of accumulation the ethnicization of politics attempts to open lines of credit and FDI national healing and the national question as key variables not only of a complete political culture but also of difficult transitional politics

Hope Deferred Peter Orner, Annie Holmes, 2015-10-01 The situation in Zimbabwe represents one of the worst humanitarian emergencies today This book asks the question How did a country with so much promise a stellar education system a growing middle class a sophisticated economic infrastructure a liberal constitution an independent judiciary and many of the trappings of Western democracy go so wrong In their own words Zimbabweans recount their experiences of losing their homes land livelihoods and families as a direct result of political violence They describe being tortured in detention firebombed at work or beaten up or raped to punish votes for the opposition Those forced to flee to neighboring countries recount their escapes cutting through fences swimming across crocodile infested rivers and entrusting themselves to human smugglers This book includes Zimbabweans of every age class and political conviction from farm laborers to academics doctors to artists opposition leaders to ordinary Zimbabweans men and women simply trying to survive as a once thriving nation heads for collapse

Language Matters in Contemporary Zimbabwe Collen Sabao, Esther Mavengano, 2024-06-17 Speaking to a broader global preoccupation with the state of languages and language development

this book considers issues surrounding the diverse languages linguistic communities and cultures of Zimbabwe Reflecting on Shona Xitsonga Sotho Xhosa Tjwao Nambya IsiNdebele Nyanja Tshivenda English and Braille the book uncovers both the internal and external factors that impact language structures language use and language ideologies across the country The book considers how colonial legacies and contemporary language domination and minoritisation have led to language endangerment It considers the fate of communities whose languages are marginalised and in the process poses questions on what can and should be done to preserve Zimbabwean languages The authors offerings range across subjects as diverse as music linguistic innovation education human rights literature language politics and language policy in order to build a rich and nuanced picture of language matters in the country Coming at a critical moment of increasing mobility migration cultural plurality and globalisation this book will be an important resource for researchers across African literature linguistics communication policy and politics

The Dynamics of Bride Price in Zimbabwe and the UK Diaspora Ottis Mubaiwa, 2020-10-06 The tradition of Bride Price has been at the heart of marriage for many centuries in numerous cultures across the globe The Dynamics of Bride Price presents new research data from Zimbabwe and the UK highlighting the transnational dimension of the practice its diversity in different contexts and across generations and its influence on the structure of gender relationships and inequalities The transnational element of its investigation into the institution and traditions of African marriage sets this book apart from existing study and offers its readers a nuanced and complex understanding of the perceptions and experiences of Bride Price across diverse contexts This original contribution will be of great interest to those studying and teaching courses on Gender and Development as well as researchers and policymakers of cultural practices

Resuscitation of African Languages Isaac Mhute, Zilibele Mtumane, Vimbai Moreblessing Matiza, 2025-03-15 This book argues the case for indigenous African languages which have been stripped of their importance and are now often overshadowed both officially through governmental language policies and informally through attitudes and ideologies by former colonial languages The authors present case studies from a range of countries in the region arguing that languages tell us peoples identities and that by dropping their own languages in favour of foreign and imperialist languages they lose their culture history and identity as well The book addresses many of the challenges currently associated with African languages with the intention of influencing policy and practice in favour of their resuscitation This book will be of interest to policy makers academics and tertiary students in fields including Language Policy and Planning Language Revitalisation Heritage Language Learning Indigenous and Endangered Languages and Language Attitudes and Ideologies

Language, Vernacular Discourse and Nationalisms Finex Ndhlovu, 2018-03-15 This book examines the linguistic and discursive elements of social and economic policies and national political leader statements to read new meanings into debates on border protection national sovereignty immigration economic indigenisation land reform and black economic empowerment It adds a fresh angle to the debate on nationalisms and transnationalism by pushing forward a more applied agenda to establish a clear and empirically based illustration of the contradictions in current policy frameworks around the world and the debates they invite The author s novel vernacular discourse approach contributes new points of method and interpretation that will advance scholarly conversations on nationalisms transnationalism and other forms of identity imaginings in a transient world

Membering the Rhodesian Linguistic Agenda in Zimbabwe Isaac Mhute,2023-07-28 Membering the Rhodesian Linguistic Agenda in Zimbabwe reports on a study carried out in Zimbabwe to ascertain the degree and effect of honouring the colonial linguistic agenda The book employs an interpretivist philosophy and qualitative research approach that relies on participatory observations interviewing purposively sampled informants and focus group discussions involving snowball sampled graduates It was inspired by the Critical Language Policy Theory that considers language choice a critical determinant factor in how communities are administered politically economically socioculturally and educationally It establishes that whereas linguistic imperialism meant to serve as the lifeblood of the Southern Rhodesian colonial machine the former coloniser ensured coloniality in Zimbabwe by presenting the English language as a sacred media in political economic sociocultural and educational settings forever The study establishes that the only way Zimbabwe and other such post colonies could find redemption is by eradicating the sacredness of former colonisers languages by adding value to all their languages and the indigenous knowledge systems associated with them It also demonstrates that the bigger the delay the more is irretrievably lost together with custodians of the languages This book will be informative for undergraduates postgraduates and researchers in linguistics communication sociology anthropology and history It may also serve well as a resource to government researchers politicians and other policymakers

Civil Society in Zimbabwe Mandlenkosi Mpofu,Dion Nkomo,Kirk Helliker,2025-09-01 This book considers the historical and spatial dimensions of civil society in Zimbabwe's Matabeleland region an area suffering from severe development and democratic deficits over many decades Transcending an organisational conception of civil society and a simplistic state civil society dualist understanding it recognises the dynamic character of civil society as a social space inclusive of less formalised associational forms of collective life as well as the colonial character and legacies of civil society both analytically and empirically This book facilitates a nuanced understanding of the specificities of the social political and economic evolution of Matabeleland in colonial and post colonial Zimbabwe and the region's troubled relations with the central state Historically it traces civil society in Matabeleland from the region's resistance against the colonial settler state to contemporary struggles for justice given the unresolved Gukurahundi legacy Civil society is depicted as constituted by a set of complex and shifting struggles for justice not simply between Matabeleland and the central state but also internally within Matabeleland along multiple fault lines including class and culture The relevance of understanding civil society in Matabeleland for Zimbabwe and Africa more widely is brought to the fore The book will be of interest and value to scholars of civil society politics and democratisation across the African continent

Memory and Cultural Landscape at the Khami World Heritage Site, Zimbabwe Ashton Sinamai, 2018-10-10 This book focuses on a forgotten place the Khami World Heritage site in Zimbabwe It examines how professionally ascribed values and conservation priorities affect the cultural landscape when there is a disjuncture between local community and national interests and explores the epistemic violence that often accompanied colonial heritage management and archaeology in southern Africa The central premise is that the history of the modern Zimbabwe nation in terms of what is officially remembered and celebrated inevitably determines how that past is managed It is about how places are experienced and remembered through narratives and how the loss of this heritage memory may mark the un-inheriting of place Memory and Cultural Landscape at the Khami World Heritage Site Zimbabwe is informed by the author's experience of living near and working at Great Zimbabwe and Khami as an archaeologist and uses archives and traditional narratives to build a biography for this lost cultural landscape Whereas Great Zimbabwe is a resource for the state's contentious narrative of unity and a tool for cultural activism among communities whose cultural rights are denied through the nationalisation and globalisation of heritage at Khami which has lost its historical gravity there is only silence Researchers and students of cultural heritage will find this book a much needed case study on heritage identity community and landscape from an African perspective

A Survey of the Minority Languages of Zimbabwe Simooya Jerome Hachipola, 1998 Zimbabwe is one of the few countries in the region with no comprehensive information on its language situation This book seeks to fill the gap Language policy in Zimbabwe has evolved around the three official languages English Ndebele and Shona The author a lecturer in Bantu linguistics at the University of Zimbabwe highlights the status of the indigenous minority languages by identifying communities speaking minority languages their locations and the role minority languages have played in the education system and in the media Languages covered are Kalanga Hwesa Sotho Shangani Tsonga Tonga of Mudzi District Venda Tonga Chikunda Doma Chewa Nyanja Khoisan Tshwawo Barwe Tswana Fingo or Xhosa Sena and Nambya The author also gives recommendations of how minority languages may be incorporated into future language policy
